All That Hassle For A Little Tassle!

The Class of 1981 finished the year with 97 members. Class officers were Barry Funk, president; Kevin Albert, vice president; and Rich Korthuis, secretary/treasurer.

"Digger Galaxy" was the theme for the hall decorating contest, in which the seniors placed second.

The Junior-Senior prom honoring the senior class was held on April 25. The theme was "Dreaming."

Baccalaureate was held May 28, and graduation exercises were held the same date due to Memorial Day Weekend.

Graduation colors for the class of '81 were classic maroon and wonder white.

Mahon Leads German Club

German Club was one of the new clubs to come to BHS this year. It was sponsored by the foreign language teacher Ms. Owens. German Club produced several activities which included a root-beer chugging contest and selling hot pretzels.

The officers were: president, Dave Mahon; vice president, Dean Nichols; secretary, Tania Giauque; and treasurer, Steve Giauque.

First Year For Spanish Club

Spanish Club completed their first year at B.H.S. under Miss Yvette Owens.

The club was led by Sophie Laso, President; Char Kerr, Vice President; Ginger Guzman, Secretary; and Kathy DeLaFuente.

Some of Spanish Club's activities were candy grams for Easter, field trip to Denver for a ballet Folklorico and dinner at a restaurant.

Money raising activities included carwashes for the spring quarter and a banquet; these were to fund a trip abroad for the club.

Next year they will be selling carnations for Valentines day and piñatas along with God's eyes for Christmas.

60 In Honor Societies

60 Brush High School students were elected to the respective Honor Societies, 16 seniors, 13 juniors, 20 sophomores and 11 freshmen.

Members in the Senior Honor Society include Sonya Diers.

Members in the Junior Honor Society include Lori Woodward, Denise Gish, Rosa Perez, Amy Cook, Don Chapman, Tracy Griffith, Julie Kautz, Lorna Lindell, Paul

Hohweiler Directs Marching Band

The Brush High School Band completed another year of marching and concert performances with Chris Hohweiler as the new director. The concert band performed several concerts throughout the year.

The marching band attended Colorado University's Band Day and received an excellent rating. The marching band will be receiving new band uniforms in 1981. Each uniform was custom fitted and will be personalized for each member of the band.

B.H.S. Select Choir

The B.H.S. Select Choir opened up the year with a get-together at Mr. Chris Hohweiler's house.

Some of the performances were for the P.E.O. Club and the Chamber of Commerce, where they served a dinner. Also, a winter concert and spring concert were put on. They were all-around more active this year because of the new music choreography.

Concert Choir Sings To Success

Concert Choir began the year with their new music director Mr. Chris Hohweiler. The group numbered 46 members and performed various concerts throughout the school year. They attended the league choir clinic in Burlington to sing with students from other schools.

Suzanne Foldemark and Katarina Bodlund, B.H.S's two foreign exchange students from Sweden, gave the Christmas Concert a Swedish flair when they taught the choir to sing "Silent Night" in their language. The Brush High choir gave a Spring concert in May, and received an excellent rating when they traveled to Sterling for the large group contest which also took place in May.

Albert Heads B-Club

Heading B-Club for the 1980-81 school year was Kevin Albert. Jeannie Strauch served as vice president; Marc Mullen, secretary-treasurer; and Ted Odle, Sergeant at Arms.

Fall projects, such as yard work and corn picking, were the club's main sources of income.

Fall projects, such as yard work and corn picking, were the club's main sources of income.

Other activities included their annual trip to a Rocky Hockey game, and a pizza party at the Pizza Hut.

B-Club was sponsored this year by Coach LeeRoy Needens.

14 Round Up Clearing House

During the 1980-81 school year, Clearing House held many activities to benefit the mentally and physically handicapped of Morgan County. They had a Halloween costume party, a Christmas party at the Elks Club, and their annual spring picnic. They also held raffles to raise money for their parties.

This year's officers were: president, Ronnie Davis; vic president, Kim Dean; secretary, Jan Kauffman; treasurer Ann Kauffman; and scrapbook photographer, Randy Dan ielson.

Club sponsors were; Mrs. Jane Van Dyke, and Mrs. Ga Kirshbaum.

H.O.S.A. Is New Club At B.H.S.

H.O.S.A. is a new organization at Brush High School and the club is involved in public health. H.O.S.A. stands for Health Occupational Students of America. The members in this club have done numerous activities related to public health. They made Halloween treats for the nursing homes and Christmas gifts for the kids at Star School and also for the Head Start program in Fort Morgan. They had a bake sale and sold green carnations for St. Patrick's Day as their money making projects. The H.O.S.A. members held one free blood pressure clinic and also did some job training at the hospital and veterinarian clinics.

The members in the club were Janine Bruce, Elie Kivisto, Jonna Morris, Kim Reitz, Stephanie Schmer, and their treasurer, Laura Tucke. The advisor of their club was Mrs. Gertge from Morgan Community College.

28 Make It To State

The Brush DECA chapter had a very busy year. Their officers were Dave Mahon as president; Kevin Albert as vice-president; Tania Giauque as secretary; and Heather Spencer as treasurer.

They stayed at the Broadmoor.

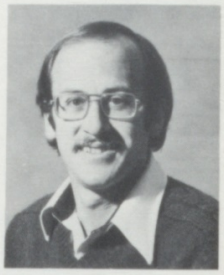

This year was the second year for the "DECA Day 81" at Brush High School. The classes competed against each other in different events.

All together, 28 students from Brush High School attended the state DECA meeting in Colorado Springs.

This year was the second year for the "DECA Day 81" at Brush High School. The classes competed against each other in different events.

A new money-raising event this year was a Bar-B-Que at the 1981 state track meet.

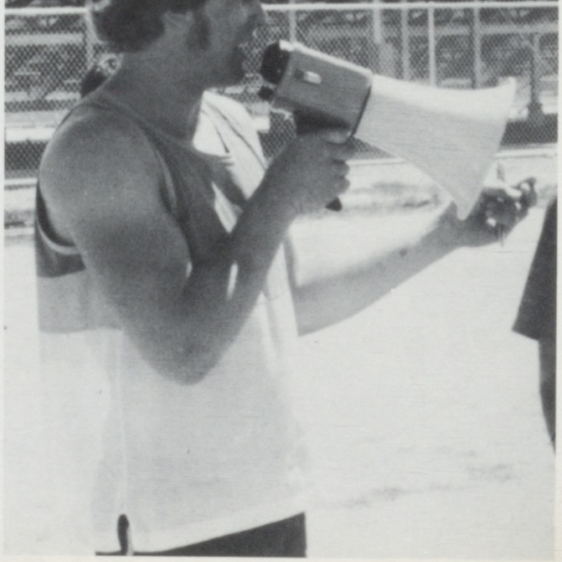

D.E.C.A. held their second annual D.E.C.A. Days contest. The juniors placed first over all with the seniors taking second place. The sophomores took third while the freshmen edged the teachers out for fourth place.

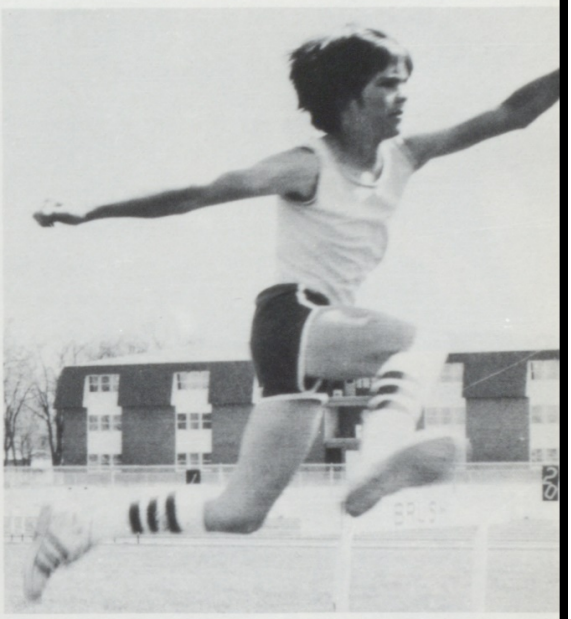

Poulignot Heads FBLA

FBLA sponsors for the 1980-81 school year were Miss Frost and Mr. Schafer. Officers were President, Jay Poulignot; Vice President, Melinda Salinas; Treasurer, Heather King; Secretary, Jill Stancil; Parliamentarian, Andy Boxer; and Historian, Brenda Marshall.

At the district contest, Andy Boxer, Kelly Emhovick, Jay Poulignot, and Jill Stancil qualified for the state conference. Other members also attending the state conference were Tracy Griffith, Wanda Killough, Heather King, Jim King, Terri McGaughey, and sponsor Miss Frost.

The state conference was held March 22-24 at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs. State winners went to the national conference in Chicago, Illinois.

Burham Presides Over FHA

The 1980-81 school year was a good one for the Future Homemakers of America, gathering 23 members to support the club. Mrs. Thruston sponsored the organization, while Melodie Burham presided as president. Jonelle Gebauer was elected vice-president, Wenona Koehler took the duties of secretary/treasurer, and Jeri Wilson represented the club as district representative.

The F.H.A. members of Brush High School organized or took part in events through the year, such as the district convention held in Colorado Springs. They also provided pizza for hall-decorators at Homecoming, organized a Christmas dinner for the members of Sunset Manor, and participated in a State conference in March.

ipated in a State conference in March.

FFA . . . On The Move

The Brush chapter of the Future Farmers of America got a good start in the 1980-81 school year with twenty eight members. Irvin Kalous served as president; Curt Weitzel, vice-president; Dave Krueger, secretary; Mitch Bostrom, treasurer; Gene Braun, sentinel; and Dean Nichols was the club reporter.

The club sent judging teams to Colorado State University in Fort Collins for the annual C.S.U. judging contest. The teams judged horses, livestock, dairy, soil, and Ag Mechanics, with the dairy team winning a gold medal.

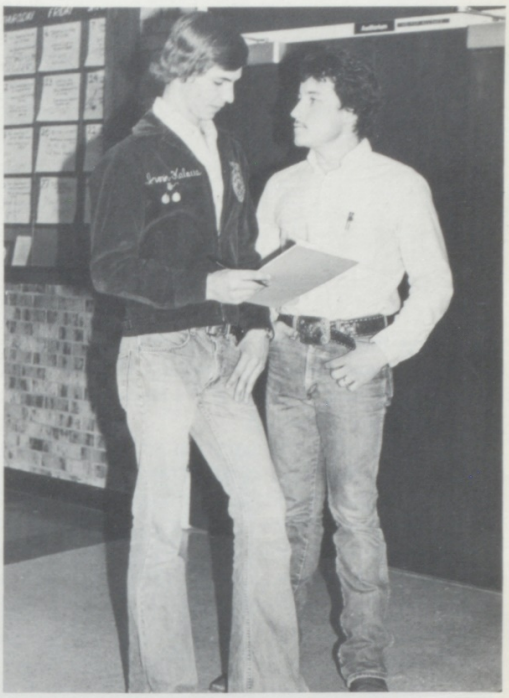

Other activities included the FFA National Convention from November 11-16, with Gene Braun, Ron Windolph, and Randy Danielson attending. The annual slave sale and Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry was held on February 21 in the commons and auditorium. The parent-member banquet was also held on April 9, at 6:30 in the commons.

Leading the Forensics club during the 1980-81 school year was Steve Brandenburg. Other officers included Lori King, secretary; Pia Hayes, treasurer; and Andy Boxer, Historian.

During the year, they participated in ten speech meets. They attended a workshop at Colorado State University in the fall and held their own work shop at Brush High School in the spring.

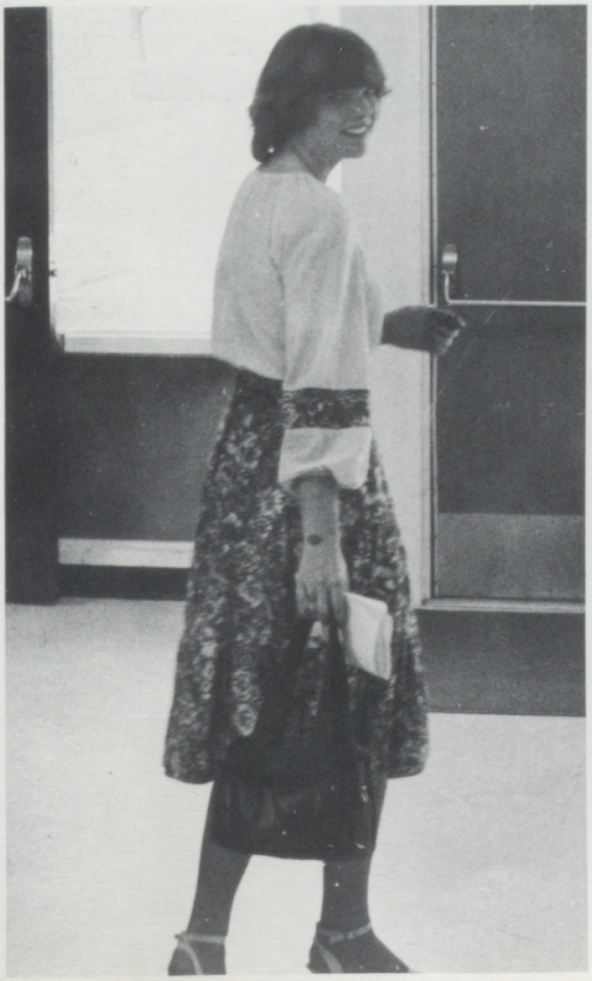

For entertainment, the club took a field trip to the Country Dinner Playhouse in Denver. They saw a melodrama while they were there.

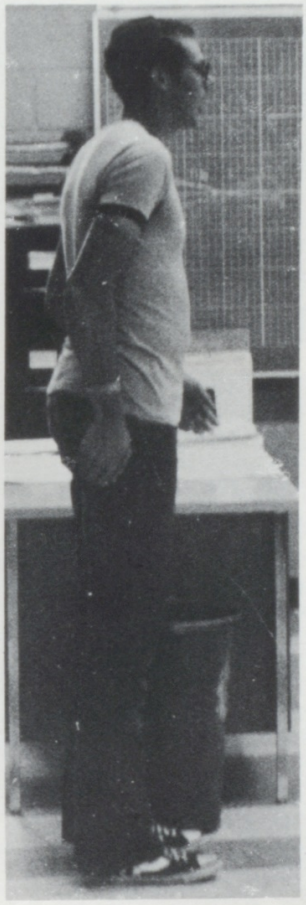

Sponsoring the club for her first year was Ms. Linda Lyons.

Guthner Heads IRC

The IRC members kept very busy this year by attending pot luck dinners, a Thanksgiving banquet, participating in the model United Nations, a spring banquet, and the spring picnic.

The club's president was Joe Guthner, vice president was Lori Wind, and the secretary-treasurer was Kelly Emhovick. The club was under the direction of Mr. Vic Doyle.

At the model U.N., the juniors and seniors represented the following countries: Cuba, the Philippines, Ukrainian S.S.R., and Sweden. It was held April 24 and 25, 1981 at the Michener Library in Greeley.

Pierce Leads Math And Science

Math and Science club was active in 1980-81, electing officers, taking field trips, and engaging in various other activities.

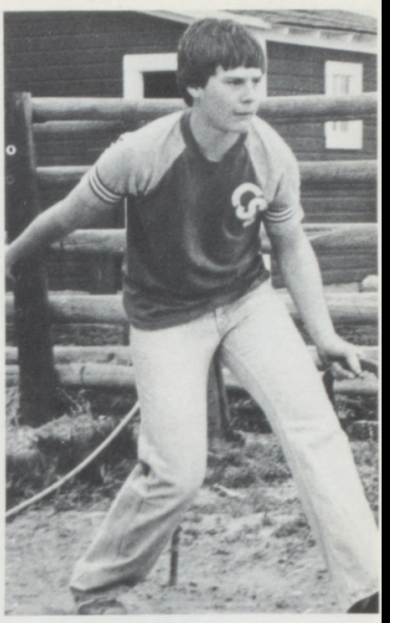

Officers were Rod Pierce, President; Dave Mahon, Vice President; Kelly Emhovick, Secretary; Lori Woodward, Treasurer; and Luis Peredo, Sgt.-at-Arms.

The club took several field trips, including trips to Hewlett-Packard Co. in Loveland and Air Traffic control in Longmont. Math and Science also provided prizes and support for the 1981 Regional Science Fair.

Proud Crowd's Spirit Thrives

Proud Crowd was active in boosting school spirit with it's activities.

Club officers for the year of 1980-81 were Toby Cromwell, President; Lori King, Vice President; A. J. Spade, Secretary; and Crystal Rieb, Treasurer.

Some of Proud Crowd's activities were skating parties, ice cream socials, and running concessions for club profit.

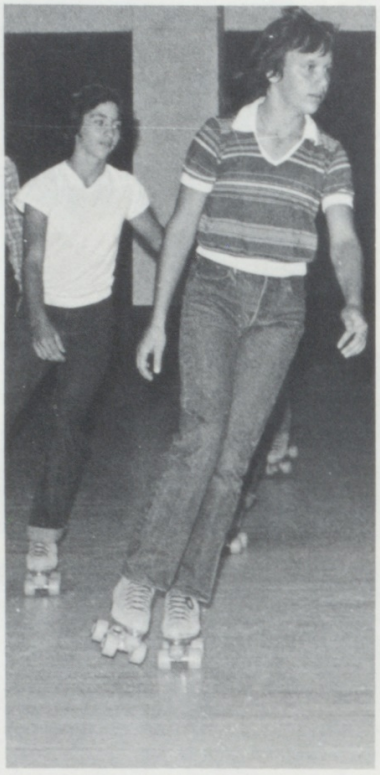

Sponsoring the club were Mr. Dillehay, Mr. Bever, Mr. Sumner, Ms. Owens, Mrs. Mesch, and Miss Speegle.

The number of members dropped slightly from last year. There were 100 members last year, and there are approximately 90 members this year.

The Brush High School Vocational Industrial Clubs of America was sponsored by Ken McReynolds again this year.

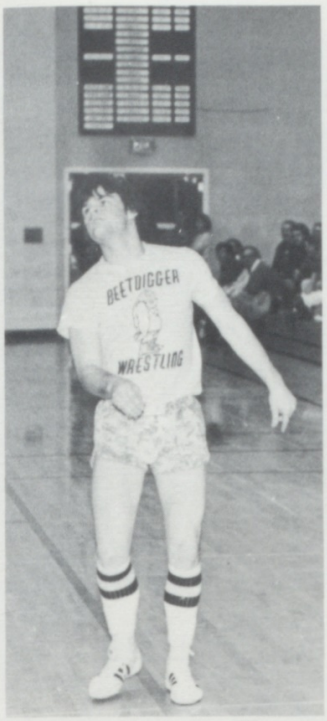

The president this year was Ted Odle; vice-president was Sky Blake; Secretary was Jamie Blake; treasurer was Johnny Romero; Parliamentarian was Tim Stratton; reporter, Art Oblander; and Advisor was Robert Gish.

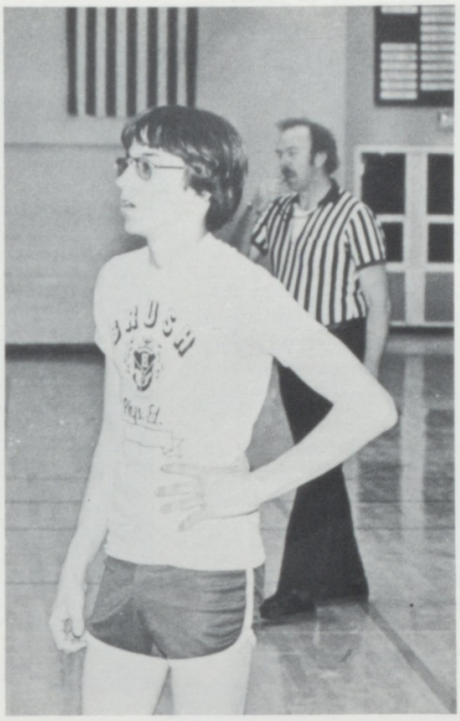

During December the club raffled off a moped as a money-making project.

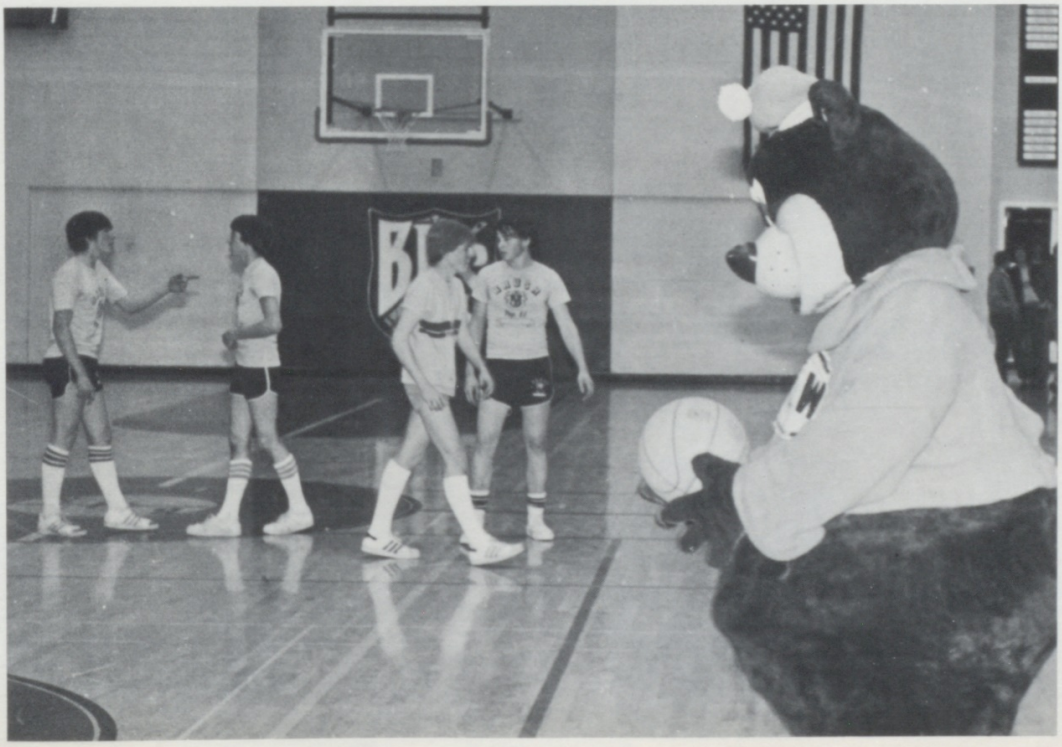

District Fall Leadership Conference was held in Greeley. Ted Odle was elected District Vice-President; Art Oblander was elected District Reporter; and Tim Stratton, District Parliamentarian.

Four Thespians Receive Honors

This year four of the graduating Thespians received honors for becoming Honor Thespians. To become an Honor Thespian, a senior of the club must have attained 60 points which are given for various public performances. Those who received honors were Lori King, Roxanne Likely, Roger Mahon and Bill Yearous.

Roxanne Likely served the Thespian Troupe as president for the 1980-81 school year, with Bill Yearous filling in as vice-president. Secretary-Treasurer was held by Jay Pouliginot, Historian by Eric Ruhl and Business Manager, Andy Boxer.

Troupe 968 produced two performances during the year. They were: The Mouse That Roared and Arsenic and Old Lace.

Mr. Greg Krob was the Thespian sponsor this year.

J-Staff Ends Busy Year

Under the direction of Mr. Woolley, the B.H.S. J-Staff was busy producing the 1980-81 yearbook and the monthly Sagebrush Reporter, which contained stories ranging from club trips, feature stories, and letters to Santa.

Engineering this year's yearbook were Sonya Griffith and Roxanne Likely, both occupied in laying out pages and scaling pictures. Dean Nichols and Carlene Larsen, Sagebrush editors, were active organizing the school paper.

The Brush High School Homecoming took place in the new Sports Complex, on October 4th this year. Tami Jo Newland and Kevin Needens reigned over the Homecoming activities.

Hall decorating replaced the traditional floats this year because of misconduct by some of the students last year. Student Council sponsored this activity. The junior class took first place, followed by the freshmen, seniors, and sophomores.

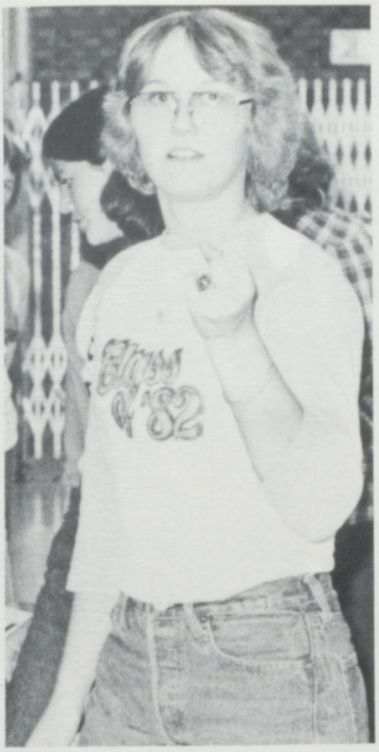

Homecoming King candidates were Kevin Needens, Kevin Albert, Rich Korthius, and Ted Odle. Queen candidates were Tami Jo Newland, Jeannie Strauch, Lori King, and Crystal Rieb.

The Digger Volleyball Team lost their first match of the season to the Burlington Cougars in a three game match. But the Digger football team came back to avenge the loss with a 3-0 win over the Cougars.

The Homecoming dance was held on October 4th featuring Disco Dynamite. Homecoming royalty was coronated during the dance.

Diggers Bring Back A Tradition

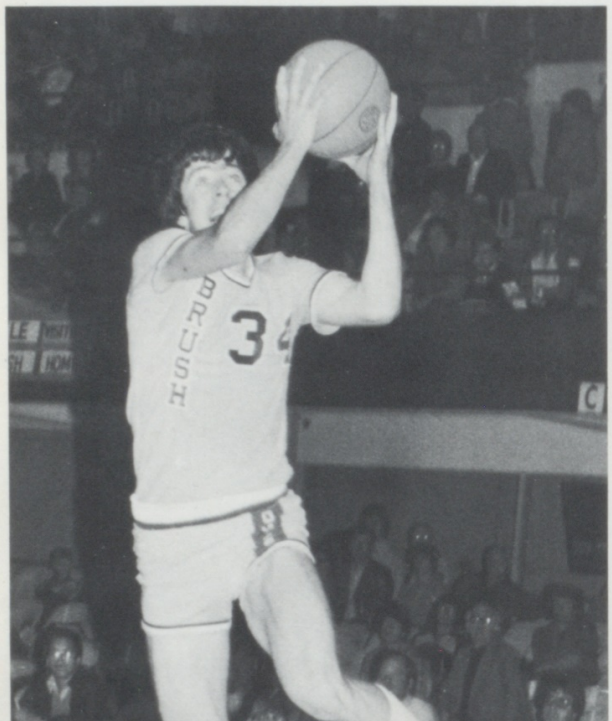

Coach Needens stated, "This year we brought back a tradition to BHS."

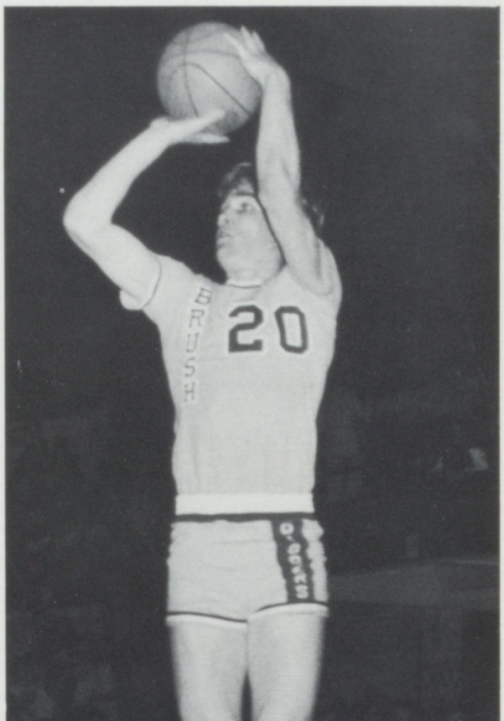

Needens was referring to the berth of his basketball team in the 1980-81 State Basketball Tournament.

In the first round the Diggers met the Rifle Bears. Brush put up a good fight but lost 65 to 75.

The next day Brush met Denver Christian to see who would advance to the consolation championship game. But once again the Digger cagers didn't fare too well. They lost 54 to 59.

Kevin Needens was elected to the All Tournament team. He was also nominated to the North-South all-star game.

Congratulations to the Seniors of 1981

We will make every effort to make Your senior portraits for the Class of '82 a most cherished memory of your senior year.

We offer discount rates starting in June 1981 thru December.

Beautiful outdoor scenes or indoor color backgrounds or both at no extra cost to you!
