Dedication

To Miss Walters, one of the best teachers in Brush High, to one of the most understanding members of the faculty, for always being helpful, kind, and cooperative, a booster for the school and silent to its shortcomings, for the wonderful things she has done to forward the high standards of this worthy institution, we dedicate the 1951 SAGEBRUSH.

Principal's Message

STUDENTS OF BRUSH HIGH SCHOOL:

You students of Brush High School are attending school for the purpose of securing both a general education and a special education.

Not only does education mean intellectual development, but it also means an organized environment which will influence a more favorable personal development of every student attending a school. Of course, each individual will develop to the degree that he wisely invests his time. Education is a cooperative adventure—pupil and teacher relationship. The calendar of time is available for all, but the use of time is an individual matter. It is an objective of the secondary school to encourage every pupil attending to learn to utilize time so he will progress toward higher ideals of living as well as securing basic educational experiences essential for future specialization.

You seniors have completed twelve school years and I trust that the most of you have made a good investment. Time waits for no one. Education does not cease upon graduation, but is a continuous process. Remember to use your time and abilities so that you will always be moving with the stream of progress.

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of 1951 entered good "Ole BHS" in September, 1947, as the largest class, with an enrollment of eighty. The eleventh of September was the big day of the year when they were initiated into High School. The girls were dressed in gunny sacks and boys wore skirts and midriffs.

Our class officers were chosen in the fall of the year as follows: President, LeeRoy Needens; Vice President, Charles Hoff; Secretary, Georgia Wetzbarger; Treasurer, Neva Owens; Student Council Representative Bob Scott; Sponsors, Mr. Seguine and Miss Taney. The freshman inter-class play was given November 25 in the "On the Air" form of a radio program in which every freshman had a part and acted it very well.

Next year the Class of "51" returned again to the halls of BHS. We had our traditional Sophomore Hayride, which was held out at Rose's Lake. The class of "51" sponsored several dances, and were in charge of the decorations for Baccalaureate and Commencement. In all of our activities we were under the leadership of our sponsors, Miss Burkett and Mr. Schweers. The class officers were: Presidents, Bernard Johansen and LeeRoy Needens; Vice President, JoAnn Bollig and Bob Scott, Secretaries, Bette Mueller and Charles Hoff; Treasurers, Margaret Adams and Mary Ann Wendt, and Student Council Representatives, Georgia Wetzbarger and Eleanor Koehler.

When the Class of "51" started out as juniors, officers chosen for the year were: President, Douglas Tomky; Vice President, Johnny Lynn; Secretary, Lucille Sprigg; Treasurer, JoAnn Bollig; Student Council Representatives, Paul Sorensen and Avis Christensen. As money-raising projects we sold hot-dogs, pop, coffee, and candied apples at the football games and sponsored several dances. The main event of the year was the Prom and Banquet; the theme was "Stardust." Our junior class play was "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." It was directed under the leadership of Mrs. Wood. Mrs. Becker and Mr. Richards were our sponsors throughout the year.

At last the Class of 1951 has reached the goal which they have strived to attain. This year we chose for our class officers: President, Kenneth Pollock; Vice President, Harry Osborn; Secretary, Bernard Johansen; Treasurer, Douglas Tomky; Student Council Representatives, Mary Ann Wendt and JoAnn Bollig. Sponsors were Miss Walters and Mr. Orr.

Among the busy days of the Class of "51" were Sneak Day, and Homecoming, at which we took second place on our float.

Our class colors are Silver and Blue. Our flower is red and white Carnaiton. The class robes are blue with white tassels. The Class of 1951 have as their motto "The elevator to success is not running; take the stairs."

CLASS WILL

The Great Class of '51 want all their teachers happy and therefore do hereby leave . . . . To the new Senior Class we give our troubles—may you work them out, for we couldn't! For the new Junior Class we are leaving the Juniors of this past year. (It's not our fault!) The new Sophomore Class will be glad to know that we are leaving them an open date for their hayride, June 3, 1952. Last but not least of the underclassmen is the new Greenhorn Class. To you we leave a can of Red paint—we don't think the green does you justice. (It's so old fashioned!)

Margaret Adams leaves with Chuck.

Llewellyn Bass leaves his All-Star Football ability to Allan Richards.

Don Beneke leaves his airplanes to Janet Christensen. (Model, that is).

Phyllis Blessing leaves John.

JoAnn Bollig leaves her temper to Betty Jo Henry.

Marybelle Brandt leaves her cheerleading to Shirley Tackwell.

David Bretzke leaves his pets in formaldehyde.

Bob Casady leaves his acting ability to Jerry Hartwig.

Avis Christensen leaves for Boulder.

Audrey Church leaves the Missouri Waltz to Harry Truman.

Marilu Danielsen leaves her red hair to Georgia Hoffman.

Dorothy Diggins leaves her tennis racket to Donald Wilcox.

Marian Eicher leaves her cakes to next year's fire squad.

Ardith Fegley leaves speech class to Mary Ann Gobble.

Helen Gimbel leaves her shorthand to Shirley Schneider.

Larry Henry leaves his height to Joyce Ann Christensen.

Charles Hoff leaves his Math grades to Shirley Schweers.

Conrad Hoffman leaves. (Oh Garsh!).

Wilma Hoffman leaves her high stepping to Barbara Adams.

Beverly Holford leaves with Albert Ruhl.

Florence Hunt leaves her daintiness to Alice Pote.

Maxine Ingmire leaves her Ford for a better car. (Kaiser?)

Bernard Johansen leaves the boxes at Safeway for Frank Jensen.

Eleanor Koehler leaves for Pearl Harbor.

Johnny Lynn leaves his slide-rule to Merc. (He hopes it's not too large!)

Betty Jean Miller leaves for the races.

Leona Moeller leaves her jewels to Addie Smith.

Leta McKellips leaves the office to anyone that wants it.

LeeRoy Needens leaves his basketball to Merlin Ray.

Jim Noffsinger leaves his passing ability to anyone.

Harry Osborn leaves the library QUIET!

JoAnn Ott leaves the De Soto for Jerry Ott.

Neva Owens leaves Brushland Drug to Joy Pollock.

Jim Patton leaves his big stories to anyone that will use them. (Coach Lindberg?)

Kenneth Pollock leaves for J. C. Penney Co. (Does this mean a Job or no job?)

Frank Ritchie leaves the streets safe.

Gene Ruggles leaves the Ford for Jim Ruggles.

Rex Schweers leaves the books in a mess!!

Wayne Seeley leaves his art where it has been left for the past four years.

Alice Smith leaves her twirling to Ethel Marietta.

Doris Smith leaves bookkeeping to Mrs. Jensen; she can figure it out.

Paul Sorensen leaves Mr. Richards happy!

Katherine Spomer leaves her sewing to the first year homemaking class.

Lucille Sprigg leaves her High School fun to all Underclassmen.

Lois Stenback leaves her quietness to Paul Hildebrand.

Joyce Stitt leaves her long blonde hair to Cynthia Smith.

Bob Thornsby leaves without a word. (After all these years who wouldn't?)

Elmer Thomas leaves his drawing ability to Buddy Pote.

Douglas Tomky leaves the girls.

Wilford Tomky leaves his hillbilly ways to Walter Atkinson.

Mary Ann Wendt leaves her drums and her drumming ability to Bob Wetzbarger. (Good Luck, Bob!)

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The former Margaret Adams is thriving nicely on the income of the Schafer Pen Ranch.

Hard-hitting Llewellyn Bass, has decided to go into professional football.

Don Beneke has now advanced from piloting model airplanes to a real B-29. Still up in the clouds!

Phyllis Blessing, has been chosen the best dressed co-ed at Aggie College. Congratulations, Phyllis!

JoAnn Bollig recently modeled the $10,000 fur coat for her fellow debutantes.

Marybelle Brandt has been chosen "Miss Personality" by the Brush High School Freshman Boys.

David Bretzke plays a french horn in the Ringling Brothers Circus in the day time; and his father's car horn in the evenings. Still as musical as ever.

The new "Rocket", the car that turns on only two wheels, is being tested by none other than the dare-devil, Bob Casady.

After graduating with top honors from Bakers College, Miss Avis Christensen has returned home before accepting the position as Dean of Baker College.

Miss Audrey Church is now a registered nurse and is planning for a higher education.

Marilu Danielsen has just erected a new honey factory north of Brush. It is said to be the best in Colorado.

The Brush High School girls Physical Ed teacher, Dorothy Diggins, has just signed a contract to teach in Europe.

Fox theater has just appointed Marian Eicher as their chief dress designer.

Ardith Fegley has just accepted a new contract from M.G.M.

Helen Gimbel is still striving at Tut's cafe as chief cook and bottle washer.

It is still the belief of Larry Henry, the great cartoonist, that the very best things come in short packages. (Haven't you got her yet?)

The new mathematics teacher of Brush High School is Charles Hoff.

Everybody be alert! The famous game warden of Colorado, Conrad Hoffman, is still trying to get his first victim.

The new dance instructor of Arthur Murray's is Wilma Hoffman, now living south of Brush on the Atkinson Ranch.

Beverly Holford has changed her career from secretary to good old housekeeping.

Florence Hunt and Maxine Ingmire have just returned from their trip to Paris.

Bernard Johansen, famous trumpeter, has just challenged Kirk Douglas for the title of "A Man Without A Horn." Keep it up, Bernard.

After returning from a long trip to Pearl Harbor, Miss Eleanor Koehler has accepted the position of secretary to the Navy.

Johnny Lynn is now editor of the magazine, "Tennis Champs."

Betty Miller has become the first woman jockey to win the Kentucky Derby.

Leona Moeller is now painting for the Hallmark Card Company.

A new advancement in the Eaves Jewelry store was the promotion of Leta McKellips, the chief floor washer.

LIFE Magazine recently gave a full report of "Life of LeeRoy Needens" Basketball coach of Colorado University!

Jim Noffsinger is still trying to find a challenger for the title of "Champion Pole Vaulter."

Harry Osborn has become librarian of the United States Congress.

Joan Ott is now Playing for the Toscanini orchestra.

Neva Owens has advanced from soda jerk to pharmacist.

Jim Patton is developing smittys for modern cars. He has become the cops chief noise maker.

Ken Pollock, believe it or not, has been giving driving lessons for dare-devils.

The thin man Frank Ritchie has replaced Dick Powell in his mystery role.

Gene Ruggles is in the Presbyterian Hospital up in Denver playing sick to see one of the nurses. Which one, Gene?

Alice Smith is making millions by teaching professional twirling.

Doris Smith has been chosen "Miss Quietude"

After making his first million, Paul Sorensen has retired.

Katherine Spomer has been crowned champion seamstress of the year.

Lucille Sprigg has made good as Betty Grable in "Black Hair" in the movies.

Lois Stenback, the spotlight of Denver, is spending the weekend in Brush.

Joyce Stitt has become a professional hair dresser. She likes short black hair.

Bob Thornsby is in the Ozarks. The Farmer's Daughter just carried him away.

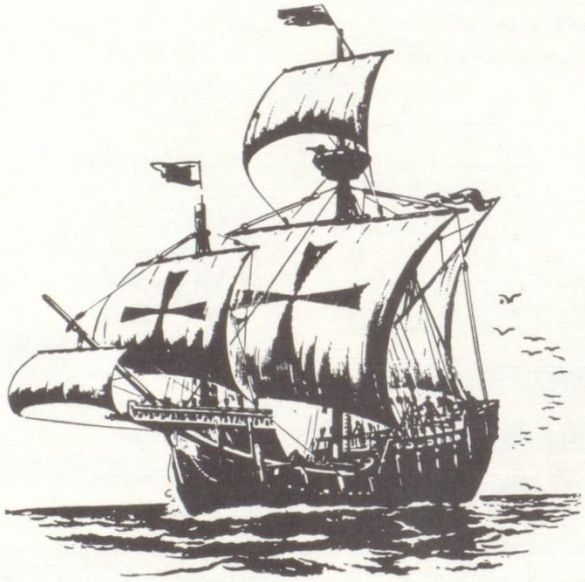

Elmer Thomas has bought a wig shop. He is planning to sell straight blond wigs.

The new owner of the Henry J. automobile factories is Douglas Tomky.

They call him Billy from the hills, but you know him as Wilford Tomky.

Mary Ann Wendt is now instructing the Sherwood Music School on how to play and teach music.

Phyllis Blessing, center, who reigned as queen at the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet and her two attendants, Evelyn Hansen and Marybelle Brandt.

The theme of this year's Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet was "Under the Sea." All possible methods of following this theme were put into practice. The banquet tables were covered with flowers arranged in lovely bouquets with lighted candles in the center of each. On the menu for the lucious feast were Sea Goddess Bait, Neptune's Favorite, Roast of Shark, Treasure Cases, White Caps with Breakers, Fresh Ocean Seaweeds, Sea Biscuits and Pirates Gold, Jelly Fish, Sea Foam and Mermaids Delight, and Water of the Murky Deep. All were served by the blue-clad mermaids.

The fishy program was as follows:

N NEATH THE ROLLING DEEP — By King Neptune.
E EXALTED KING, JEWELS FOR YOUR CROWN — By an old Kingfish.
P PORPOISE AT PLAY — By the Howling Dogfish.
T TREASURE CHEST BURIED AT SEA — By a Deep Sea Diver.
U UNDER CURRENT — By the Star Fish.
N NUTS — By an Ole Sea Lion.
E EBBTIDE — By a Blowfish.

The armory was beautifully decorated also and gave the impression to the visitor that he was deeply submerged under the surface of the ocean. In one corner a sail on a boat flapped in the wind. Fish swam everywhere you looked.

Bob Johnson and his musical mackerals furnished the melodies for our dancing pleasure. Phyllis Blessing was crowned queen at the intermission ceremonies.

MAY THE JUNIORS BE AS SUCCESSFUL IN THEIR SENIOR YEAR AS THEY WERE IN PUTTING ON A SWELL PROM AND BANQUET.
