Hays Completes Third Year

For the third year, Mr. Robert Hays was principal at Brush High School. This 1969-70 school year also marked the second anniversary of Mr. Edward Neill as assistant principal.

Students:

As you travel life's many highways, remember that your part in the world is very essential to the happiness of the world. One grain of corn never filled a bushel measure, but it helps the other grains to do so. Your little service to others may pass unnoticed, but the sum of all such helpfulness is what makes the world better today than it was yesterday.

Robert L Hays

Ground Broken for New School

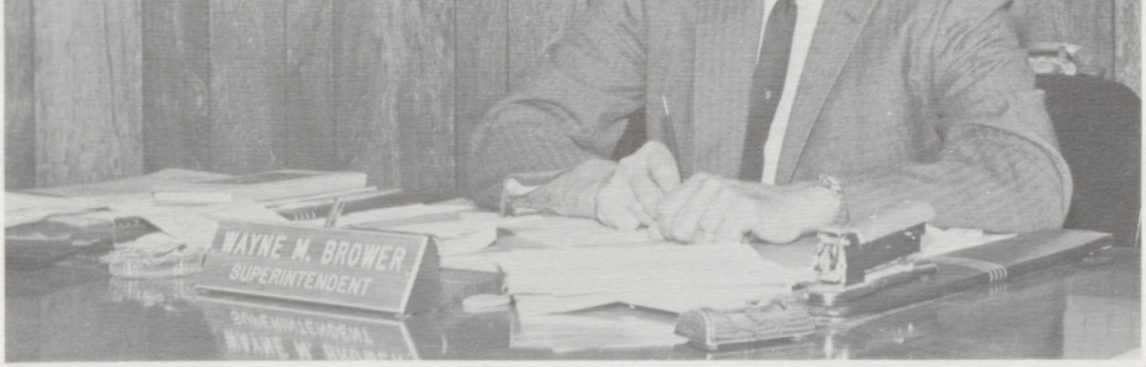

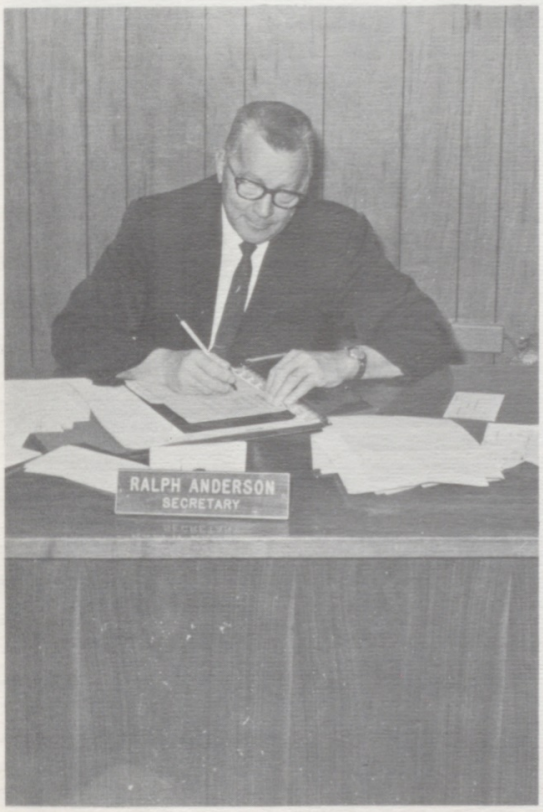

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new high school were held on March 15, 1970 with Board of Education President, Glenn Swinson, acting as Master of Ceremonies. Also speaking were Rev. Reinhold Opp, Superintendent of Schools Wayne Brower, Mayor Calvin Leach, and representatives Casey Davis, student body president, and Mr. Thomas Woolley from the Education Association.

Glenn Swinson, George White, John Lindell, Morton Boxer, Allyn Wind, Raymond Paulsen, and Donald Ruhl were the RE-2 Board of Education members. Elected before the bond issue passed last May, the board has seen much action. They proceeded to work on and approve the building plans for the new school. Construction on the new building started in the spring of 1970.

Mr. R. Schweers Completes 33 Years

After graduating from CSC (now UNC), Mr. Rex Schweers went to Holly, Colorado where he taught math for two years. Moving on, he went to Medicine Bow, Wyoming where he was superintendent for six years.

In 1937 Mr. Schweers came to Brush to teach math and for four years he coached B-Squad basketball. At that time he was the only math teacher teaching Algebra I, Geometry and a semester of Algebra II. During his 33 years at Brush he sold tickets at the basketball games and wrestling matches, and drove a bus for 27 years which he enjoyed very much, sponsored WOIXE, the radio club of B.H.S., and took care of the financing for the athletic department.

Mr. Schweers is going to do some traveling after his retirement. His plans also include working with ham radio, collecting rock specimens and doing a little fishing.

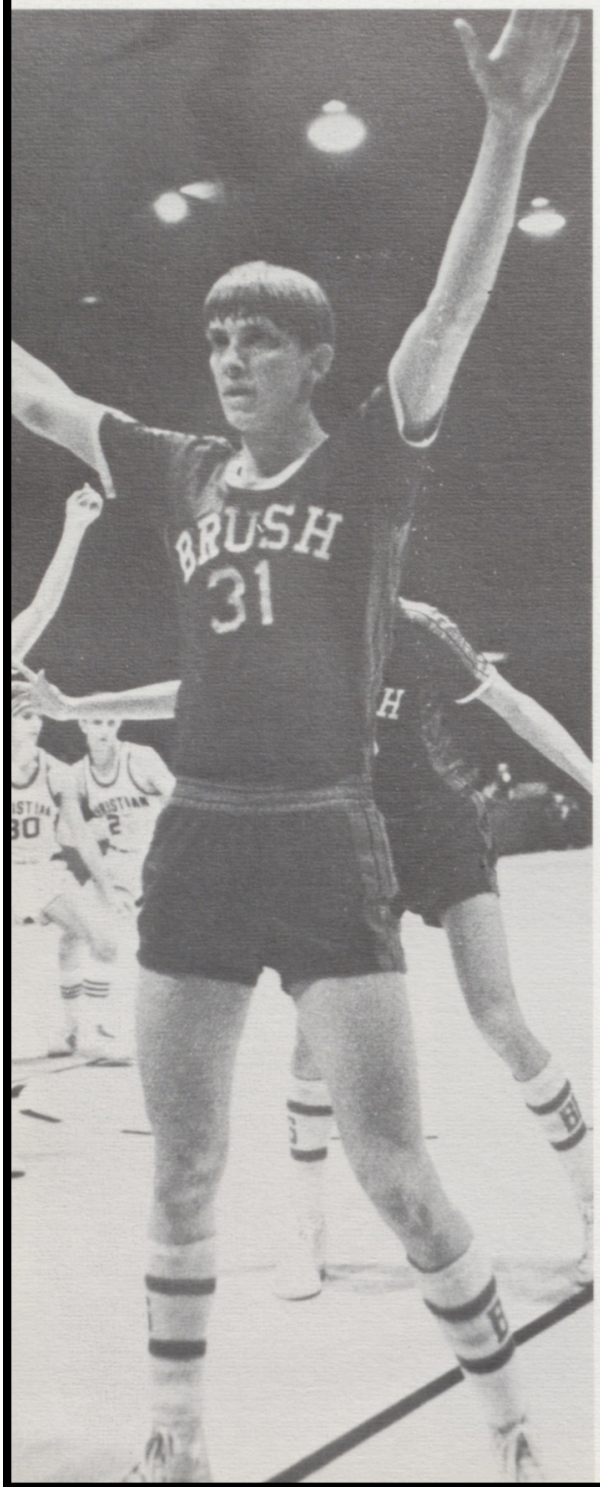

Variety Show Highlights Year

Brush Choir presented a "variety show" for the first time to the public. It consisted of selections sung by the group along with added choreography. Small ensembles were also a big part of the presentation, as a duet, trio, quartet, sextet, octet, a piano duet and a small group called the "Playmakers" performed. All girls from the choir sang a number called, "Don't Sleep in the Subway," while the whole chorus sang such songs as "Goin' Outa My Head," "Little Bird" and others. The show was brought to a climax as the choir sang their last selection, "America."

show was brought to a climax as the choir sang their last selection, "America."

Diggers Make Bid for State Title

Coach Edson and his Brush Beetdiggers lost only one game in the 1969-70 season. It was the last game of the State Tournament, which was for the championship. The Beetdiggers were beaten by Denver Christian for the title. Early in the season, the Diggers beat Denver Christian on their home floor. This victory snapped a 44 home game winning streak.

The annual staff congratulates Coach Edson and his Diggers on a fine season.

in announcing 36 seniors had received scholarships and awards for their outstanding achievements in certain fields.

Bernie Clark and Casey Davis were chosen as the reigning Mr. Beetdigger and Homecoming King. The Homecoming King was an innovation this year. Joan Lynch and Julie White were chosen as the reigning queens of Prom and Homecoming for their attendants in each court.

Sixteen students were chosen at the rate of two a month for the Student's of the Month positions. Chosen for their achievements in various fields, the Student Council made the final decision on the candidates.

Various class members were honored by being chosen for the Honor Societies.

Given Honors

Students of the Month was an honor awarded to two Brush High students every month. The advisory groups made the nominations of a boy and girl which were then taken to student council on Wednesday. The council voted on these nominees and made the final decision. The two receiving the most votes were invited to student council to receive an honor pin and were further recognized by having their picture and a story run in the school newspaper.

For the month of September students selected were Julie Opp, editor of the paper, and Casey Davis, Homecoming King. Julie White, Homecoming Queen, and Rick Holmes, football captain were honored for October, while Gaynor Bloom, president of Thespians, and Terry Christensen, All-State Basketball member, were voted in for November. Pep club president, Patsy Weiss, and student council vice-president, Brendy Lee, received the most votes for December. For the month of January, Mike Pfost, All Conference basketball player, and Sharon Madsen, Honor Society member, were the outstanding students, while Bernie Clark, Mr. Beetdigger, and Charlene Houston, state oratorical speaker, won the honors for February. Ron Samples, state wrestler, and Sharon Meininger, Betty Crocker Homemaker Award winner, were chosen for March. The final students selected for the 1969-70 school year were Dave Miller, state choir member, and Joan Lynch, Prom Queen.

Honor Societies Gain Thirty-Three

At the end of the first semester the faculty of Brush High selected the students to represent this school in National Honor Society. The students were chosen on the basis of leadership, citizenship, character and service to the school. In order to be considered, each student must have a cumulative semester grade average of 3.00. The percentages chosen from each class are set by the National Honor Society. Ten percent of the freshman class and 5% of the sophomore class are selected each year to Junior Honor Society. The same figures apply to the junior and senior classes, respectively, in Senior Honor Society.

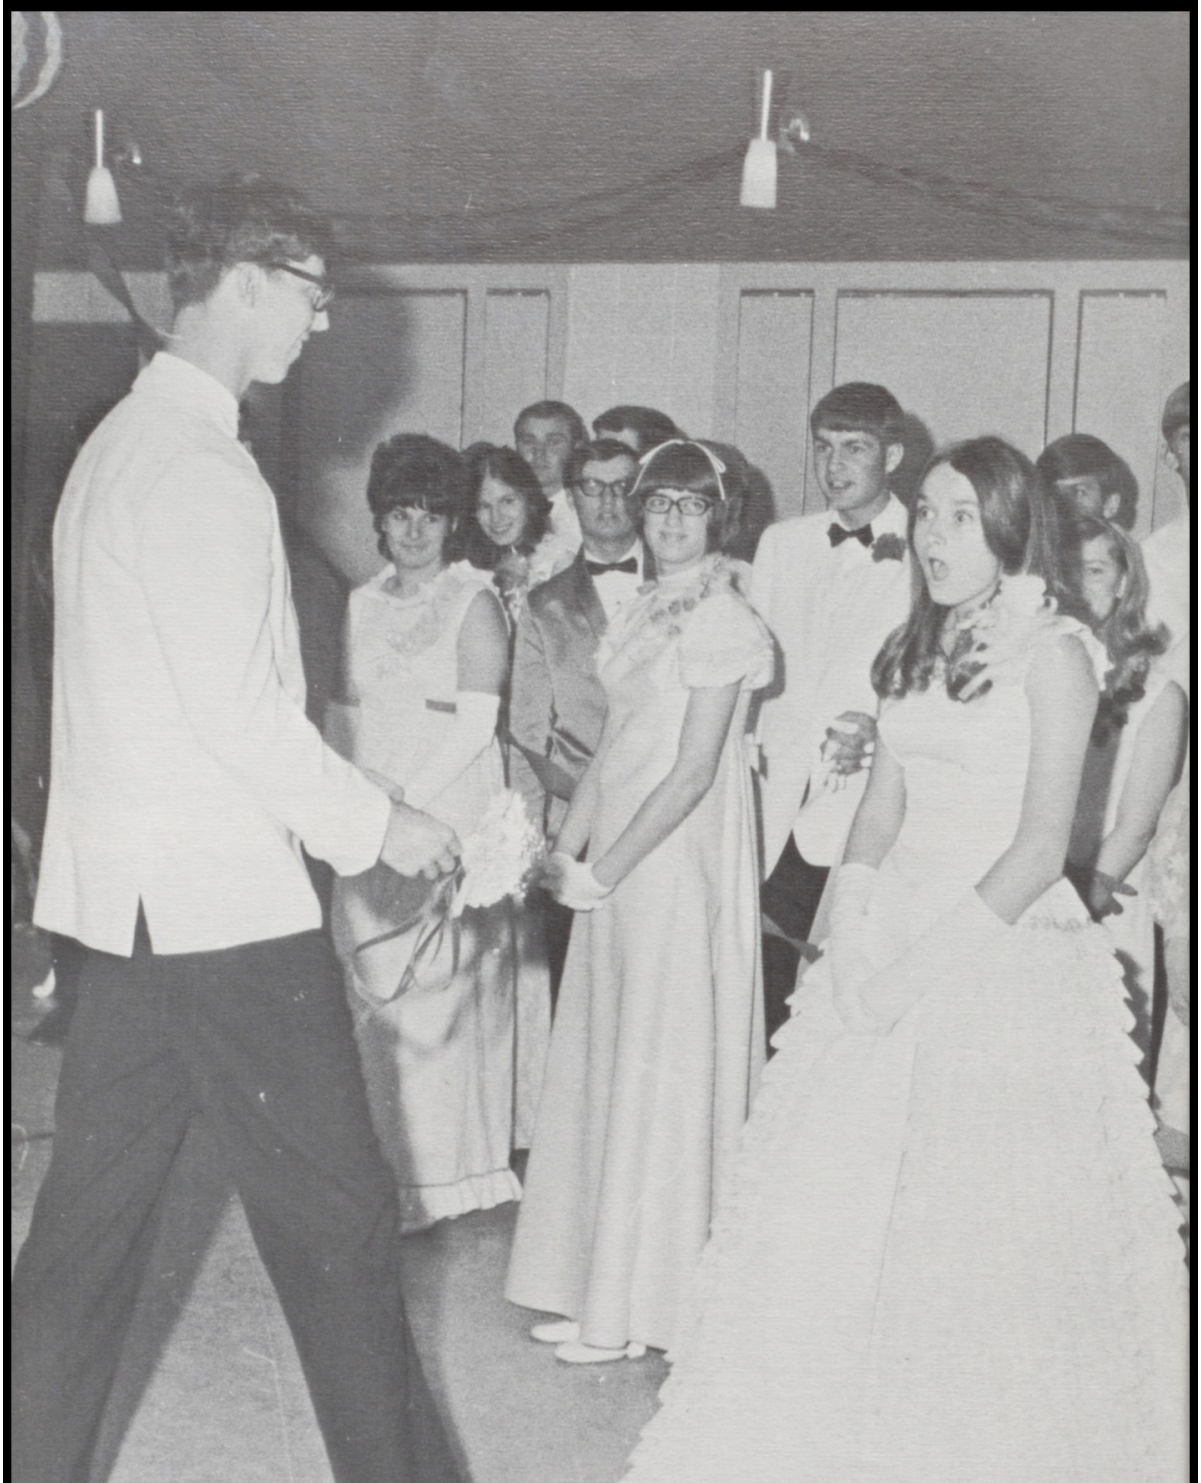

Seniors already in Senior Honor Society are Patti Beckley, Gaynor Bloom, Terry Ferguson, Sandra Harryman, Judy Lorensen, Sharon Madsen, Cheryl Marwitz, Faye Weiss, Patsy Weiss, and Julie White. New seniors include Marilyn Kulp, Brendy Lee, Sharon Morman, Mike Pfost, and Mollie Torrez. Newly selected Juniors are Valda Conover, Eddie Cooperrider, Dennis Cox, Sharon Kauffman, Donna Oblander, Marlene Peters, Maria Perez, Juanita Rios, Susan Wagers, and Debbie Wilson.

Homecoming King Added

Royalty for 1969-1970 were Julie White, Casey Davis, Bernie Clark, and Joan Lynch. The first royalty was crowned in the fall at the traditional Homecoming game.

During the royal coronation at half time, Julie and Casey were crowned Queen and King of the Homecoming festivities. This was the first year that a Homecoming King was selected. Julie's attendants were Winnie Lee, Sharon Madsen, and Patsy Weiss. Brent Christensen, Rick Holmes, and Ron Samples were Casey's attendants.

Pep Club gave Bernie Clark the title of "Mr. Beetdigger" at the annual Sweetheart Dance. All senior boys are voted upon for their athletic ability, sportsmanship and personality. Bernie was attended by Terry Christensen, Brendy Lee, and Ron Samples.

At the Junior-Senior Prom held on May 2, the juniors selected Joan Lynch to reign as Prom Queen. Carla Garret was crowned junior attendant and Patsy Weiss, senior attendant.

One of the highest honors an individual can receive at BHS is to be crowned as one of the royalty. These honors are given by their classmates.

Scholarships and awards played an important part in the lives of many seniors as 36 received such honors at the Awards Assembly. These honors ranged from full tuition scholarships to the smaller local scholarships.

Additional honors were presented to the outstanding seniors in various fields at the annual Masonic Awards Assembly on May 20.

This year, various companies and foundations gave scholarships to attend summer workshops. The workshops were for juniors and held on various college campuses across Colorado and the adjoining states.

Together, as a group, the class of 1970 worked hard to make the last year of high school a success. With their individual and group duties, the class competed in the Homecoming contest, the Christmas skits, and the traditional Digger Day rivalry.

Many seniors who realized they were in their last year, worked hard to secure plans for a successful future. Many worked on their college applications while others applied for jobs in business firms. In many other ways, they worked hard to secure future positions before leaving B.H.S.

Seniors Graduate With 93

Rick Holmes headed the Class of 1970 as president, assisted by vice-president Jim Walker. Sharon Meininger filled the secretarial position, while Judy Lorensen handled the class funds. Senior sponsors were Miss Margaret Mora and Mr. Al Moser.

Senior class activities began with Homecoming, in which the senior float placed third. Instead of having the traditional Nativity at Christmas, the class decided to give three one-act plays. On December 15, they presented "A Song Is Born," "The Gift Of The Magi," and "A Partridge In A Pear Tree." After Christmas vacation, plans began for graduation in May.

During the 1969-70 session of high school, the juniors pursued success in high school with a high degree of enthusiasm. This was evident throughout the year with their successes which were the 1st place Homecoming float, 1st place in the Christmas skits, and the finale—the Digger Day Championship.

Also, through the year, they worked hard to raise enough money to sponsor the prom and other activities with their concessions and bake sales.

Dwight Andersen was elected by the class to keep the meetings in order while Virginia Guzman was selected as vice president. Bob Callen was chosen as treasurer and Marlene Peters as secretary.

Leading the class of '71 during the junior year was Dwight Anderson, president, and Virginia Guzman, vice-president. Bob Callen and Marlene Peters were elected treasurer and secretary, respectively. Sponsors helping the class in their activities were, Mrs. Claire Lynch, Mr. Mark Richards, and Mr. Carl Mellecker.

During the year, the juniors competed in many activities. In the float competition, the class placed first for the second year in a row. "Hang-Up At Generation Gap" was the title of the play the juniors presented on November 13-14. The prom, sponsored by the class, was presented on May 2, 1970, at Thomson School. "Three Coins In A Fountain," was the theme selected by the class members and "The Living End" supplied music for the evening. Among other events were the Christmas skit, where the juniors again placed first, and Digger Day where members of the class were active in various events.

Beginning high school is an experience surpassed only by graduation. The underclassmen are suddenly awakened by the shock of high school studies, sports, and social life. The next four years of his life will determine whether he will succeed or fail. At first he finds it difficult to adjust and become active in all facets of B.H.S. functions.

When the underclassmen has neared the end of his sophomore year, his outlook on life at B.H.S. has changed. Where before he often despised and dreaded high school, he now goes about showing pride and enthusiasm and an eagerness to succeed in his career.

Frosh Sponsor April Sock-Hop

Miss Young
Mr. Gabriel

For the freshmen, the year began with the traditional two week orientation period. After they became familiar with the procedures of BHS, they held their first class meeting under the sponsorship of Miss Lorraine Young and Mr. Don Gabriel. Clay Ruebel presided as president, Kathy Beckley filled the duties of vice-president, Lana Wantlin was chosen as secretary, and Ed Pabst served as treasurer.

Various activities busied the freshmen throughout the school year. During homecoming, in the fall, their float efforts secured the fourth place honor, while their Christmas skit placed third. Candy stands, candle selling, and a sock-hop in April provided the class with necessary funds to fill the treasury.

The Class of '73 had a membership totaling 127 students.

For the first time at B.H.S. many of the courses were put on semester or quarter schedules. All of the English courses were put on this basis, while many of the Social Studies courses were put on the same. Also, for the first time, the students were given the opportunity to plan their own class schedules for the year. This presented many problems, but all were ironed out and the year proceeded.

With the doors closed for the 1970 summer, it can be said that another academically productive year was evident with advancements of the students to a higher level.

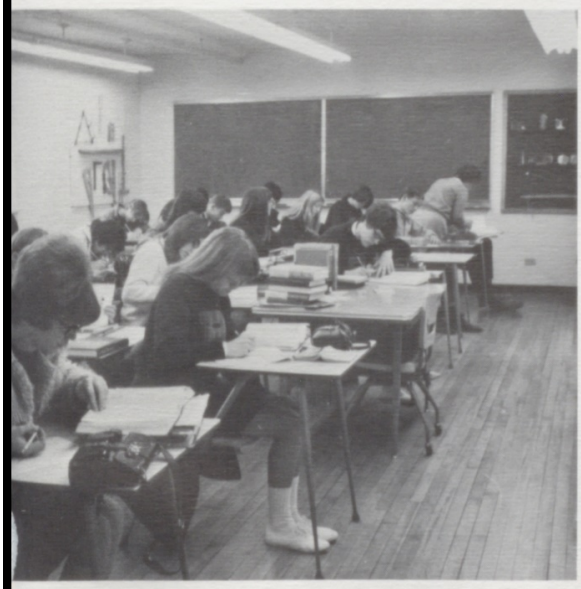

Early in 1969 the school bond issue was passed. This produced much anticipation in the school system especially with a number of teachers. Many were busily planning out what they needed or wanted in their new room.

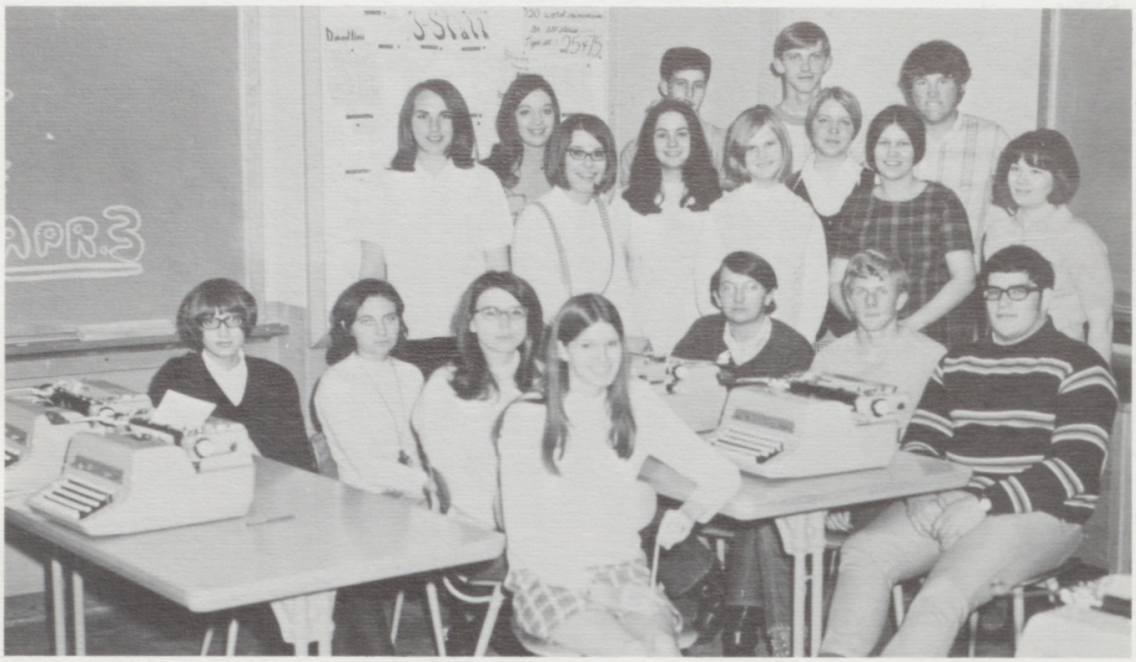

Academic

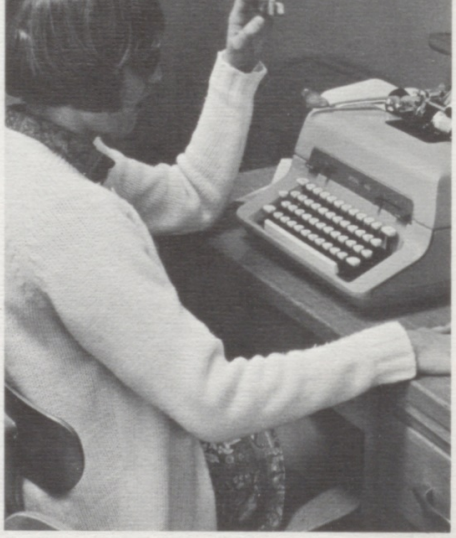

J-Staff Completes Dual Function

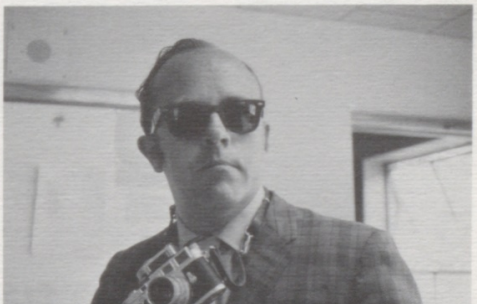

Composed of twenty-three members, this years J-Staff divided their time and efforts by publishing a paper every three weeks and putting out the yearbook. Julie Opp and Gaynor Bloom were this years co-editors on the paper while Mark Ruebel and Terry Ferguson were the co-editors for the annual.

During the first part of the year everyone was assigned a beat which they were to check each week and write news articles when necessary. This year 11 issues of the paper were distributed to the student body. In everyone's spare time they worked on the annual by writing copy and laying out pages.

English Department Put on Quarter Basis

For the first time at B.H.S., the English department went on a quarter basis. Mr. Edward Neill headed this department in which four quarters are required for each year of high school. Some of the subtopics taught were composition, grammar, literature, speech and drama. Mrs. Evelyn Goddard, Mrs. Claire Lynch, Mrs. Phyllis Woodward, and Mrs. Margaret Queen were co-workers in this department.

Composition consisted of learning to write themes and composing five major paragraphs to make up the composition. Some of the topics chosen to write on were The Generation Gap, What Commercials Prove, and Blind Dates.

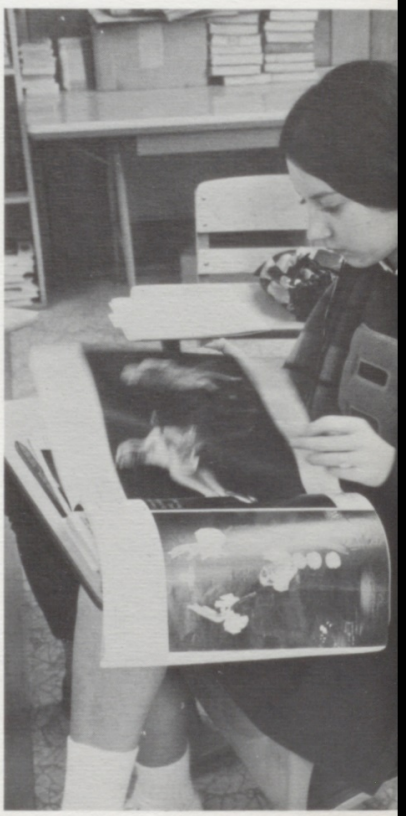

Some of the novels read in the literature classes for the freshmen level were JULIUS CAESAR and OLIVER TWIST, while the sophomores read IVANHOE and THE PEARL. The juniors and seniors had a choice between two literature classes which included such books as GRAPES OF WRATH, LORD OF THE FLIES, and ANIMAL FARM.

A level of grammar was offered for each class along with a college preparatory grammar class. Basic sentence structure, parts of speech, and diagraming were a few of the items taught.

Drama and debate were two new quarter classes instituted this year which were taught by Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. Queen, respectively. The drama class performed short plays while the debate class gave debates on various topics.

This year a semester speech course was under the instruction of Mr. Don Thomas. The students were required to give convincing, impromptu, and persuasive speeches which ranged from one to fifteen minutes long.

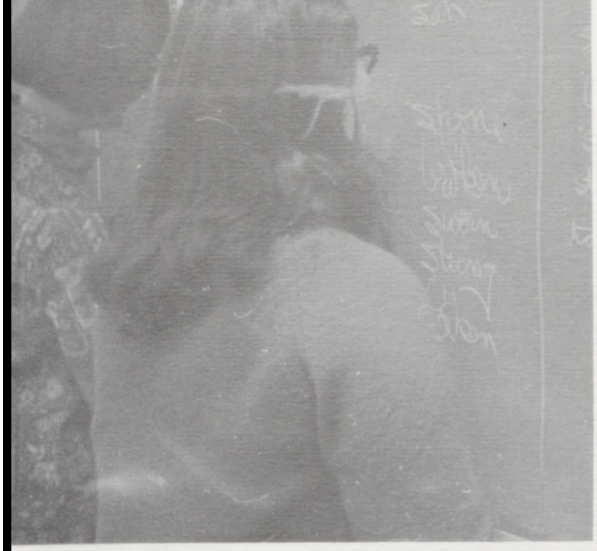

Seminar techniques played a part in the smaller classes.

Schweers Heads Math for Final Year

Math instruction at BHS continued under the supervision of Miss Lorraine Young, Mr. Don Gabriel, and Mr. Rex Schweers. Schweers, who has been in the school system for 33 years, completed his last year as head of the Math Department.

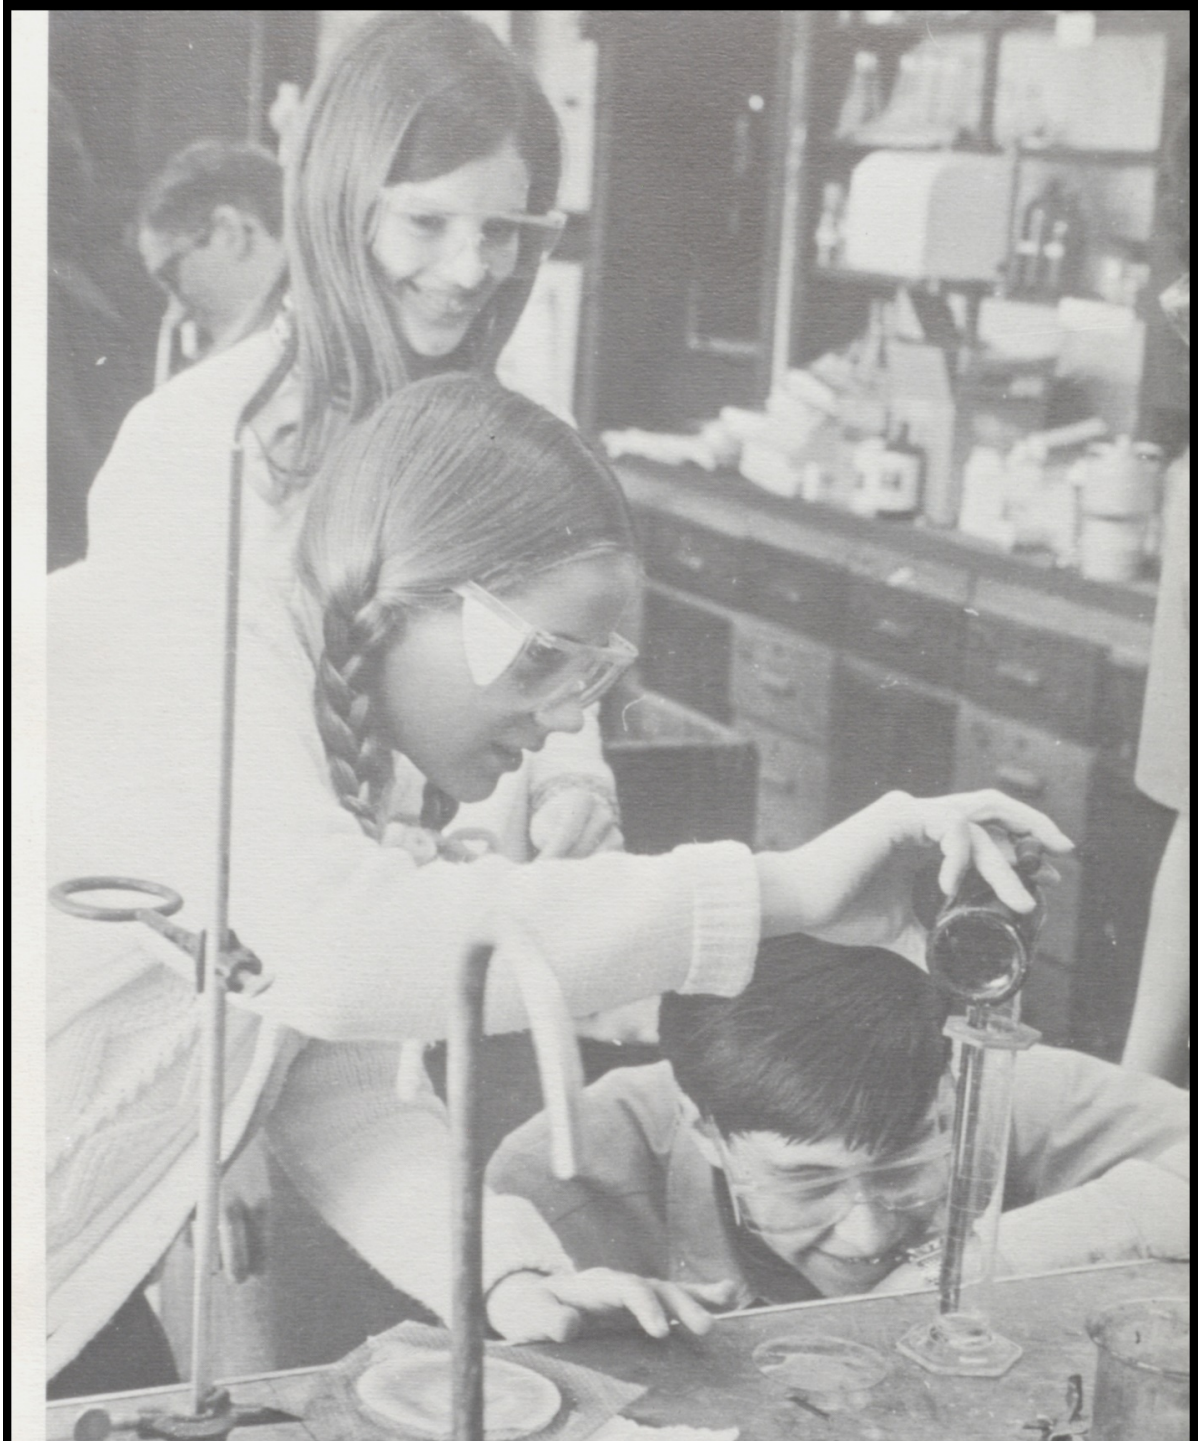

Miss Young taught two Algebra I classes, two sections of Geometry, besides a Consumer Math Class. Mr. Gabriel taught the lower forms of math, including Algebra I, Pre-Algebra and Basic Math; while Mr. Schweers took care of Algebra II, Math Analysis, and a Calculus Seminar.

Four Phases of Science Offered

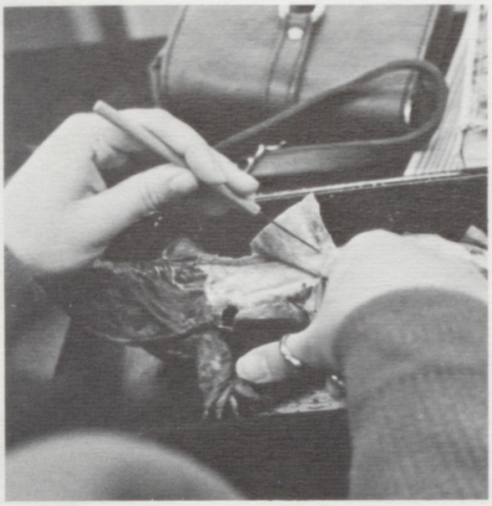

Four sections of science were offered to the B.H.S. students during the 1969-70 school year.

Some of the topics covered daily in Mr. Franklin Mercer's physics class included matter and energy, electronics, and atomic structure. In November of 1969, the class visited the Colorado School of Mines.

Chemistry under Mr. Mercer stressed analytical balance, slide rule, and precision experiments. His chemistry students attended the CSC Visitation in February.

Dissecting was the main interest for most students in Mr. Joe Edson's biology class. The course offered a general study of the main divisions of the animal and plant kingdoms, beginning with the simplest and advancing to the more complex forms. Mr. Mercer also had a biology class.

Freshman were taught general science by Mr. Graydon Lord. The course involved a broad coverage of the major divisions of science.

New Electives Added to Social Science

New Electives Added to Social Science

Current issues, Family Living and Consumer's Economics were newly added courses to the senior schedule along with last year's Sociology and Communism and Foreign Policy. These electives were on semester basis and interchangeable. Junior and sophomore courses remained the same as last year, juniors taking American History and sophomores learning about Western Civilization. Freshmen Social Science consisted of one semester of Government and one semester of Economics.

Mr. Thomas Woolley, head of the Social Science Department, taught Western Civilization, Sociology and one semester of Current Issues. American History and Communism and Foreign Policy were both instructed by Mr. Paul Stimson. A new teacher at BHS, Mr. Donald Thomas taught Current Issues, Family Living and Freshmen Government. Mr. Joe Edson and Mr. Richard Kuhl also taught a class of Freshmen Government. Consumer's Economics and Freshmen Economics were under the direction of Mr. Robert Mitchell and Mr. Kuhl.

Repairs Taught by Auto Mechanics

Auto Mechanics I, which is a prerequisite for Auto Mechanics II, deals mainly with the working parts of an automobile and how they work. Lab work is done on brakes, generators, alternators, electrical wiring and tune-up. Mr. Ken McReynolds teaches both Auto Mechanics I and II. The Auto Mechanics II class is handled like a regular automotive repair shop. Each student works on whatever car comes in the shop no matter what is wrong with it.

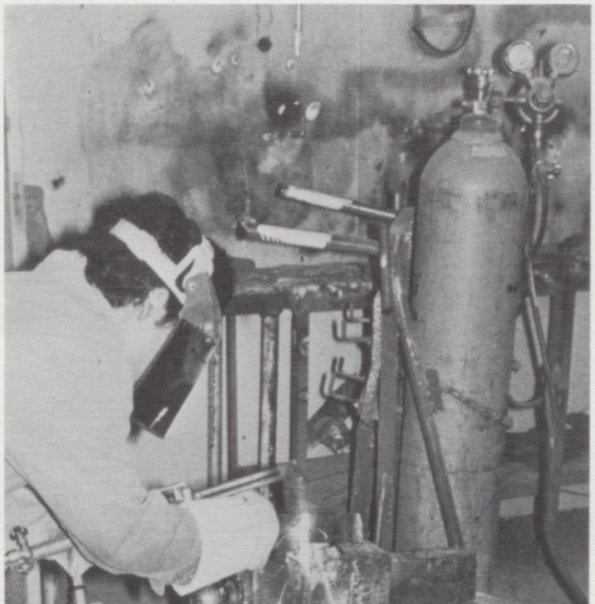

Vocations Teach Basic Skills

Vocations I and II, taught by Mr. Al Worthley, traveled to Snyder and Hillrose to use the shop facilities at those locations. Vocations I is to familiarize the student with various occupations with shop time available for developing skills. Vocations II is a continuation of Vocations I with study of specific occupations suited to the individual. Shop time is used for developing skills of interest to the individual, such as building stockracks, cabinets, and coffee tables. The major project was a camper on which everyone worked.

Students Learn in Simulator

Mr. Albert Moser was the instructor for the driving simulator for the 1970 spring semester. 60 drivers education students attended classes in the simulator the third quarter, and 57 were enrolled in the fourth quarter. The total time spent in the simulator was 12 hours. This will take three hours off the actual driving time this summer.

The simulator was contained in a mobile trailer so transportation wasn't a problem. There were 12 different driving stations which were styled exactly like a car's panel. In the front there was a large screen where films were shown to give a typical driving situation.

The purpose of the simulator is to teach proper driving skills by the use of indicator lights on the panel. A scoring mechanism then records all the errors. By this method, the student finds out in what area he or she is deficient. Bad habits that the students aren't aware of are then corrected.

Shop Classes Develop Skills

Forming a foundation for choosing a vocation, was the main purpose set down for the 1970 shop classes. Directing the shop course for his third year was Mr. Albert Moser. Mr. Moser stated, "We are trying to let an individual understand his abilities and capabilities". Mr. Moser also said, "This year has been my most successful year as far as discipline and management".

The shop course offers a variety of different skills to be mastered. Welding, woodworking, metal working, electricity, and drawing are a few of the opportunities.

The students of shop are not limited in the projects they make. They may go into any field or area as long as they are organized. By this method the students get a well-rounded course in shop.

Skills Benefit Ag Students

For the 1969-70 school year, Mr. Mark Richards taught agriculture classes and the main interests were livestock and land management. There are two classes, Ag. I and Ag. II, the last one consisted of two periods.

Over the year Ag. classes participated in special activities. Some students attended state judging in Fort Collins and some attended other contests such as dairy and land judging.

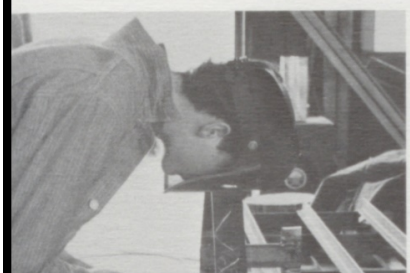

Ag. I classes dealt in experimental projects with animals while Ag. II classes covered areas in crop production. The advanced classes worked in the shop where the students designed their own projects. Most of these projects made in shop can be used on the farm. The students also learned skills and the use of tools which will help them in their future career in agriculture.

Kuhl Joins Business Department

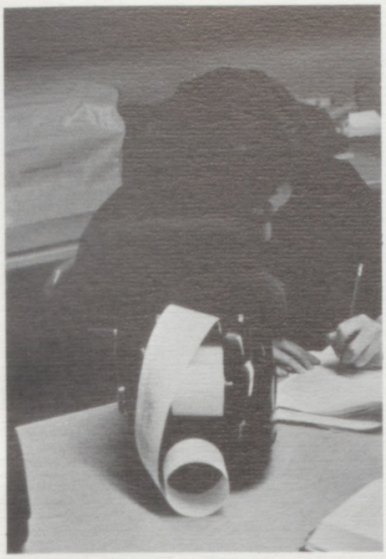

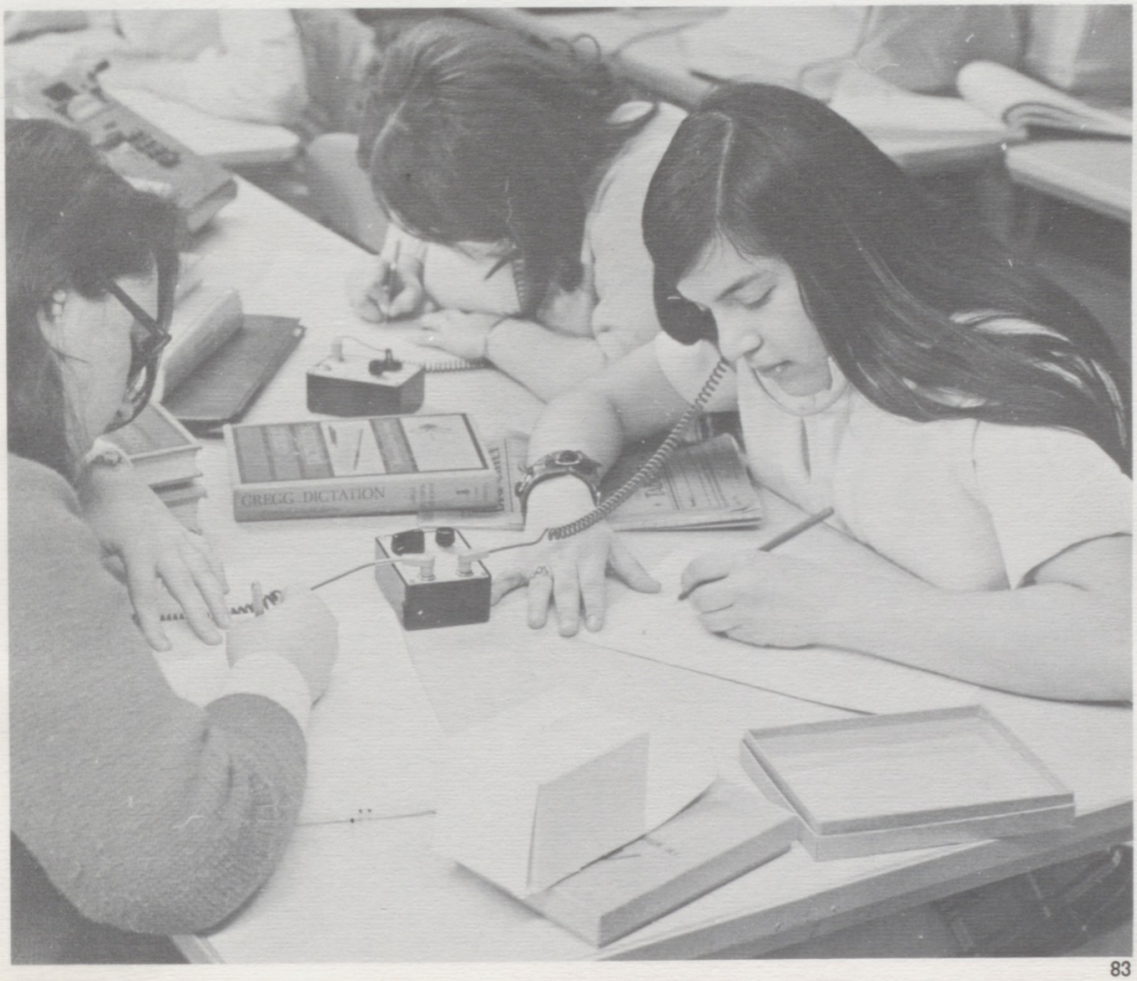

Mr. Robert Mitchell, department head, and Mr. Richard Kuhl, a new teacher in the Brush school system, handled the business department and had an extensive curriculum between them. Mr. Kuhl had Typing I and the newly scheduled one semester class, Personal Use Typing. Mr. Mitchell taught Shorthand I, Bookkeeping, and Business Machines which consisted of advanced typing and shorthand, filing, and work on the calculators and transcriber.

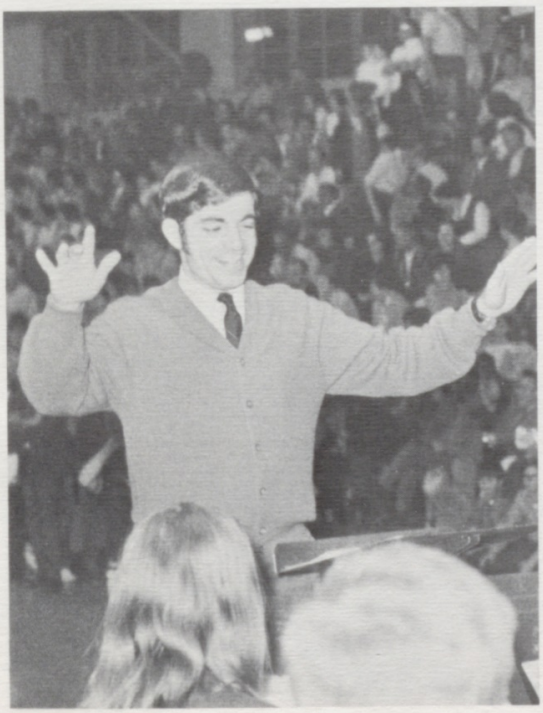

Bartz and Lehman Head Music Department

Under the leadership of Mrs. Joan Bartz and Mr. Arnold Lehman, the Brush High Band and Choir worked hard in order to present various programs during the year. Along with participating in the League Festivals, both the Choir and Band were active in many other events.

Members of Choir were recognized for their variety of presentations. Along with the Mid-Winter and Winter Concerts, a Christmas Program and Variety Show were given. The Girl's Trio, Girl's Sextet, and Octet also performed on behalf of the Choir. Several outstanding Choir members also participated in Honor Chorus.

Swing Band and school band also spent much time in preparing programs for the public. Along with the Choir, the band took part in the different concerts during the year. The players also attended several of the Band Festivals.

Language Lab Expands Vocabulary

Teaching foreign languages for the 1969-70 school year were Mrs. Eleise Bloom and Mrs. Margaret Queen. Mrs. Bloom taught Spanish II, Latin I, and four German classes, divided into three units. They were German I, II, and German III, a newly added class. Spanish I classes were taught by Mrs. Queen.

Grammar, vocabulary, and conversation were stressed. Customs and culture were also studied in these courses. Highlights in the Spanish I classes were a pinata party at Christmas and a Spanish dinner. A picnic was planned by German II students.

Students Exhibit Work

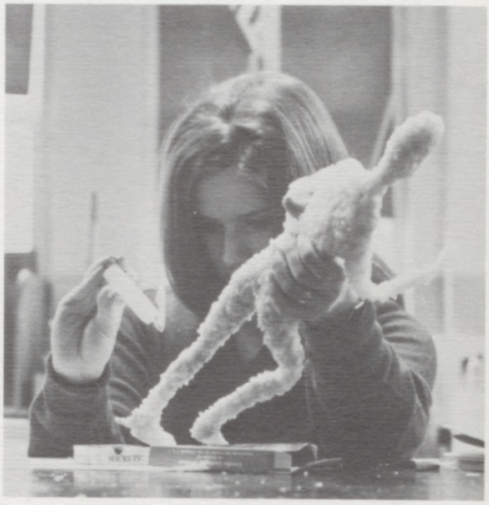

For the fourth consecutive year Mr. Terrell Sumner's art classes participated in the High Plains Art Exhibit held in Sterling. There were fifteen students entered in the exhibit with Ken Tapia, Bill LeValley, Marie Perez, and Kirk Schreiner receiving honors.

Mr. Sumner had two periods of his time taken to teach Art I and Art II and three periods instructing his crafts classes. The Art II class worked mostly in oils, and watercolor, while Art I worked with their requirements of ink sketches, watercolor, oils and the principles of art.

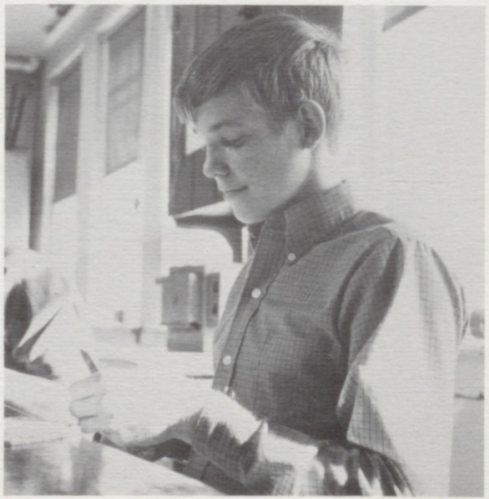

The requirements set for the craft students were a soap, wood, or stone carving, while others concentrated on leather, lacework, and decoupage.

Reading Lab Betters Reading Skills

Under the instruction of Mrs. Sandra Sumner, the main goals of Reading Lab were to better reading techniques, habits and also being able to understand the material.

Each student took a test at the beginning of the course to see where his reading level was and was then put into different reading levels. Then again at the end of the course, this same test was taken to see if they improved their reading ability. The lab is equipped with SRA equipment and Craig readers, a machine that resembles a small T.V. set.

Home Ec. Teaches Cooking, Sewing

Under the instruction of Miss Laura Franklin, home economics and home nursing were again offered this year. She also taught home clothing, home furnishings, and senior homemaking.

These various classes covered training in sewing and cooking, home management, home furnishings, and child care.

Girls who were studying clothing were taught the values of colors, after which they constructed an article of clothing. Students covered meal planning and preparation.

Home Ec. covered the basic areas of sewing and cooking with the main purpose of improving on the girls' skills. The Home Ec. room was supplied with the equipment necessary for the training.

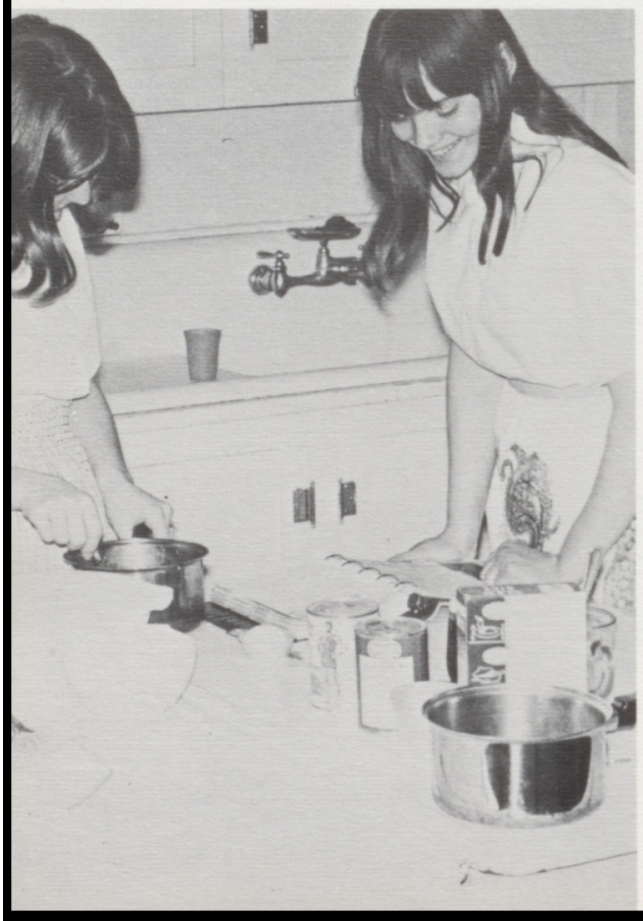

Home Nursing was one of the vocational subjects offered for those girls in the sophomore, junior and senior classes. This course was centered around keeping the family in good health. The aspect of study for family health included: symptons of illness, treatment and medication, diet, and ing, home management, home furnishings, and child care.

Child development, human needs, and the developmental tasks through the life cycle were also covered.

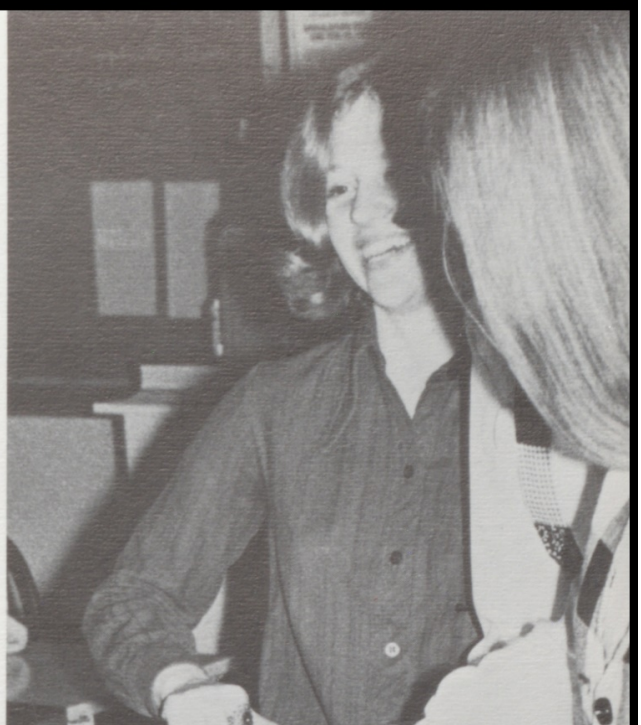

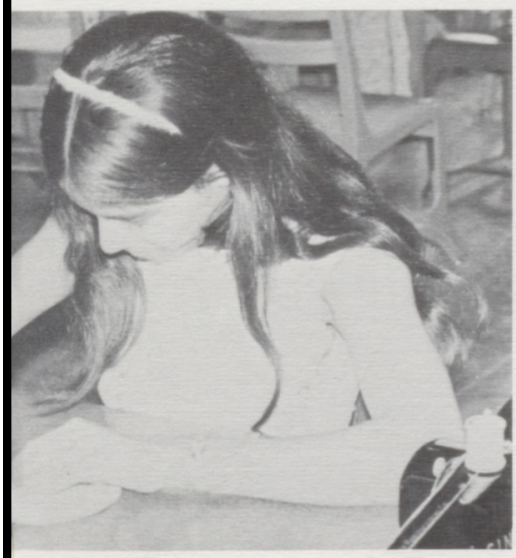

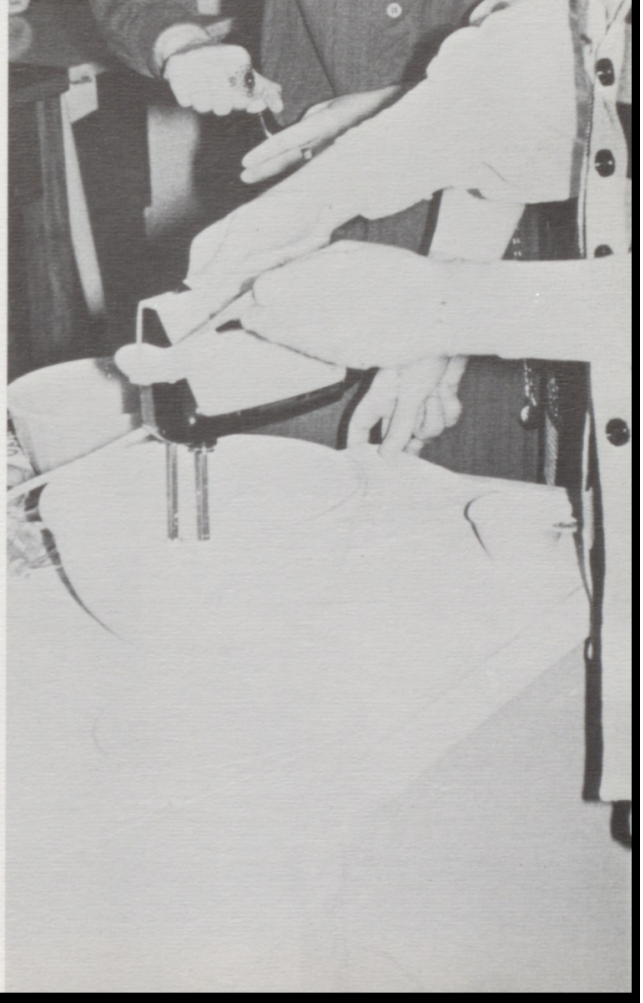

Van Dyke—Worthley Head Counseling

Heading the Counseling Department are Mrs. Jane Van Dyke and Mr. Al Worthley. Individual counseling is mostly done, but some group counseling is given.

Advice about the present as well as the future is given to students thinking about college. College-bound juniors and seniors are given various college entrance exams. Information regarding college and scholarships is also available.

Vocational guidance is also offered. Assistance in choosing a career and technical school is also given by the counselors.

Aside from the tests for college, aptitude tests are also given. Interpretations on all tests are related to the students.

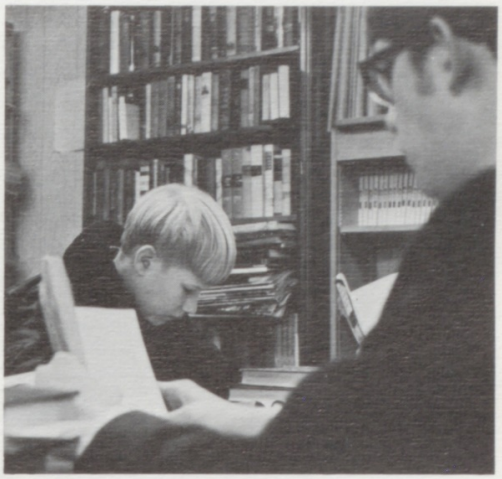

Library Adds New Materials

Miss Hildred Walters, librarian, made several improvements in the library for the students' benefit. More books have been added and materials have been relocated. A revolving bookstand has been included in the facilities and the vertical files have been enumerated.

Hours have been changed to 8:00 a.m. until 3:45 p.m. to provide greater student usage due to the altering in scheduling and individual study hours.

individual study hours.

P.E. Offers Varied Skills Program

This year's P.E. classes were taught by Miss Margaret Mora and Mr. Carl Mellecker, and were divided into two sections; P.E. I and P.E. II.

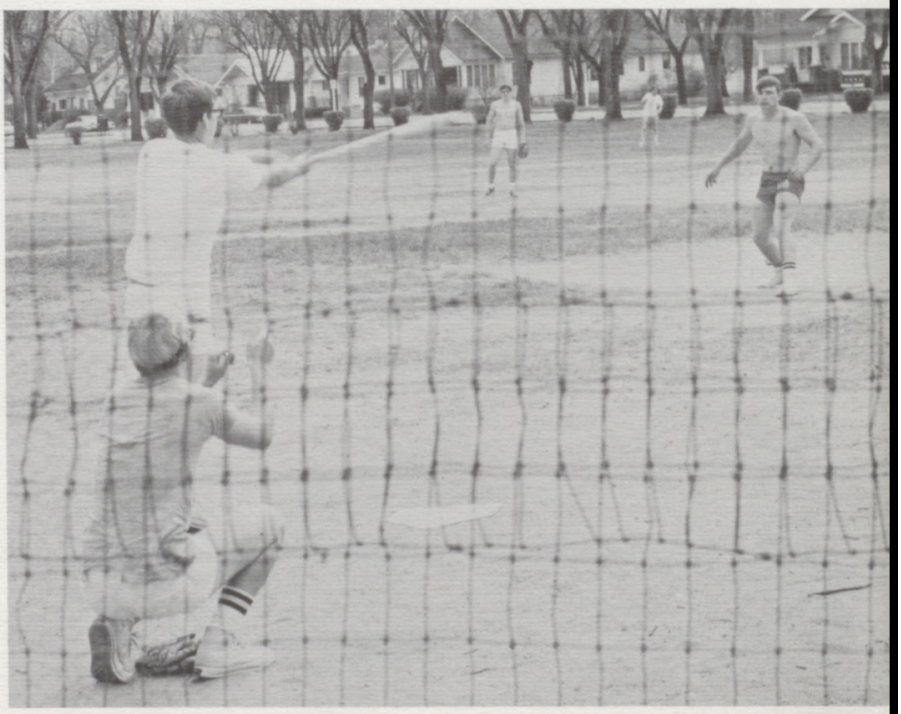

Miss Mora's P.E. I classes participated in soccer, speedaway, field hockey, volleyball, basketball, folk dance, golf, track and field and tennis. P.E. II classes were for advanced skills and strategy.

Mr. Mellecker's P.E. I classes dealt in fundamentals and rules of sports and the other classes used their advanced skill and strategy in these sports; basketball, volleyball, ping poing, tennis, softball, track and field, soccer, badminton, flag football, judo, wrestling and gymnastics.

Both girls and boys classes stressed skills and rules in this competitive world of sports.

Throughout the year, sports played an important part in the activities of Brush High. Despite the season record in football, Casey Davis was selected to the All-Conference team and also was chosen to play on the North All-Star team. Emphasis on wrestling were the three state contenders: Casey Davis, Ron Samples and Bernie Clark. They showed fairly well, collecting a 2nd and a 4th. Also this year, the basketball team returned for contention. This is the third year in a row and the eighth time in nine years. They placed 2nd at the tournament.

In golf, Bob Scoville competed at the State Golf Meet. But, through an error in scoring, he was eliminated. Brendy Lee and Brett Bolinger competed for B.H.S. at the State Track Meet.

Coach Lord Heads Gridders

Heading the 1969 football season was Coach Graydon Lord, while Coaches Don Thomas, Carl Mellecker, and Richard Kuhl assisted him. Coach Lord said that the boys showed tremendous improvement from the previous years, but couldn't quite put the games together.

Offensively, the Beetdiggers gained a total of 933 yards passing and a total of 1890 yards rushing. Casey Davis lead the Brush team in most yards gained with 301 yards in 94 carries and 6 touchdowns. Next, came Zeke Friehauf getting 227 yards in 95 carries. Larry Kolman had a total of 142 yards and scored 2 touchdowns. Friehauf also led the air attack with 642 yards gained in passing.

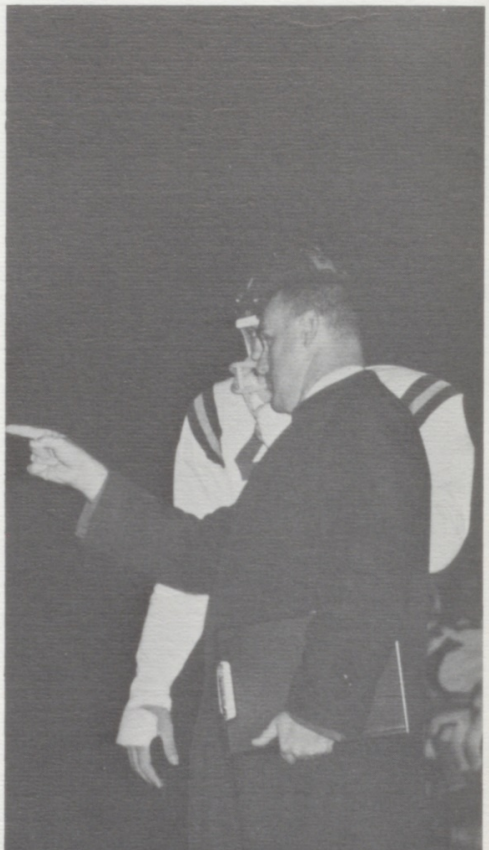

On defense, Rick Holmes has the most tackles with 51 and 31 assists, second was Steve Wessel with 49 tackles and 40 assists. Vince Laso and Larry Kolman both intercepted 2 passes.

Coaches of the Northeastern League chose Casey Davis as an all-conference player. He was also selected to play in the all-star game, which was held in Pueblo. Steve Wessel was nominated for all-conference and Rick Holmes was an Honorable Mention.

Boasting an undefeated conference record, the Brush Beetdiggers moved into the State Basketball Tournament which is annually held in Denver.

Under the direction of Coach Joe Edson, the squad finished seven conference and ten non-conference games with seventeen wins and no losses. This was the second year for the Northeastern League District to decide who would represent the conference at state. The Diggers took on Burlington, Haxtun and Akron to gain its berth in contention at the tournament.

Previously in the year, Brush had beaten Denver Christian on their home floor 59 to 41 and broke a long winning streak.

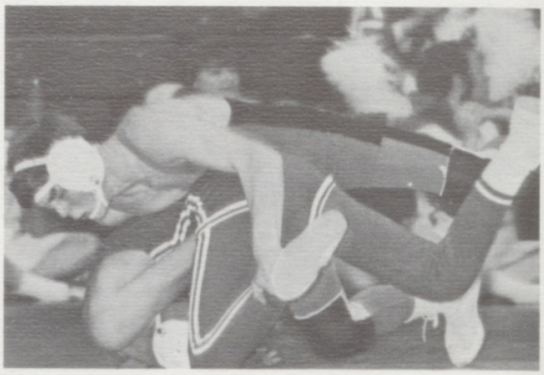

Diggers Send Three to State

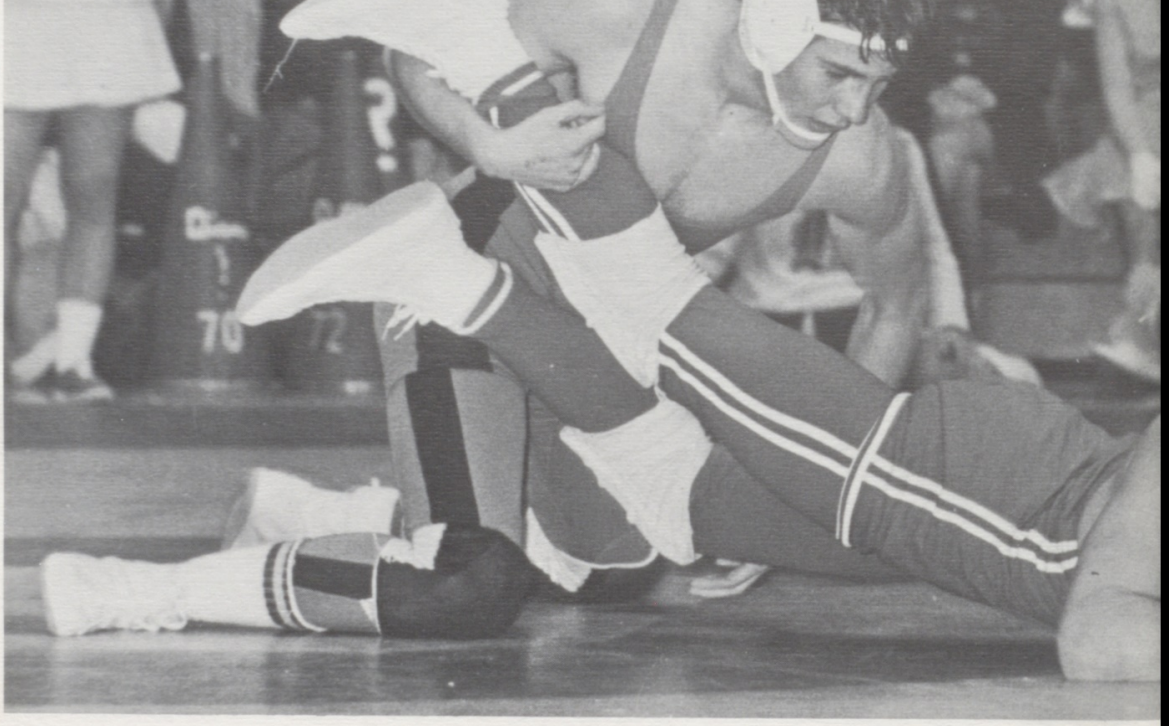

Mr. Carl Mellecker completed his first year as head wrestling coach compiling a 1-4 record. Coach Mellecker and assistant Don Gabriel had five returning lettermen and 17 others. The wrestlers took fourth at District and sent three men to state, Casey Davis, Bernie Clark and Ron Samples. All three were defeated in final, semi-final or quarter-final matches. The Diggers took third at the Brighton tourney and fifth in the league standings. Wray, the Northeastern conference champions, took the state title this year.

Track for 1970 was coached by Mr. Don Thomas. In his first year at Brush High School, Mr. Thomas hoped to improve his program with time and more manpower. Among the events the team participated in were the shot put, long jump, high jump, hurdles, discus, and some other running events.

Brush's twenty trackmen competed in eleven track meets this year. Their success was attributed by Coach Thomas, to the fact of the larger team.

Two men, Brendy Lee and Brett Bolinger, qualified at the District Tournament, held in Julesburg May 16, for state competition. They earned this honor through their efforts in the high jump and hurdles. The State Meet was held in Boulder, Colorado on May 22 and 23.

Golfers Send One to State

Under the direction of Carl Mellecker, the Brush golf team completed their third official year as a sport at BHS. Participating in nine meets, the squad took two firsts and one second, with District at Ft. Collins highlighting the season.

At District the four man team of Bob Scoville, Craig Ferguson, Rick Price, and Rod Fries tied for eighth place. Scoville's score of 77 gained him a position in the State Tournament at the Air Force Academy the following week. The final meet was a team-faculty match held at Ft. Morgan.

Lettermen for the 1970 golf season were juniors Bob Scoville, Craig Ferguson, Rick Price, and sophomores Rod Fries and Dave Scott. All lettermen will be returning for the 1971 season.

Sports activities for the girls included volleyball and track during the 1969-70 school year. In both areas, the teams were coached by Miss Margaret Mora.

During the second week of September, the girls' track team began workouts instead of the usual time in the spring. After two meets at Wodlin, they went to the District Track Meet in Adams City, October 21. Two fifth place awards were received, Carol Weiss in the 880 and Lou Ann Norwood in the 220 yard dash.

Volleyball team tryouts and practice were held in January, before the annual GAA Sportsday, held this year at Haxtun. The Brush A-Squad girls brought back first place honors. The team also traveled to Greeley to watch the volleyball game between CSC and CSU.

An organization at Brush High has the main purpose of creating interest in something and giving students the pleasure of being part of it. Everyone is encouraged to belong to one, but no limit is set on how many they may join. Several belong to as many as time allows, and wish to join more.

The different organizations at Brush High School are B-Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Airplane Club, International Relations Club, Pep Club, Rodeo Club, Rifle Club, Future Homemakers of America, Future Farmers of America, Vocational Industries Club of America, Thespians, Campus Light, Clearing House, G.A.A., and Safety Club.

All of these completed a successful year.

B-Club, under the direction of coaches Joe Edson, Graydon Lord, and Carl Mellecker, managed to keep all lettermen busy with a variety of projects throughout the year.

One of the annual projects was the selling of programs at the football and basketball games. Calendars with schedules of each sport were given to the school from the Farmers State Bank and Equitable Savings.

The club financed its annual banquet held on May 23, 1970 with "Joy" from Sterling, providing the music. This year's officers were Terry Christensen, President; Brent Christensen, Secretary; and Jim Walker, Treasurer.

Cheers Add Spirit

Pep club, the largest organization with 122 members, directed two major activities for the 1969-1970 season; the annual Sweetheart Dance and the spring banquet. The theme was "Winter World of Love" with the band, Glass Attic, providing the music, at the dance.

This year the pep club also supported the track team as well as the other sports. Instead of wearing their uniforms, hats were donned with school clothes.

A-squad cheerleaders for this year were Winnie Lee (head cheerleader), Dorothy Teter, Sharon Kauffman and Judy Macht. Susan Wagers joined the squad second semester. 1969-1970 B-squad cheerleaders were Jane Lynch (head cheerleader), Pat Morgan, Claudia Christensen and Robin Peterson.

Composing the pom-pon girls were: Joan Lynch (head girl), Kathy Treadway, Carla Garret, Chris Bailey, Chris Cox, Marion Oblander, and Candace Wilson. Susan Winger was elected to join the pom-pon girls second semester.

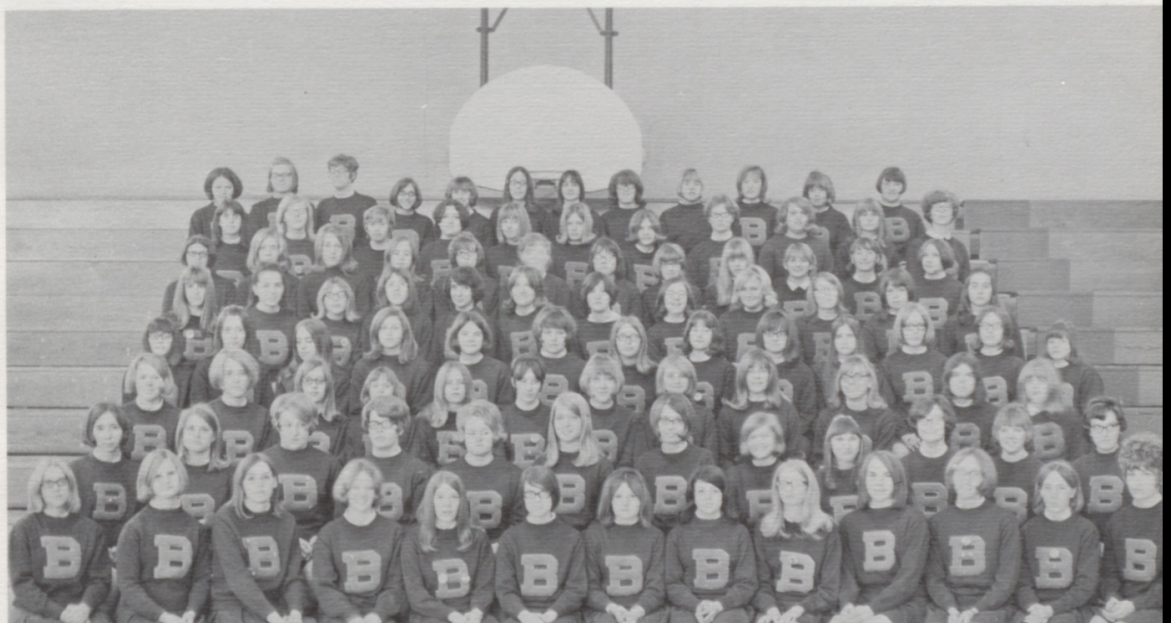

The presiding president was Patsy Weiss with Kristi Mann as Vice President; Gwen Bostron, secretary; and Kathy Holter, treasurer. Maret Williams was selected to preside as president in March. Mrs. Queen was the sponsor.

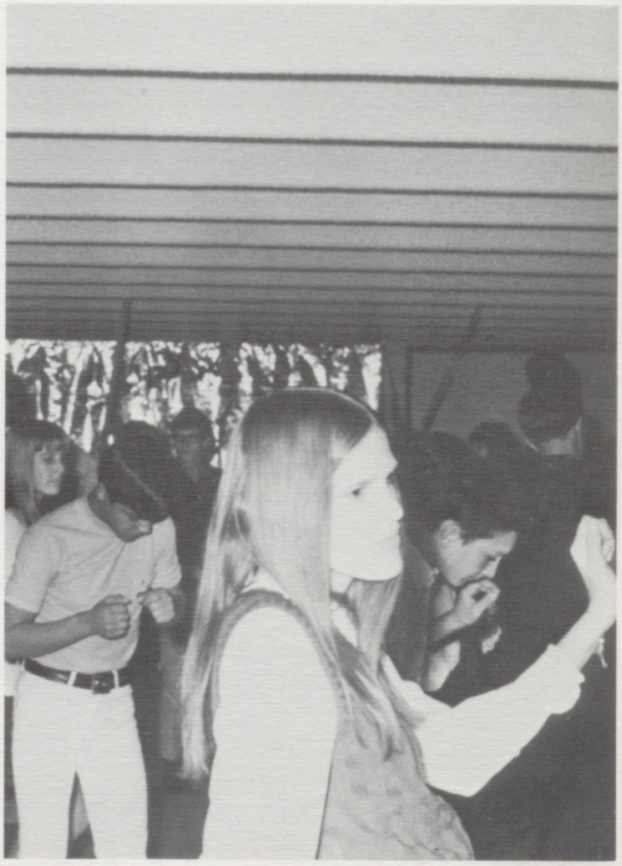

Observations Boost FTA Program

Mrs. Evelyn Goddard sponsored the Brush Future Teachers

Observations were held twice, in the morning in the fall

Mrs. Evelyn Goddard sponsored the Brush Future Teachers of America for the second year. There were twenty-four members led by Faye Weiss, president; Julie Opp, vice-president; Beckee Dillner, secretary; Judy Lorensen, treasurer; and Joe Swinson in the newly established office to keep the meeting in order, parliamentarian.

For money making projects the members of FTA sold Christmas candles, sold concessions, and had several cake and pie raffles.

Observations were held twice, in the morning in the fall, and in the afternoon in the spring. Members were urged to visit different teachers each time so as to see various teaching techniques.

The club attended visitation on the campus of UNC and State FTA Convention at the same place. From this club Joe Swinson ran for the office of Vice-President. The members worked for several days making campaign buttons.

Lord Leads FCA for Its First Year

Beginning its first official year as a club at BHS, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes chose Brendy Lee to officiate as "huddle-captain", Dwight Anderson as assistant-captain, Bernie Clark as secretary, and Zeke Friehauf as treasurer. The purposes of the club were to promote a better understanding between the students and community and to value the meaningful associations between athletics and religion.

During the summer before school began, Casey Davis, Terry Christensen, and Dwight Anderson attended a national FCA camp in which they learned some of the duties and goals of the club. Davis was later chosen as Beetdigger Christian Athlete of the year.

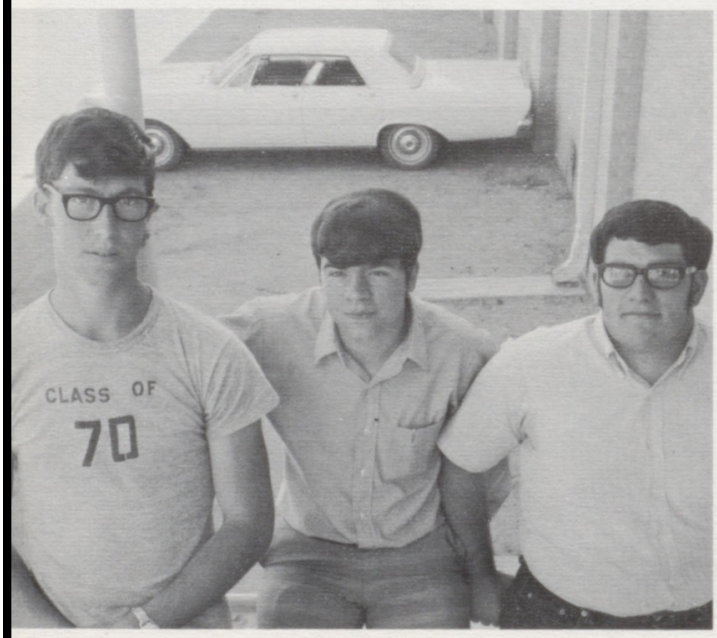

The FCA sent some of its members to Limon and Akron during the learned some of the duties and goals of the club. Davis was later chosen as Beetdigger Christian Athlete of the year.

The FCA sent some of its members to Limon and Akron during the school season in order to start new organizations and hear well-known athletes speak. Meetings were held twice monthly.

Officers elected for the 1970-71 year were huddle-captain Dwight Anderson, assistant-captain Zeke Friehauf, secretary Wayne Ruby, treasurer Steve Gnagy, and bulletin-board chairman Jeff Elling.

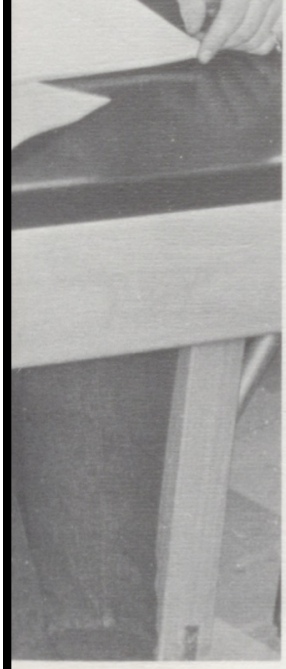

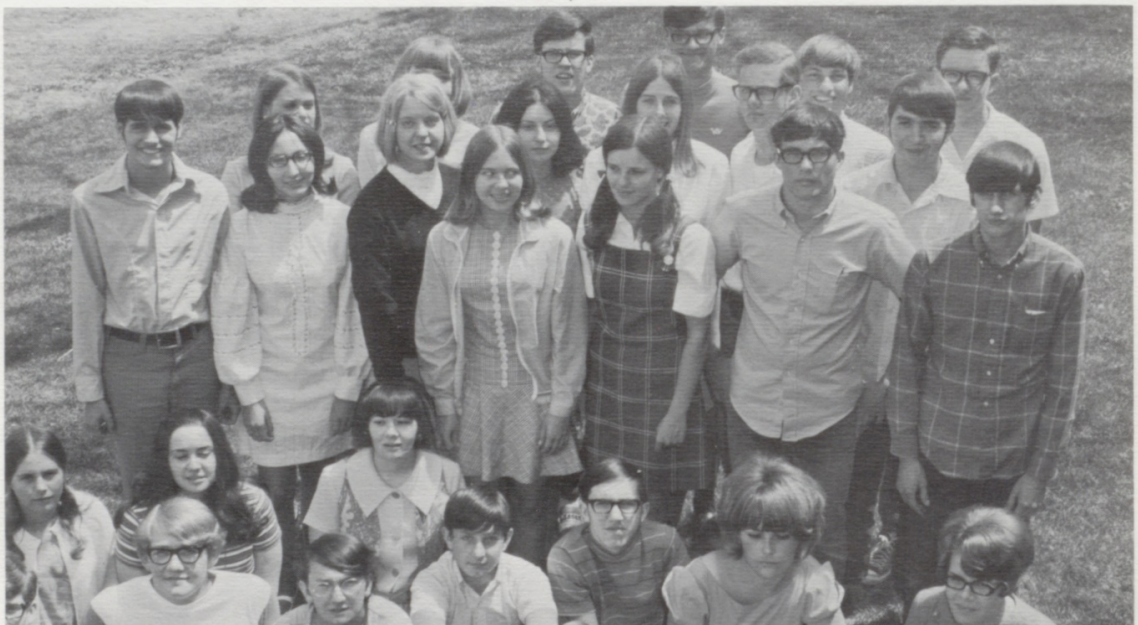

Plays Brighten Year's Activities

Thespian Troupe 968 presented three plays during the 1969-1970 school year. Starting the activities was the Junior Class Play, "Hang-up at Generation Gap". The seniors presented the Christmas program with three one act plays "The Family Man", the All-School Play, was the last performance for the year.

Gaynor Bloom presided as president while Dave Miller served as vice president. Secretary-treasurer was Patsy Weiss and Judy Lorensen was historian. Mrs. Eleise Bloom has sponsored the troupe for fourteen years.

Fifteen new members were initiated at the annual Thespian banquet held on May 20. The outstanding thespian was selected at that time.

Safety Contest Held

Safety of firearms, learning marksmanship, and the handling and care of firearms are three major purposes of Rifle Club. Mr. Terrell Sumner has sponsored the club for the past two years. Other purposes are to teach the members how to shoot, familiarize them with firearms and they also consider the recreational aspects of shooting.

Rifle Club's main activity for the year 1969-1970 was a marksmanship contest. In this contest the members were shooting against themselves to better their score. The members win progressive medals and the individuals have to qualify for each before proceeding. There are eleven badges that are awarded. The individuals learn to shoot from prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing positions.

Roger Castrup placed first, Whitey Clay second and Kenny Temple third in this year's contest.

F.F.A. Hosts Fair

F.F.A. Hosts Fair

Leading this organization for the 1969-1970 school year were Bill Lowry, president; Howard Schilling, vice president; Mike Cook, secretary; Todd Simon, treasurer; Ryan Cox, reporter; and Dean Pabst, sentinel. Under their sponsor, Mr. Mark Richards, the F.F.A. participated in many activities.

Money-making projects included concessions at the Junior Fair and a cake raffle. They also made $1329.00 at a slave auction. The money was used to attend the state convention held at Montrose, June 7 through 9.

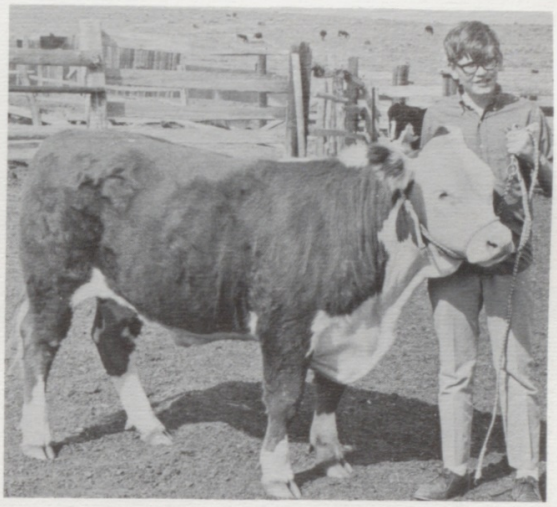

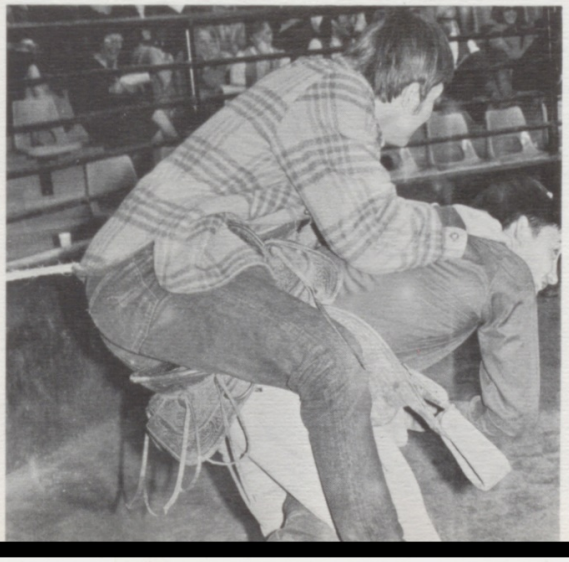

Earlier in the year, the F.F.A. members went to the National Western Stock Show. They also saw the show, "Paint Your Wagon", at the cinerama in Denver. Hosting a Morgan County Spring Show was another of their activities, with F.F.A. members from Fort Morgan, Wiggins and Weldona participating.

May Banquet Completes IRC Year

Highlighting the year for the International Relations Club was the May Banquet that ended the year. Guests are invited and members dress as representatives from another country and bring a foreign dish.

Heading the organization were Juanita Rios, president; Maria Perez, vice-president; Valda Conover, secretary-treasurer, and Mr. Stimson sponsored the club.

I.R.C. sponsored many other activities throughout the year. These were attending the Model U.N. at Greeley and selling candy during the noon hour. Other events were special speakers during the year. They were Mr. Rudy Hansch who showed a film of their trip in Germany and a student from Sterling who showed a film of his trip through the Soviet Countries.

FHA Attends State Convention

Presiding FHA officers for the 1969-70 school year are: president, Donna Oblander; vice president, Marlene Peters; secretary, Doris Curtis; treasurer, Marian Oblander; parliamentarian, Cynthia Chaney; reporter, Mary Cortez; song leader, Becky Graham. Sponsoring the club was Miss Laura Franklin also the Home Economic teacher. Highlighting the year were the International Dinner and District Meeting held in Brush. Donna Oblander was elected State Secretary-Treasurer while attending the State Convention held in Fort Collins. FHA wound up its year attending the Ice Capades in Denver.

Graham Heads Rodeo

Jigger Graham headed Brush High Rodeo Club for the 1969-70 school year as president. Other officers include Deb Simon as vice-president and Connie Samples as secretary. Members included: Beth Hermann, Pat Hermann, Jim Kauffman, Bonnie Marwitz, Roger Starbuck, Roger Danielson, Susan Danielson, Ina Matney, Eddie Hayes, and Allen Larsen.

Mr. Al Worthley sponsored the club. Highlights of the year were attending the National Western Stock Show, practices at the Klines and a Play Day.

GAA Hosts Activities Day

Kristi Mann and Susan Wagers, President and Vice President, respectively, led GAA during the 1969-70 year along with Debbie Wilson, treasurer, and Michele Wilson, secretary. The club started the year with a party for the new members. Bake sales, cake raffles, and other activities were conducted throughout the year to raise money.

On November 22, GAA hosted an Activity Day. This was for fun and had no team competition. It may open the way to future activities with the several towns represented. Games and entertainment were presented and refreshments were served.

Rounding out the year was the annual mountain trip to Estes Park. GAA also sponsored a concession stand on Digger Day.

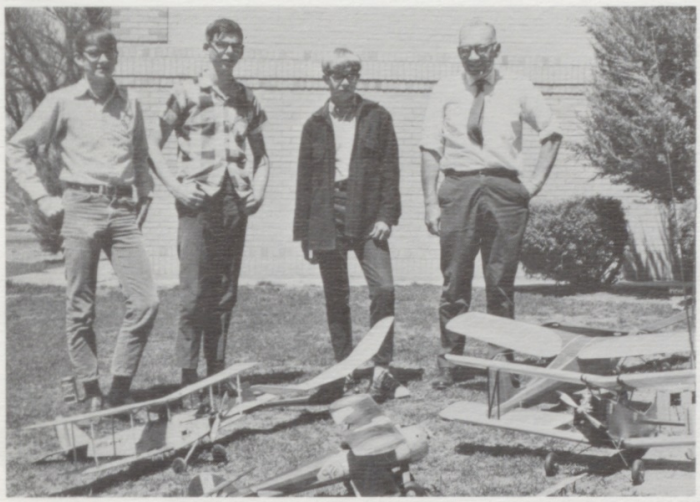

Mr. Mercer Sponsors Airplane and Safety

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Franklin Mercer, Airplane Club was composed of eleven members with Mark Waite acting as president, Phil Lahman as vice president and Scott Wagers as secretary-treasurer. Its main purpose was to learn about aviation by building and flying model aircraft.

One of the projects that some of the club members participated in was the building of their own planes. They were powered by rubber bands, gasoline engines, and some even built gliders. The members concentrated on free flight, control line, and stunt flying with team and combat flying.

Safety club, also sponsored by Mr. Mercer, was made up of sixteen seniors of the physics class. Each member had a definite post and duties in case of fire or other emergencies.

Council Sponsors Earth Day

Student Council started the year with an election to fill the vacant office of president left when Steve Koeneke moved. Casey Davis was elected to the position, and the other officers included: Brendy Lee vice president, Jane Lynch secretary, and Eddie Cooperider as business manager. Mrs. Van Dyke and Mr. Al Worthley advised the council during the year.

Among the many projects that the council instigated were: Homecoming, Students of the Month, activity tickets, school pictures, Earth Day, Digger Day, and new trash cans.

Casey Davis, Jane Lynch, and Eddie Cooperider attended the annual State Student Council meeting in Fort Collins. Casey was honored at the meeting by being a discussion leader.

VICA Members Attend State Conference

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, otherwise known as V.I.C.A., was, for the third year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Ken McReynolds, and Mr. Al Worthley. This year's officers were Fred Wooldridge, president; John Eskew, vice-president; Roger Holter, secretary; Jim Groves, treasurer; and Allen Clay, parliamentarian.

Ft. Morgan hosted Brush to their annual V.I.C.A. basketball game held on February 9. Ft. Morgan won by a score of 71 to 51 and kept the trophy for the third year in a row.

As a highlight of the year, seven of the members attended the State V.I.C.A. Conference held in Boulder April 19 through the 21. Those attending were Fred Wooldridge, Larry Atwood, Steve Owens, Dave Enfante, Jim Groves, John Eskew, and Allen Clay. They competed in automobile contests against many other Colorado schools.

Fred Wooldridge and Dean Knox participated in the trouble shooting contest held in Denver May 23. The purpose of which is to time a mechanic in putting a car back together.

The Vocational clubs are found throughout the United States. Their main purpose is to interest young people in a vocational trade.

Clearing House Finishes First Year

Patterned after similar college clubs, Clearing House began its first year at BHS, with 26 members. In following their motto, "Helping Others", the club sponsored a recreation night weekly for the county's handicapped night weekly for the county's handicapped children. At Christmas time they collected used toys and distributed these and food baskets to needy families. A drive for warm school clothes and blankets needed locally, a therapy and crafts program for a weekly summer recreation morning for the mentally retarded and the last day of school picnic for the Community Center School kept the members busy. They won a second place for their float in the July Fourth Parade.

Denise Starbuck led the club as president with the assistance of Rick Davis in the vice president position. Mollie Torrez fulfilled the combined duties of secretary-treasurer, while Sharon Allen took care of the scrapbook and served as reporter. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Jane Van Dyke, the club sold Flame of Hope candles as their money making project.

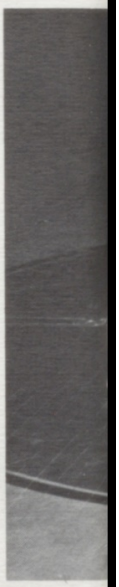

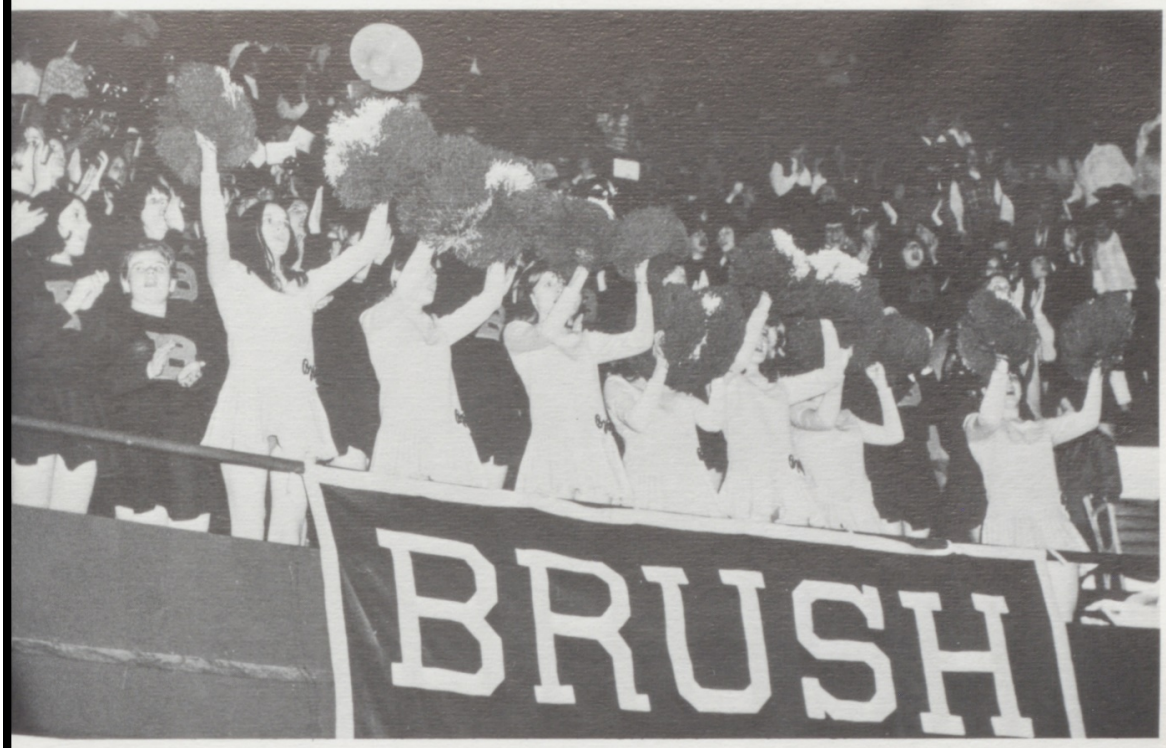

Brush High School students's participated in many activities during 1969-70. These all began with Homecoming. The classes all worked hard in the float competition, which was all capped off in the crowning of Julie White as Homecoming queen.

Pep Club's biggest event during the year was the annual Sweetheart Dance. Crowned by Winny Lee, Bernie Clark reigned as Mr. Beetdigger while Brendylee, Ron Samples and Terry Christensen constituted his court.

During the Junior-Senior Prom, Joan Lynch was crowned the queen. Patsy Weiss was voted the senior attendant and Carla Garrett was the junior attendant.

Activities

Concerts Entertain Community

Under the direction of Arnold Lehman and Mrs. Joann Bartz, the BHS Band attended the fall Band Day at CSU. Here they received a superior rating in parade competition. During December, a Band Clinic at Akron and an Honor Band at Holyoke were attended. The band presented a Christmas concert on December 16, with the help of the choir. "Parade of Bands" was the May concert which consisted of the massed bands.

Choir, directed by Mrs. Bartz hosted a choir clinic at Brush during November. Four members of the choir traveled to DU to attend the All State Choir Day. The year was highlighted by the Vocal Variety Show on May 5.

Homecoming Honors Julie and Casey

Excitement filled the air as the students of B.H.S. began preparing for Homecoming. Throughout October 13 to 17, the students used "Soul 69" as their theme. Beginning early in the week, the students started decorating their class floats. But the students didn't decorate on Wednesday because school was let out due to the snow. The festivities started out with the snake dance and bonfire on Thursday. Friday, after classes, the students attended the parade and rally downtown. That evening the Diggers played host to the Julesburg Lions, and following the game was the dance. Music for the dance was furnished by the Blue Steel.

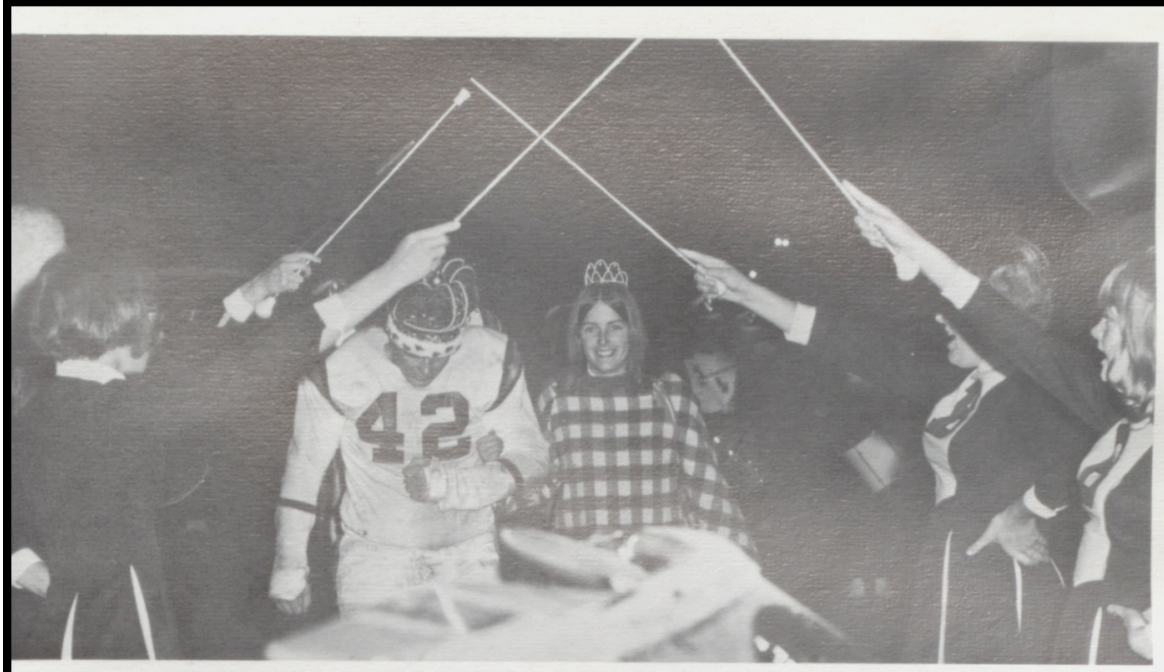

Julie White reigned as Homecoming Queen and her attendants were Winny Lee, Sharon Madsen and Patsy Weiss.

This year a new addition was made to the royalty court, this being a Homecoming King. Brent Christensen, Rick Holmes, Ron Samples, and Casey Davis were the candidates. Casey was selected as King for 1969.

Play Highlights November Schedule

Under the direction of Mrs. Eleise Bloom and Miss Lorraine Young, "Hang-Up At Generation Gap" was presented on November 13 and 14 in the Central School Auditorium.

Casts members included: Kris Larsen, Gwen Bostron, Glenna Chabot, Juanita Rios, Craig Weisbart, Jim Green, Valda Conover, Patricia Crowe, Carol Weiss, Donna Oblander, Robert Mata, Rick Price, and extras were: Dwight Anderson, Esther Herbst, Kitta Schreiner and Joe Swinson.

Handling the props for the play were: Craig Atkinson, Steve Eby, Leo Hallahan, Joe Swinson, Kitta Schreiner and Karen Stitt. Behind the scenes were Sherri Boxer and Donna Oblander as prompters.

The play was centered on the activities of a group of teenagers who become involved in their town's pollution problem. They engaged in a project to prove to the townspeople that the factories were polluting the river. The plan was temporarily spoiled when the nine year old sister of the anti-pollution committee tampered with the evidence. All finally turned out all-right, and town conquered it's pollution problem.

Seniors Break Tradition

This years senior class decided to break tradition by presenting three, one-act plays, instead of the usual nativity. The plays were: "A Song Is Born", "The Gift of the Magi", and "A Partridge In A Pear Tree."

Some of the main characters in the plays included: Mark Ruebel Gaynor Bloom, Dave Miller, Joan Lynch, John Price, Ron Samples, and Judy Lorensen. Narrators were: Julie Opp, Sharon Madsen, and Julie White. Behind the scenes were Debbie Wood and Kathy Treadway as prompters. The programs were directed by Mrs. Eleise Bloom and assisting her was Miss Lorraine Young.

"A Song Is Born" was the first play enacted about the life of Franz Gruber, the writer of the famous Christmas carol, Silent Night.

"A Song Is Born" was the first play enacted about the life of Franz Gruber, the writer of the famous Christmas carol, Silent Night. Given next was "The Gift of the Magi," the story of two people who gave each other useless gifts, not realizing that love is the most priceless of all gifts. The last performance was "A Partridge In A Pear Tree," a musical skit about a foolish girl who learned the hard way that it is much better to give gifts than to take them.

Bloom Directs All-School Play

Brush High Thespian Troop No. 968 presented the annual All-School Play on April 23-24. Mrs. Eleise Bloom directed the play which was entitled, "The Family Man," with the assistance of Miss Lorraine Young.

The three-act production featured the family man who took over the household chores while recovering from an injury. Complications arrived later when he was selected as the winner of a national homemaker award.

Leading roles were played by Mark Ruebel and Dee Dee Wyatt. Stage crew consisted of Molly Torrez, Steve Eby, Clay Ruebel, and Danny Woolley Publicity was handled by Sherri Boxer, while Faye Weiss was in charge of ticket sales.

"Three Coins in a Fountain" was chosen by the juniors as the theme for the 1970 Prom. Colors selected were green and gold, honoring the seniors. Music for the festivities was provided by "The Living End," a group from Denver.

The dance was held on May 2 from 8:30 to 12:00 p.m. at the Thomson School All-Purpose Room.

Chosen to reign as the 1970 Prom Queen was Joan Lynch. Crowning the queen was Junior Class President, Dwight Andersen. Her court consisted of Patsy Weiss, senior attendant, and Carla Garrett, junior attendant. They were crowned by Rick Price and Brendy Lee, respectively. Crown bearers were Andy Boxer, Shane Harvey, and Ryan Thomas.

Students Clean Up on D-Day

On May 15, student council sponsored the annual Digger Day. Instead of attending regular morning classes as in past years, B.H.S. students began the day by celebrating "Earth Day". Each class was bussed to the country in a different direction and unloaded a few miles from Brush. Students then walked back toward the town and picked up trash along the highways and roads in their areas.

During the afternoon, regular Digger Day activities got underway following the class relay race. Classes also competed in other events including softball, volleyball, tennis, horseshoes and ping pong.

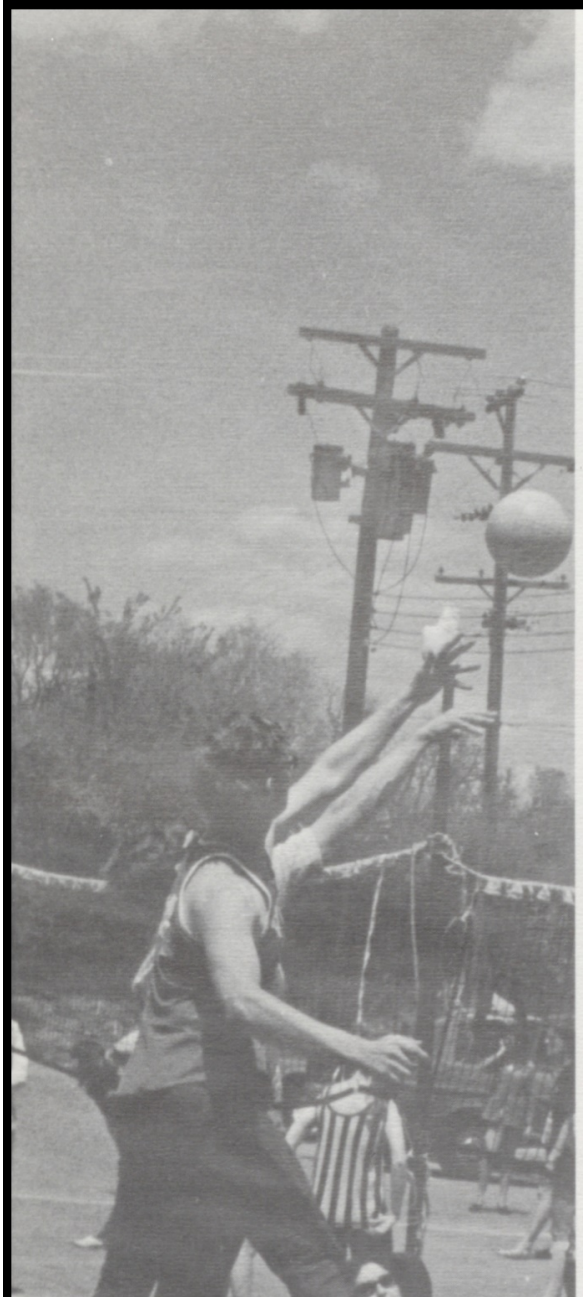

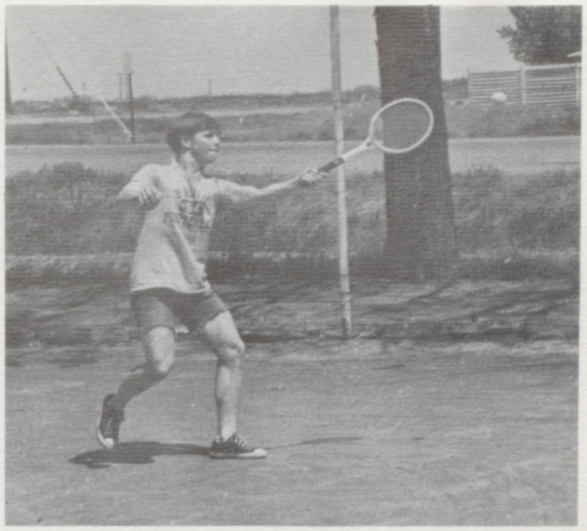

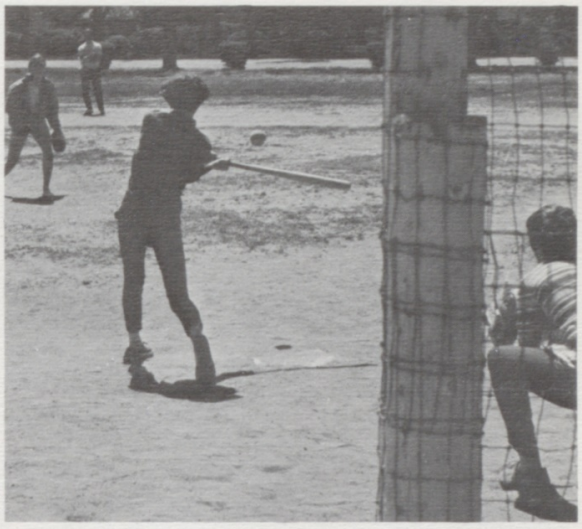

Winners in each event received points which were totaled up on individual class scores and added to previously earned points in order to determine the overall victor.

At 3:30 the student body gathered in front of Old Main for the presentation of awards. This year the juniors won top honors, followed by the sophomores, seniors and freshmen. To complete the day, the Digger Dance was held in the Rec. Room that evening.

Clark Crowned Mr. Beetdigger

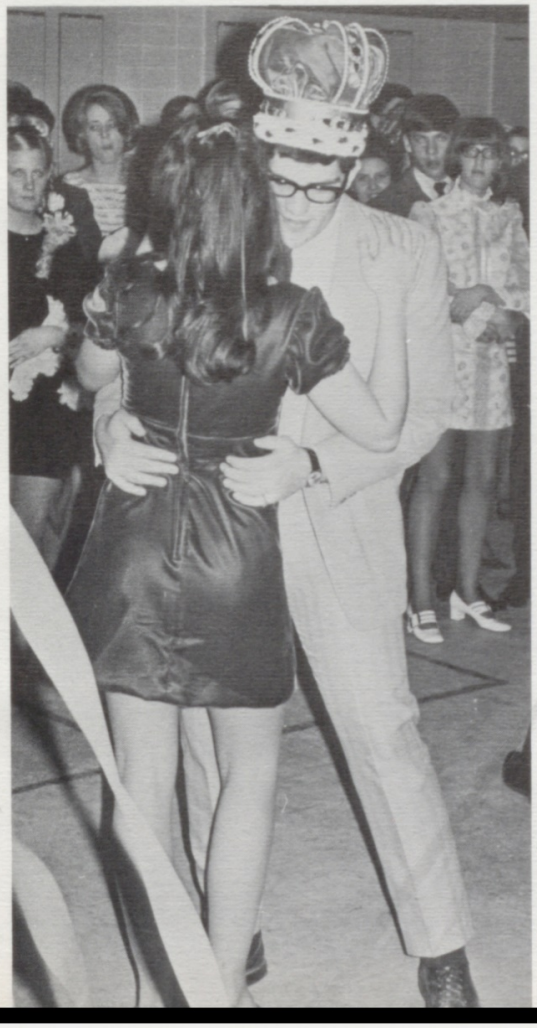

"Winter World of Love" was the theme used for the annual Sweetheart Dance sponsored by the pep club on Februrary 21 in the Thomson School all-purpose room. Held from 8:30 p.m. to 12 p.m., 80 couples attended at two dollars apiece.

Music for the dance was furnished by the "Glass Attic" from Denver. The room was decorated by the pep club members in streamers of white with red hearts scattered around. Serving as chaperones and attending the refreshment table was the Mothers Council.

The evening was highlighted by the crowning of Bernie Clark as Mr. Beetdigger with his attendants Ron Samples, Brendy Lee, and Terry Christensen. Doing the crowning was head cheerleader Winnie Lee, assisted by Judy Macht, Sharon Kauffman, and Susan Wagers.

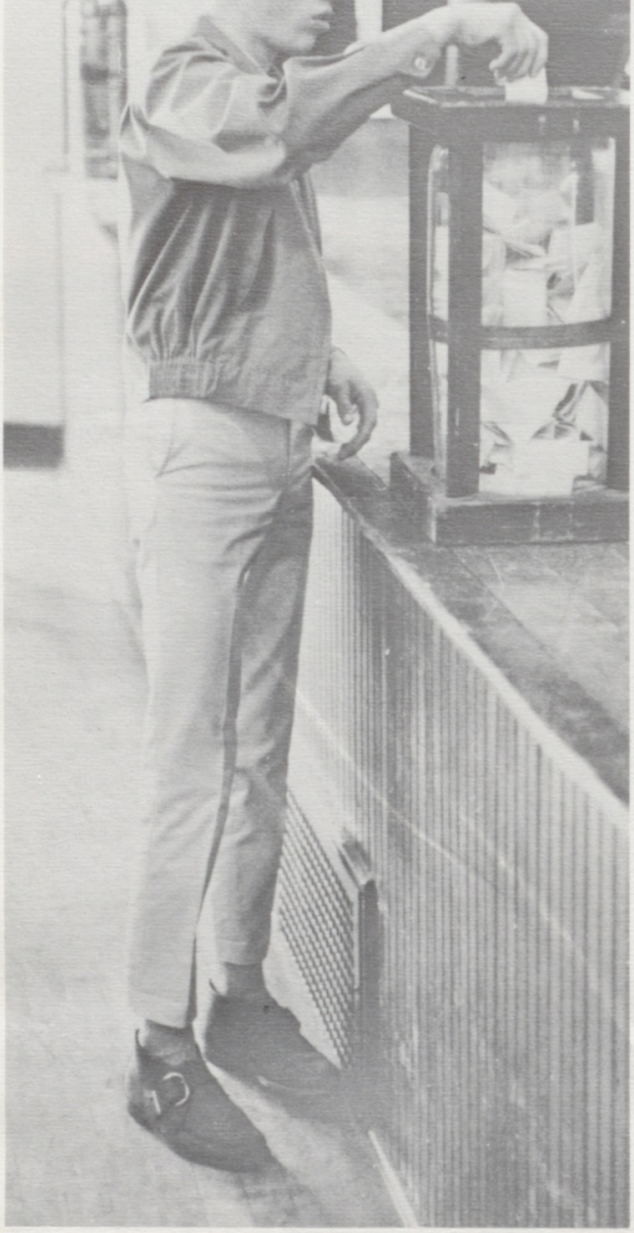

All Boy Officers Elected

On Monday, April 13, the student body gathered in the gym to hear the 16 campaign speeches. The official election day was Wednesday with the polls being open before classes, during the noon hour, and activity period. Ballots were counted during sixth period and the winners were announced seventh period.

Those chosen as the 1970-71 officers were informed with Rick Price leading as president. Dwight Anderson was chosen to fill the position of vice president while Steven Brown will hold the office of business manager. The final member of the party will be Clay Ruebel serving as secretary.

This year a percentage of the individual voters was taken and points were given toward Digger Day. An overall percentage of 77% was recorded, with the juniors casting 81%; freshmen 80%; sophomores 74% and seniors 72%. This exceeds the U.S. elections where 60% to 65% is good.

Rod,
To a great guy who is quite a bowler on the side. I know you are hard on our Coach but I think she Likes calling you out getting you out of bed more. Well I do hope you can improve your game about 20 pens this year and pull a 125 average. you do throw a mean ball though it is just that you don't hit any pins that has me wondering. I must say though that I enjoy covering you on those passes in PE but only cause you are so easy (not really) well I had better wish you good luck in the future in everything you do, take it easy Oh Deb oh and take it easy on your intertainment to (you know what I mean) Always a Good Friend
