

SNYDER HIGH SCHOOL

SNYDER, COLORADO

Pioneer

GWEN GREEN, Editor

May the PIONEER of 1962 be your link to the past in the years to come. We hope that every moment we have spent working on the PIONEER will help you recall many wonderful memories.

The Staff would like to take this opportunity to give a special thanks to Mr. Whitehair for his help in bringing this memento to you.

As we bid farewell to Snyder High School, we send best wishes for the future to you, the PIONEERS of this new, challenging age.

THE STAFF

Foreword

Dedication

We the Seniors of 1962, proudly dedicate this annual to Margaret Pierce who has served us in the hot lunchroom so faithfully for the past eleven years. During that time she has watched our growth from Second graders to Seniors. In years to come when our names no longer ring a bell with Mrs. Pierce, we will all remember the smile on her face as she asks, "spinach today?"

Faculty

Superintendent's Message

Through the years you have learned that all success has a price. Your persistence in your endeavors for the last twelve years are proof that you are willing to pay this price. If you continue with this determination, you can be assured of a full and happy life.

This life can be exemplified by looking forward to going to school as you are now looking forward to the life that is yet to come.

Looking into our future through the "Telescope Futural," an airplane can be seen flying across the sky. As the telescope becomes clearer, we see a young stewardess smiling pleasantly as she serves dinner to the passengers aboard the plane. We recognize the girl as Gwen Green. After graduation from Snyder High, Gwen went to Northeastern Junior College. When Gwen graduated from college, she worked at the airlines until she was twenty-one. She then became a stewardess; but, by the way, Gwen is looking at the handsome pilot in the cockpit. She will not be a stewardess for long.

Moving the telescope toward Denver, we see much excitement and action taking place in front of the First National Bank. Why, it looks like a hold-up! It is! Dashing down the street comes a handsome, brave young policeman. He looks familiar. Yes, it's Dale Wahlert, our classmate from Snyder High. Dale certainly has done well since he graduated from high school, and we are sure his wife and two children are very proud of him.

Turning our telescope north, we see an old friend. She is taking shorthand from her boss. But something is wrong, she is sitting on his lap! Later we found out that it was all right because the boss is her husband. As the scene fades, we see one, two, three, four, red-headed children filing into the room. Their hair is almost the same color red as their mother's, whose name is (as we knew her) Orpha Marick.

As we move our telescope further, we see a mechanic working beneath a car. By now you have probably guessed that the man is Bob Holzworth, the once very well known student of Snyder High School. Bob has been working as a mechanic since he returned from the army, where he obtained his education on automobile repair. He has been a great success as a mechanic, and is employed by a large firm in Tucson, Arizona.

Now zooming into the sight of our lens comes a midget racer. The race is tough, but this racer has a good lead. As it comes around the last corner, the car looks as if it might not make it; but with the skill of the driver, it comes flying into win the race. When a kiss from the queen of the race is placed firmly upon the face of the winner, we see one of our Senior classmates, Tony Kitchin.

Having turned around, we see our classmate, Mabel Kitchin. She is now a wealthy psychologist. Mabel is taking notes from her patient on a couch. She says that she loves her work, and hopes that she will never have to quit. We heard that some of her patients are movie stars, which makes her job most exciting. Mabel also devotes part of her time to her handsome husband and children.

Our telescope travels all the way to southern California, where an exciting horse race is taking place. Standing near the racing stable we see a skilled veterinarian examining a thoroughbred race horse. As the young man turns around, we notice that he is David Williams. David owns a large ranch in California, and makes an ample income by following the racing season. During the summer David is seen all along the West Coast tending to his vet business.

As we look around, we see our friend, Sharon. She is now married to the boy we knew she would marry, Jerry. After graduation Sharon went to Central Business College, then she and Jerry were married and moved to the farm west of Snyder. Sharon continued her secretarial work at Brush for a few years; but now she is busy rearing three cute children. As the scene fades, we see the happy family enjoying an afternoon of horse-back riding.

Senior Class Will

Gwen Green wills her ability to attract boys to Karen Williams.

Bob Holzworth wills the long black curly hair on his chest to Van Clay and Walter Amack.

Sharon Roth wills her sharp tongue to Tom Kitchin.

Dale Wahlert wills his love life to Virgil Williams.

Orpha Marick wills her ability to yell at the top of her voice to Van Clay, who needs it so.

Mable Kitchin wills her sweetness to Lee.

Tony Kitchin wills his height to everyone left on the basketball team.

Bob Holzworth wills his mechanical ability to Mr. Ellis.

David Williams wills his F.F.A. trips to Gerald McCracken who enjoys them so much.

Gwen Green wills her waist measurements to Lucille Dobner.

Sharon Roth wills her quiet, dainty, shy ways to Peggy Baughman.

Orpha Marick wills her sweet disposition to Cherie Trusty.

Dale Wahlert wills his troubles with "The Wasp" to Dale Thompson.

David Williams wills his ability to make girls mad to the Junior boys (who hate girls anyhow).

Tony Kitchin wills his driving ability to Karen Beck.

Mable Kitchin wills her ability to understand chemistry problems and experiments to Joe Krehmeyer.

Bob Holzworth wills his perfectly good coveralls, which have the added features of grease, grit, grime, and holes already built into them, to the coming Freshman Class.

Gwen wills her hair curlers to Betty Marick who adores curls so much.

Orpha wills her beautiful red hair to Mr. Whitehair---White Hair????????

Sharon wills her great stature to Peggy Baughman.

Dale wills his ability to shoot baskets to Kenny Houston.

Mable wills her ability to burn the food in home economics to Carol Vondy.

Tony wills his ability to "goof-off" in Ag. to Virgil Williams.

David wills his job as basketball manager to Linda Amsberry.

The Senior girls will their ability to get into trouble with the teachers to Ruth Bishop and Peggy Baughman.

David and Bob will their innocent looks and their cowboy boots to Mrs. Tramp and Mrs. Bruce.

The Seniors of '62 will all their second-hand spearmint wrappers, their old cat and mouse games, their notes, and all their other well used junk to the Juniors of '63.

The Seniors of '62 will their four years of good times, happy memories, fights, and homework, from good "ole Snyder High," to the Seniors of '66.
