Spring...pg.56

What is Brush High School composed of? Spirited fanatics, talented athletes, devoted teachers, creative artists, investigative scientists, and dramatic individuals might describe a few elements of this high school's composition. Leave one aspect out of the recipe and the results might be dysfunctional. We take advantage of the available shoulders for leaning on and rely on each other. That is the element of Brush High School that makes its composition in a class of its own.

We're Back!
Juniors Daniela Trujillo and Breanne Lassiter warm up to defend their title from last year as powder puff champions. After beating the sophomores they went on to the battle the seniors, which went into over time with the '07 girls winning by one touchdown.

Anger Management
Aaron Mick (11) takes his turn bashing the "Yuma" car the week before the big game.

Kiss This!
Coach Draegert referees for Gorilla Volleyball with one of the best painted faces of the night.

Feelin' Hot Hot Hot
Jenny Ramos (11) enjoys roasting a hot dog, supplied by student council, to celebrate the beginning of homecoming week.

Imitation
It may be the sincerest form of flattery, but Nick Dreitz (11) received a different reaction from his dad when he saw Nick at the powder puff football game by simply stating, "I'm not that FAT!"

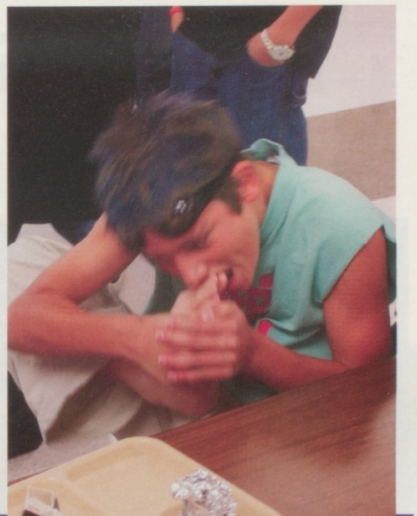

Fire It Up!
Mikaela Ellingson(10), Sarah Schwab(10), and Catelyn Mullenix(9) get excited with school spirit while observing the second annual burning "B."

Wiggin' Out
Is that Anthony Hurt (12) wearing a cheerleading outfit? Yes! He was supporting the powderpuff football girls, pom poms in hand. Hurt stated "Wearing a skirt made me feel delicious!"

Zealots
Fanatically commited to keeping up the school spirit during the week of homecoming, Cheyenne English (9) chugs a whole liter of pop at a noon time activity, and Justin Catlett (9) sucks on his toe for a Klondike Bar.

Let the Good Times Roll

Float Building Fun. Sergio Saucedo (10), Luis Astorga (10), Mattie Chisum (12) and Michelle Bloemker (12) work on their floats at school during Friday.

Royalty
Senior Homecoming nominees Veronica Albo, Josh Gutierrez, Anthony Hurt, Michele Christensen, Krystal Temple, Zach Tedford, Mattie Chisum and Travis Bass.

Gettin' Down
King Hurt and Queen Christensen

Gettin' Down
King Hurt and Queen Christensen groove to the sounds of "Sweet Home Alabama" at the Homecoming dance.

Whoopin' It Up
Jessie Florian (10) throws her hands in the air while dancing to the YMCA. Though it seemed that everyone enjoyed dancing the night away, there were a few shy guys playing wall flower.

Pirates of '09
In an unprecedented show of beginner's luck, the freshman class float won first place in the parade contest with this "Pirates of the Caribbean" entry. Jenny Morgan, Austin Grippin and Sam Schantz were among the featured pirates.

Grease is the Word
The Class of '06 glides through the parade in their "Grease" float, winning second place in the process.

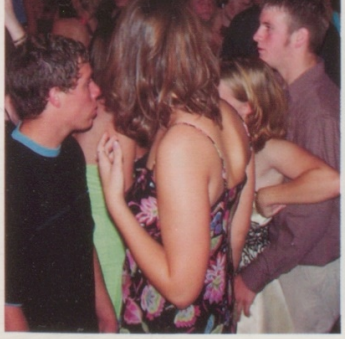

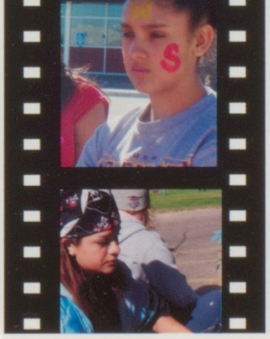

Stuff It
Reesa Larsen and other juniors stuff toilet paper into chicken wire. They worked hard on their most impressive "Knight's Tale" float, but in the end the judges chose the Freshman and Senior floats as winners.

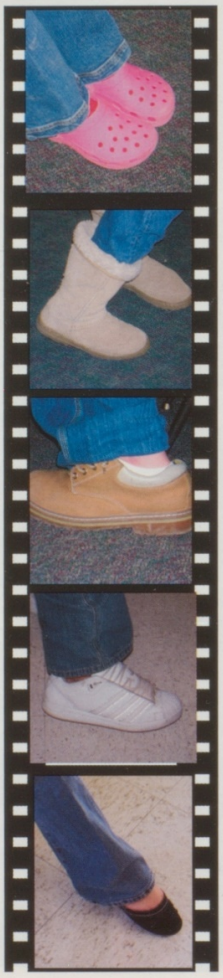

Fashionably FALL

Samuel Schantz (9) wears his Marilyn Monroe t-shirt under a flannel. "Sam wears the coolest shirts ever," stated Ms. Snoeck, "including Nirvana, Monty Python, and of course Johnny Cash."

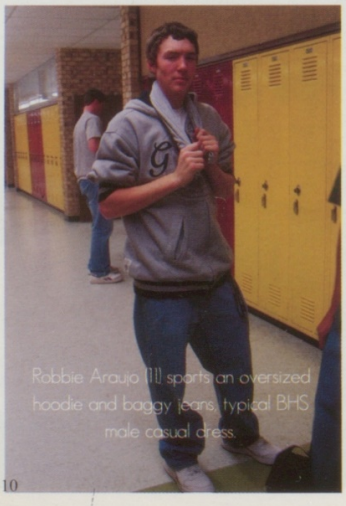

According to Crystal Coons, teen fashion writer for About.com, these are the "Best Fashion Trends of 2005."

1.) Boots Over Jeans
2.) Velvet & Victorian
3.) Gauchos & Palazzos
4.) Rock & Roll
5.) Miss Modest

Mrs. Craton proves that even teachers can possess some style sense. Sources close to her say that while shopping Mrs. Craton has a particular weakness for cute shoes.

Robbie Araujo '11 sports an oversized hoodie and baggy jeans, typical BHS male casual dress.

About.com's Crystal Coon lists these as the five "Worst Fashion Trends of 2005."

1.) Homeless "bobo" look
2.) "Boho" lasting as long as it did
3.) Oversized Sunglasses
4.) Sequin Overkill
5.) Skinny Jeans

Jamie Garfield (12) demonstrates our love of mixing and matching layers and colors.

Jared Bourquin (11) is always fashionably dressed, classy duds from head to toe.

ACCESSORIZE

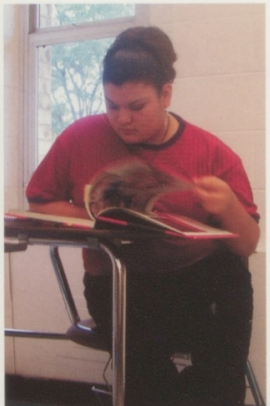

Blingin' necklaces, rubber bracelets, scarf belts and hair clips are a few of the accessory trends this year.

"Jesus is my Homeboy" and other logo tees are popular choices for both men and women. (Modelled here by senior Chuck B)

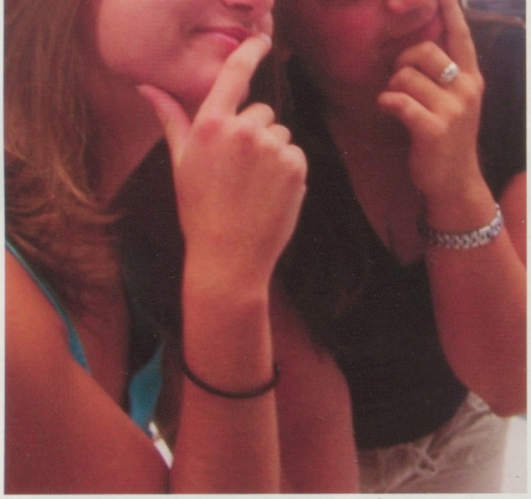

Hmmm...
Michele Christensen (12) and Megan Hinojos (12) contemplate the yearbook ladder, finally deciding on a seasonal organizational structure.

Ideal
Angel Garcia (11) peruses magazines, other yearbooks, and design books searching for ideas to use in our book.

Improvements
Last year's yearbook becomes a learning tool for this year's staff. Shala Meredith (11) and Amanda Stickley (11) look for qualities worth repeating and errors worth avoiding.

Meet the Press

BHS' student journalists gather stories and photos that capture the year

Team Building
Games like Duck Duck Goose and the Human Knot build trust and confidence among staff members at the beginning of the year. When faced with deadlines, coworkers must rely on one another and cooperate.

Two-year yearbook vet Jennifer Graham (12) follows up on some of her ad sales.

Shay Meredith (11), Nichole Catlett (11), and unofficial staffer Claire Dixon (12) conduct a "post mortem" on last year's book.

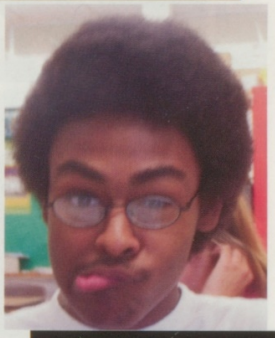

Breanne Lassiter (11) joined our staff second semester, a welcome addition for our photography and writing tasks.

Winston Harris (11) and Nick Sopris (10) assign pages and deadlines. This year's spring delivery (rather than fall) made more pages due sooner at earlier dates.

Austin Balken (11) and Katie Wheeler (11) put their best efforts forward in their Foods for Entertainment class.

In The Mix

Back to school means back to a variety of academic endeavors at BHS.

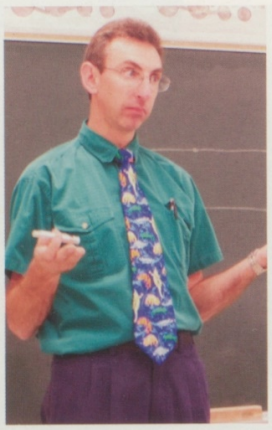

Gridiron Warrior
Freshman Alex Amen (9) rests after an intense flag football game in P.E.

Musical Chairs
Missie Dechant (10) and Katie Olson (9) play the flute in band.

Domino Effect.
Keola Cummings (12) and Zach Tedford (12) set up dominoes to knock down for an experiment in the chemistry lab.

Math Man
Mr. Miller preaches the gospel of math to his congregation of eager young scholars. He's pretty much the best math teacher ever; bred mostly for his skills in magic.

Gettin' Pumped
Omar Gomez (11) pumps some iron during weight training with Mr. Christensen.

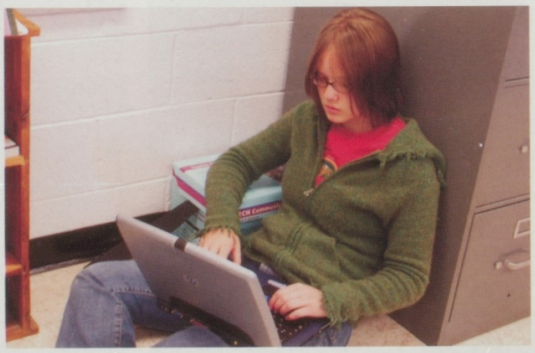

School Daze

Academic offerings at BHS range from the three Rs to physical and vocational education courses.

Wood You Believe?
The re-opening of the wood shop this year provided many students with the opportunity to build furniture and other cool projects. Christan Bierman (12) made a lovely hope chest during the first semester.

Technologically Advanced
Olivia Pecukonis (10) uses her laptop computer to take notes and keep her assignments organized. More and more students are taking advantage of similar technology to help them with their school work.

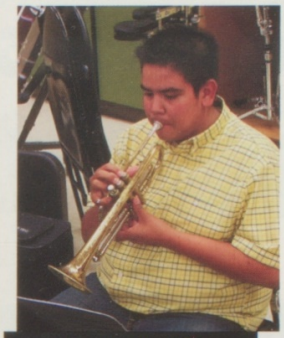

Leticia Macias (10) looks over her assignment in Mrs. Bolinger's Sophomore Literature class.

Roy Grauberger (10) and Antonio Melendez (11) heat beakers on bunson burners in Chemistry.

Careful reading of the text is one key to success for Kevin Barrandey's (10) Physical Geology class.

Child of the Corn

Drew Oakeson (10) attempts to find his way out of the corn maze on the FBLA pumpkin patch trip.

Is There a Doctor in the House?

Lucas Schoelkopf (9) participates in the FBLA Halloween carnival at Thompson Elementary.

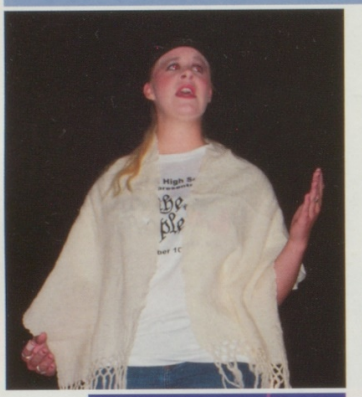

Strolling

Making their way back, Krista Mares (9) and Katelyn Garfield (9) rejoin the other FBLA members, loaded up with pumpkins.

Working Hard

Rex May (10) takes charge on the FFA club's "Wizard of Oz" float during Homecoming.

See You in Sydney

Sportsman's Club member Kevin Massey (9) buys a souvenir at the original Cabella's store in Sydney, NE.

Coming To America

Shelby Groves (11) takes on the role of immigrant for her monologue during the patriotic, history-themed fall play.

Up and Away

Megan William (12) and some Thompson students let their balloons go while visiting the residents of Sunset Manor.

Don't Hate: Participate

Studies show that students who are involved in extracurricular activities do better in school and have higher rates of graduation. Plus, if you have to be here for four years, you might as well have a little fun!

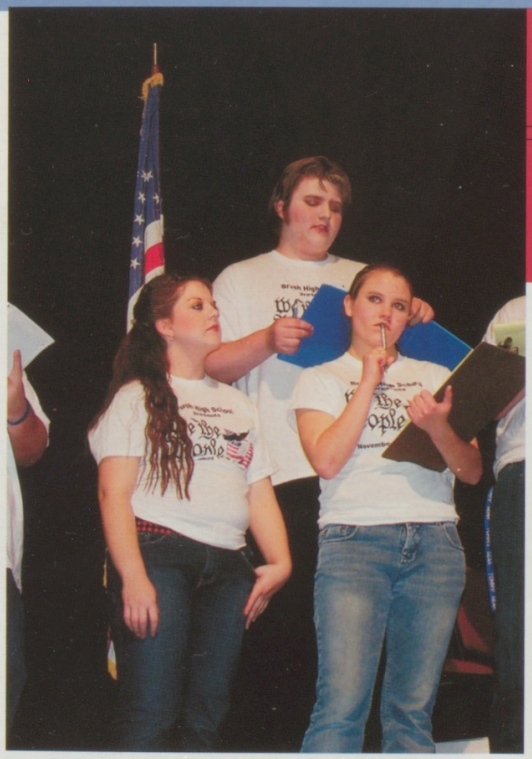

Lending a Hand

Frosh FFA members Kayla Tormohlen, Leesa Drew, Ryan Dreitz and Tryston Laniel dip their hands in green paint for Greenhand Day.

Speaking Out

Coree Linker (10) takes a moment to chat with a youngster during the FBLA carnival.

Taking the Part

Giving it all they've got, Michael Blickhahn (11), Michelle Bloemker (12) and Heidi Brandenburg (12) perform in the fall play.

On The Go

Takin' Care of Business

In a season stamped by scrapes, scratches, scuffs and other injuries, the Beetdiggers finished with an impressive 9-2 record. The Patriot League champs competed in the first round of state playoffs, succumbing once again to the "quarterfinal curse" of yore.

Ryan Nichols (11) remembers this about the season: "We had a really good year becoming UNDISPUTED Patriot League Champs."

The defenesive line of the Beetdiggers holds Monte Vista to a few yards during a critical point in the game.

Aaron Quinlin (11) takes it up the gut against Kent Denver defense.

The 'Swede' Filip Osterlund (12) boots a long one for the Beetdigger special teams.

As the sun sets on Beetdigger Stadium, the team faces Wray under those Friday night lights.

All State running back Anthony Hurt (12) carries the Bennet defense on his way into the end zone.

One highlight for Mark Allen (12) was "when I punted it out of the end zone."

Drew Oakeson (10) "had fun watching Josh and Hurt run."

"I wish we could have had a healthier season so we could have gone to state," stated Rico Portuese (10).

Gaire Rudnik (11) recalls "Filip kicked really good!"

"We would sing songs," Krystal Temple (12) said of pregame volleyball rituals.

"Making it to districts my senior year was the highlight of my career, behind blocking Kendra Carlson," quoted Mattie Chisum (12).

"I like it and it keeps me in shape," answered Jessie Florian (10) when asked why she goes out for volleyball.

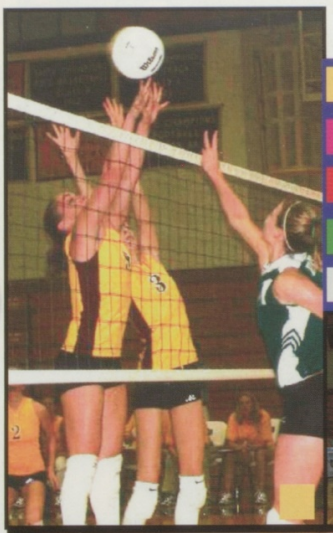

Vanessa Nolan (10) said the most fun part of volleyball was "spiking the ball."

"I only wore white socks for home games and black socks for away games." - Desirae Trujillo (12)

Digger defenders Taylor White (11) and Daniela Trujillo (11) block the opponent's spike.

Madalyn Babcock (11) sets the ball to Halie Krohn (12), who then smacks the ball over the net.

Krystal Temple (12) starts the action of the return play with a bump pass.

Halie Krohn (12) practices passing the ball to a setter, putting the play in motion.

To stop a hit Daniela Trujillo (11) stretches to reach up above the net.

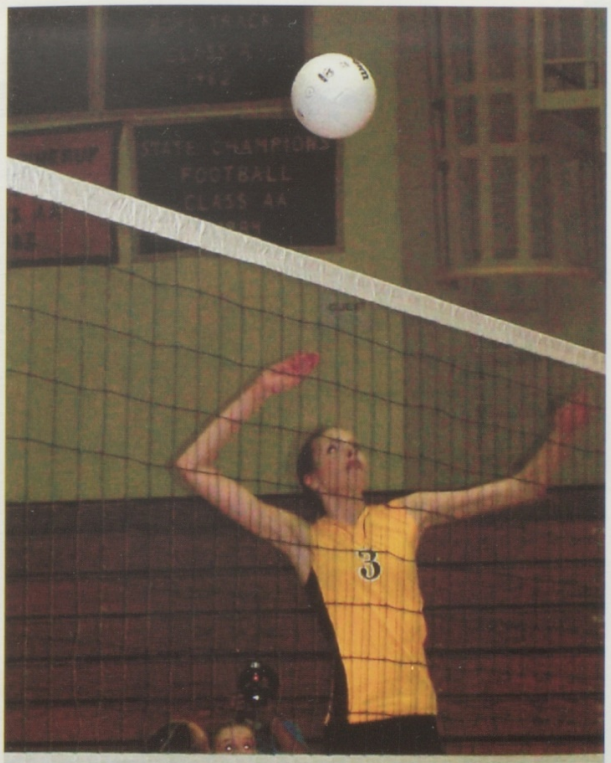

BIG THINGS COME IN SMALL PACKAGES

Spike It!

Taylor White (11) muscles up and jumps high for the spike during the Highland match. White finished the season with an impressive 99 kills.

Nothing Soft About It

Lefty at Bat! Michele Christensen (12) sets up on the left side to put down a drag-bunt. The Lady Diggers tried several new techniques to get their players on base this year.

Run, Forest, Run! Seren Machuca (10) gives it her all as she steals second. The team worked hard on correct base running skills, which paid off in more runs scored.

"This is the third year I've been on the team, and every year I've qualified for State. I'm most proud of the unity of our team and how well we came together when we needed to." -Veronica Albo (12)

JV superstar Zandon Chandler (10) entertains the girls team waiting in the bleachers for Meet results.

Mikaela Riter (9) rehydrates after finishing her race in Lyons.

Adam Goss (10) rounds a corner at the Brush Invitational. Goss placed 23rd with a time of 19:09.

Daniela Sanchez (11) goes the distance, finishing the grueling Lyons course with a time of 22:50.

Kevin Massey (9) picks up the pace for a strong finish. Massey ran his best race of the season at the Patriot League Meet, finishing in 18:40.

The girls' team lines up for the Lyons Invitational. The girls placed third as a team, and the boys team came in seventh.

Taking a breather from float-building, Carlos Sanchez (10) uses the XC "Rocky" float to box with a teammate. (Of course the teammate was ROCKY Montgomery!

"Our goal all season was to be 3A state champs, and we almost made it. We were a really close team, and that probably helped us push each other."
-Camille Quinlin (9)

Short, Sweet & Fast

Activities Director John Schaffer presented the girls' cross country team with their second place banner during a playoff football game, to the delight of several hundred Beetdigger fans. At right, Rocky Montgomery turns perseveres through the redesigned Brush course.

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

RISING FROM THE STORMS

August

25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.

28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.

29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breeched, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.

31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.

2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.

4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.

6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.

9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.

12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.

14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.

15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.

20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.

22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.

23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.
