COUNCIL SPEARHEADS ACTIVITY PROGRAMS

Under the direction of sponsor Mrs. Lynch and President Todd Elling, Student Council sponsored activities such as the Homecoming festivities, Gong Show, Morp Dance, and a Christmas Door Decorating Contest. Outstanding students were chosen by the Council every month. Four students traveled to Yuma High School in a student exchange program in the Northeastern League.

Steve Hansen served Student Council as their vice-president, Darren Hansen as treasurer, and Tammy Jo Newland as secretary. Elling and Hansen attended a summer workshop at Colorado State University with Mrs. Lynch.

CHOIR MEMBERSHIP SOARS

The Concert Choir had six concerts over the course of the year. The Christmas Concert was held on December 14 in the high school auditorium. The group also sang at Sunset Manor and Eben Ezer. Students of both Thompson and Central Schools listened to the choir perform. Concert choir also took part in the League Choir Clinic, which was held in Brush this year. Mr. Robert Pringle was the director.

SELECT CHOIR PERFORMS 8 TIMES

SELECT CHOIR PERFORMS & TIMES

Mr. Pringle directed the Select choir for the year 1978-79.

The choir was engaged in 8 concerts during the year. The annual Christmas and Spring concerts were held in the high school auditorium. Concerts were also given to the residents of Sunset Manor and Eben-Ezer. Choir members also attended both Thompson and Central Schools. A concert was given to some of the members of the Presbyterian Church in October. All members took part in the League Choir Clinic, which was held in Brush this year.

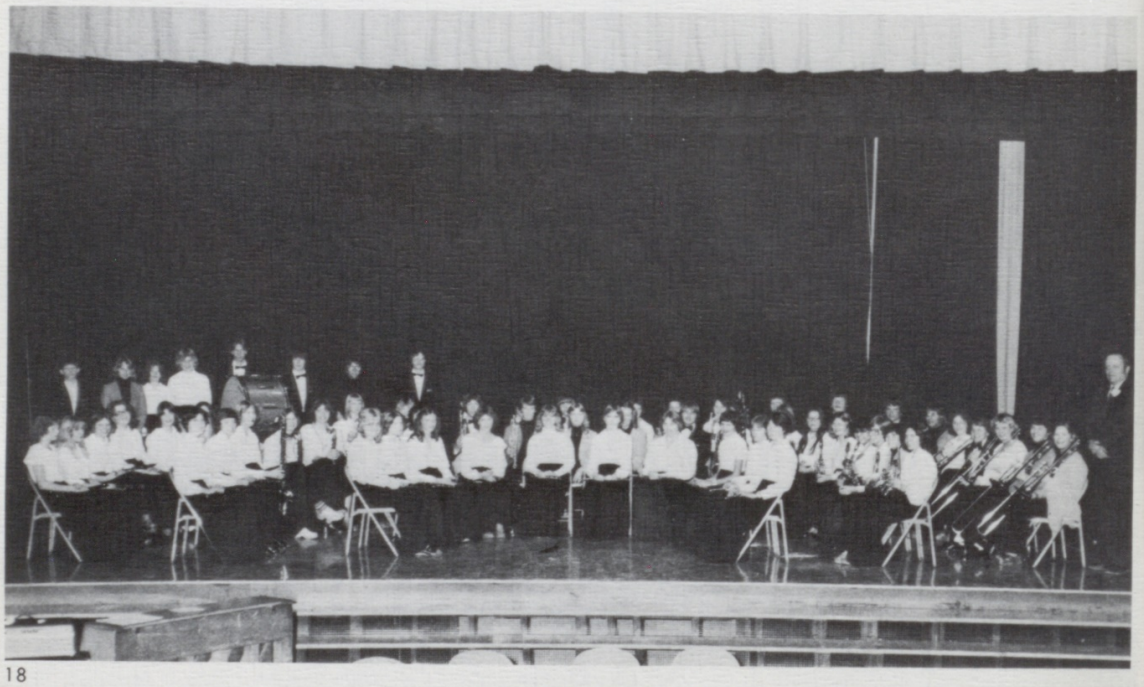

MUSIC DEPARTMENT HEADED BY PRINGLE

Conducting the bands through various activities in his first year at B.H.S. was Mr. Robert Pringle.

The Homecoming half-time show, Winter and Spring concerts with the Stage Band, and the Mass Band Concert in May were a few of the activities of the bands. The Stage Band also played at the Gong Show and for several community functions.

J-STAFF BRINGS NEW MEMBERS

Joined by thirteen new members, J-staff put together a yearbook and eight papers. The class did this by selling ads to Brush salesmen and yearbooks to high school students and faculty.

Newspaper staff, headed by Linda Kuriger and Karen Price, wrote stories on activities and events for the year. Each reporter was assigned a beat on one club. They also wrote features to entertain the reader.

Editors of the '79 Sagebrush, Greg Gleason and Todd Elling, controlled the preparation of the yearbook. The staff laid out pages by choosing pictures and writing copy.

Members of J-staff are as follows; Chris Griffith, Bus. manager; Lydia Villerreal, Ads manager; Mark Edson, Sports Editor. Reporters were: Meredith Gill, Roxanne Likely, Camille Bzdek, Robin Wind, Pat Skinner, Lynnette Wessel, Sonya Griffith, Dean Nichols, Wes Schmer, Mark LaFever, Jim Evans, Tim King and Rod Pierce.

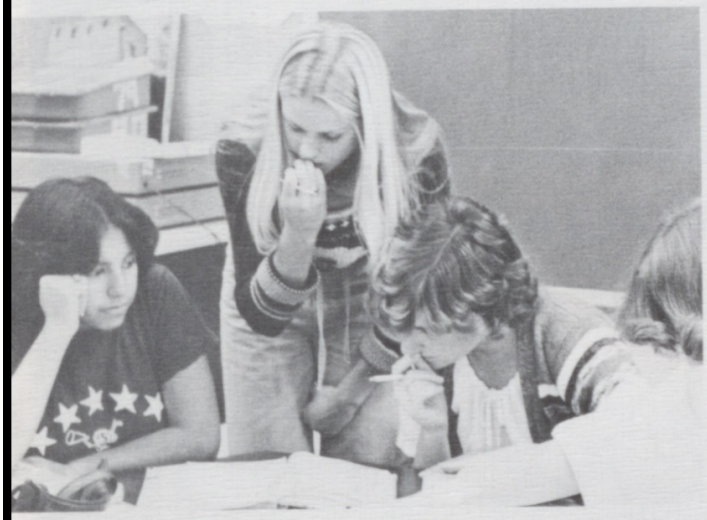

Controller of all operations in J-staff was Mr. Woolley, instructor of the class. He has taught journalism at BHS since '55.

KURIGER HEADS AIA

AIA was once again sponsored by Miss Helen Speegle. The officers included Linda Kuriger, president; Deanna Odle, vice-president; Crystal Rieb, secretary; and Jeannie Strauch, treasurer.

The quilt raffle was AIA's biggest money-making project along with concessions, and cake raffles. Club members used the money earned to take a ski trip. Other activities were the Ice Cream Social, to welcome the new members, and the end of the year picnic in which outstanding members were honored with awards.

B-CLUB DOES FALL WORK

B-Club's main money maker for the year was their fall work. They collected money from people for doing yard work.

B-Club's main money maker for the year was their fall work. They collected money from people for doing yard work.

Other activities for the club were an exhibition basketball game and the annual club trip.

Heading B-Club for '78-'79 was Kent Lindell. Darryl Albert was vice-president and Rudy Perez was secretary-treasurer. Mike Meireis was sergeant of arms.

Sponsoring the eighteen-senior club were coaches LeeRoy Needens, Helen Speegle and Larry Mills.

RUGGLES LEADS FBLA

During the school year 1977-78, FBLA was the school's largest organization, and again, in 1978-79, it was the largest club. The club membership numbered 79, including the fourteen officers and two sponsors.

The officers were: president, Andrea Ruggles; vice-president, Chris Griffith; secretary, Jenni Stinton; treasurer, Terry Linker; historian, Shannon Fleming; reporter, Leslie Holman; and parliamentarian, Cherie Ewert. The committee chairpersons were: Social, Larry Leis; Fund-raising, Jon Wood; Project Awareness, Kent Lindell; Chapter Development, Barb Strauch; Leadership Development, Deb Mohrlang; Education, Lisa Segelke; and District Coordinator, Jan Mitchell. Mrs. Joan Kreutz and Mr. John Schafer were the sponsors, with Pam Poulignot serving as the District Four Representative.

Some of the organization's money-making activities were raffles—cake and TV, concesssions, the Homecoming Carnival, and the jewelry sale. Fun activities included a pot luck dinner with DECA, a fun trip to Denver, and a Christmas caroling party.

FBLA also hosted its second annual local contest. The contests were held December 2, at the high school. Fifty members qualified to attend the District Conference in Sterling on January 31. Brush hosted the conference with the help of the District Four Representative Pam Poulignot. The 22 members that qualified at district attended State in April.

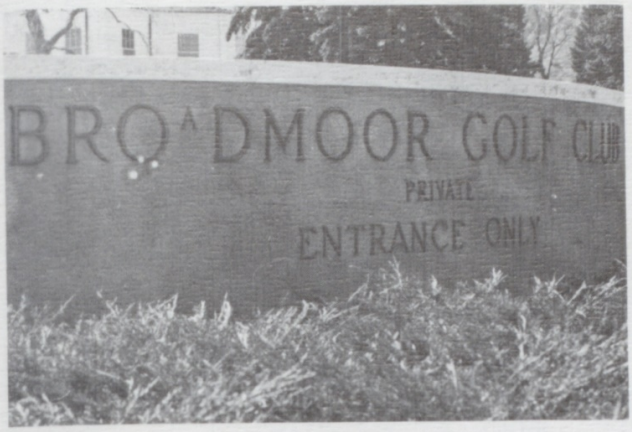

DECA ENTERTAINS 21 AND

. . . MITCHELL QUALIFIES FOR NATIONALS

Eleven students along with Mr. Bryan Whiting and Mrs. John Lindell as sponsors, traveled to Colorado Springs where these students qualified to participate in the State DECA finals March 4th, 5th, and 6th. Out of these students, Jan Mitchell qualified to go to the nationals in Houston, Texas, with a sixth place in advertising.

Jan flew to Houston on May eighth and participated through the eleventh. Although she did not place, she commented the trip was a very good experience and she had a good time.

Mr. Don Dillehay sponsored IRC during the 1978-79 year. Officers included Paul Lusby, president; Val Rieger, vice-president; Kara Cornum, secretary; and Pat Lee, treasurer.

In the fall of the year, the club visited the Civil Defense Center in Denver. They also had a special Thanksgiving banquet. Other activities included concessions, a candy apple raffle, several pot luck suppers, cake raffles, a pizza party, a spring picnic, a booth in the homecoming carnival, and the annual end-of-the-year banquet.

LEIS HEADS VICA

Advised by Ken McReynolds, the Vocational Clubs of America at B.H.S. sent eight members to Yuma for the Fall Leadership Conference in October. They also sent four of the VICA Auto. Mechanics to Greeley for the 78-79 Skills Olympics in February. During the District Conference held at Yuma in February, the eight members from Brush qualified for the state contest, which was held at Denver in March.

The officers of the VICA Club are as follows: President and District Vice-President Larry Leis; Vice-President Joe Ely; Treasurer James Kissler; Secretary Doug Mohrlang; Reporter Wes Schmer; Parliamentarian Mark Perez; Historian John Chubbuck; and the newly appointed 79-80 District Reporter Tom Jiminez.

CLEARING HOUSE LED BY RUDNIK

This year Clearing House again took part in several activities for the mentally and physically handicapped of Morgan County. Charlotte Rudnik led the club as president; Jonelle Gebauer as vice-president; Barb Skinner, secretary; and Ronnie Davis, treasurer.

Mrs. Jane Van Dyke was the sponsor again this year and under her direction Clearing House took part in many activities. The club gave a Halloween party and helped with a Christmas party with the handicapped persons from Morgan County attending. The club also took part in several other activities.

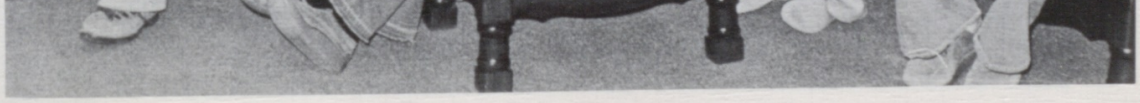

RONDA CHARTIER PRESIDES OVER FHA

Ronda Chartier presided over Future Homemakers of America for the year 1978-1979. Other officers were: Melodie Burham, Vice-President; Jackie Kautz, Secretary; Jonelle Gebauer, Treasurer; and Roberta Zwirn, Recorder-Historian. Miss Laura Franklin sponsored the club.

Members attended the District Convention in Sterling and also the State Convention, which was held in Colorado Springs. The club had a dinner for the residents of Sunset Manor and also a dinner for the judges and contestants of a Brush speech meet. Two pillows were raffled off as a money-making project for the club.

FFA IN 50th YEAR

Celebrating their 50th anniversary the Brush FFA chapter had a busy year. Activities for the year included judging contests, a trip to the stock show, trips to the state and national convention, and a slave sale. Greenhand installation was also held.

Officers included: president, Kenny Herron; vice-president, Carl Herrera; secretary, Larry Steyaert; reporter, Lois Evans; treasurer, Ken McClure; sentinel, Irvine Kalous. Mr. Don Hamilton sponsored the club.

MORRIS HEADS GOD SQUAD

God Squad's officers for the 1978-79 school year were Lucille Morris, president; Delbert Hammer, vice-president; Jill Mullen, secretary-treasurer; and Anita sor.

Their activities included a dunking booth at the Homecoming carnival, concessions, and a skating party.

God Squad's officers for the 1978-79 school year were Lucille Morris, president; Delbert Hammer, vice-president; Jill Mullen, secretary-treasurer; and Anita Thomas, chaplain. Mrs. Woodward was the club sponsor.

Their activities included a dunking booth at the Homecoming carnival, concessions, and a skating party.

DUDDEN LEADS RODEO CLUB

Rodeo Club had an active 78-79 year. Some of the activities included a trip to the National Western Stock Show in Denver, and some of the members participated in rodeos over the spring months.

Club officers were Rick Dudden, president; Tony Hass, vice-president; Mike Weitzel, secretary; and Kim Reitz, treasurer. There were a total of 17 members attending the club this year.

S.E.E.C. NUMBERS SIX

In the 1978-79 school year the members of Students Exploring Educational Careers selected as their officers JoAnn DeLa Fuente as president and Francis Vasquez as treasurer.

Besides the two cake raffles held, S.E.E.C. also had a garage sale on the 21st of April.

For the final club activity of the year, the members held a picnic during the second weekend of May.

Because there were no senior members this year, no scholarships were awarded.

SPIRIT CLUB COMPLETES FIRST YEAR

Spirit Club completed its first year at B.H.S. taking the place of the Pep Club. Both boys and girls were able to join the club. There were cheerleaders for both boys' and girls' sports.

Sponsors were Ms. Fix and Miss Potter. Officers for the year were Tami Jo Newland, president; Kara Kornum, vice-president; and Dave Mahon, secretary-treasurer.

Money-making projects included a cake raffle.

The A-squad Football cheerleaders were Jan Mitchell (Head), Jill Mullen, Barb Strauch, and Robin Wind.

B-squad Football cheerleaders consisted of Rita Rocha (Head), Pennie Wahlert, Pam Rodriguez, and Linda Leis.

The A-squad Basketball cheerleaders were Karen Nixon (Head), Linda Leis, Lorie Wind, and Rita Rocha.

Pam Rodriquez (Head), Kelly Emhovick, Heather Spencer, and Jeri Ocker were the B-squad Basketball cheerleaders.

Berlinda Padilla (Head), Janna Thornsby, Cathy Zadel, Shaire Meza, Val Rieger, and Crystal Draegert were the members of the Pom-pon squad.

The wrestling squad consisted of Deanna Odle (Head), Shannon Fleming, Lydia Villarreal, Amy Odle, Jennifer Schippert, and Roxanne McGinnis.

MATH & SCIENCE VISITS TAXIDERMY

The club visited Jonas Brothers Taxidermy and a corporation specialized in map making.

During Homecoming week the club had its annual Pop-Toss which brought an ample sum to the club treasury, before Christmas vacation a Pot-Luck supper for all the members was given. Two speakers, Mr. Edson and Mr. Gabriel, spoke on an Archaeological dig that they have been working on since last summer. A barbecue for the members finishes off the club activities.

A total of 22 members were in the 1978-79 club. Don Gabriel sponsored the club, Mark Edson, President; Chuck Rieb, Vice President; and Lucille Morris, Secretary.

THESPIANS ASSIST IN 3 PRODUCTIONS

This year Thespian Troupe 968 helped in the performance of the Junior Class Play, the All-School Musical and the All-School Play. The Junior Class Play was open to Freshmen, Sophomores, and Seniors this year as well as Juniors.

The Thespians also presented their annual Homecoming Pep Skit downtown.

One of the highlights of the year was a visit from the group See Saw, an acting group that used sign language in their skits. The group held a workshop for Thespians and then presented a program for the school.

Several members also attended a workshop in Greeley on the UNC campus. No banquet was held this year because no date could be found.

SEVEN PARTICIPATE IN MEETS

Leading the Forensics club during the 1978-79 season was Lynnette Wessel as President. Other officers included Karen Price as Vice President; Jill Mullen, Secretary; Pat Lee, Treasurer; and Meredith Gill, Historian.

In all, seven members participated in speech meets. They were: Meredith Gill and Pat Lee in Interpretation of Humor; John Lindell in Extemporaneous Speaking; Jill Mullen in Interpretation of Drama; Karen Price in Solo Acting; Lydia Villarreal in Poetry; and Lynnette Wessel in Extemporaneous Speaking and Original Oratory.

Several meets were attended during the year, the last one being the State A and AA Speech Festival in Golden. Jill Mullen took a third place trophy and Karen Price received sixth place at the festival, with Meredith Gill and Lydia Villarreal receiving honorable mentions.

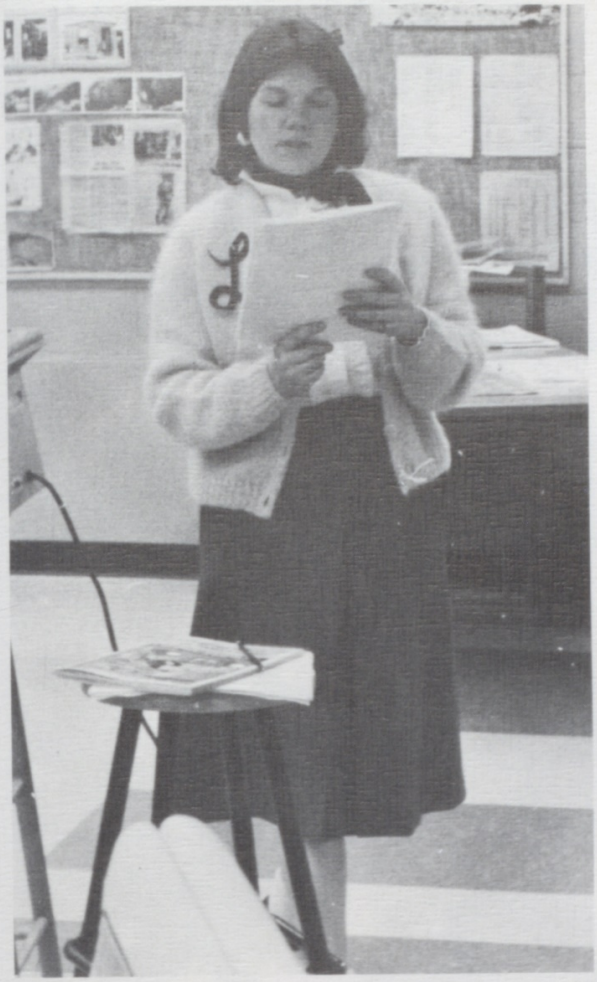

Money raising projects for the Forensics club this year included selling both Christmas and Valentine's Day candygrams.

KEYSTONE HIGHLIGHTS AIA'S YEAR

Seventeen students, along with Miss Helen Speegle and Mr. Dale Krueger as sponsors, and Mr. Larry Baker as the bus driver traveled to Keystone for AIA's annual ski trip.

Most students enjoyed the skiing with only one person receiving an injury. Kim Reitz injured her arm while doing unplanned daredevil stunts.

The End-of-the Year Picnic which was scheduled for the Memorial Park, was canceled due to weather. But that didn't stop the members from enjoying charcoal-broiled hamburgers. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Toohey donated their house and facilities for the club's use.

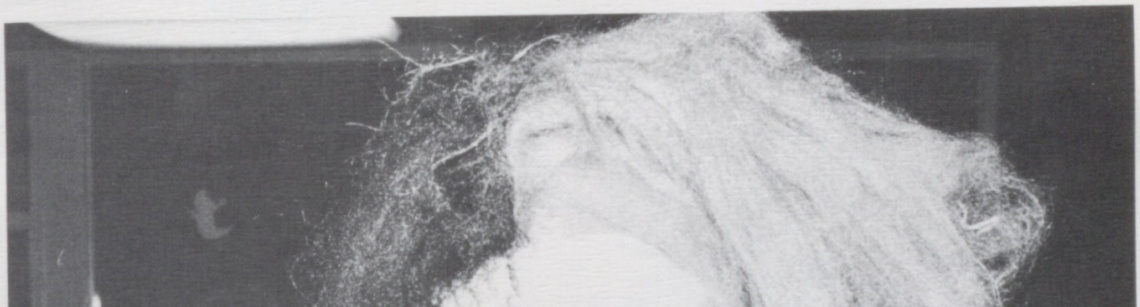

The Outstanding Members were: Deanna Odle, senior; Tammy Toohey, junior; Jeannie Strauch, sophomore; and Amy Odle, freshman.

CLEARING HOUSE HOSTS PARTY

Clearing House held a Halloween Party for the mentally and physically handicapped citizens of Morgan County. The club also hosted a Valentine's Day Party for the mentally and physically handicapped citizens of Morgan County and helped with a Christmas Party.

CARNIVAL INCREASES SPIRIT

FBLA sponsored the second annual Homecoming Carnival, October 12, held as a spirit booster and a fun activity for the whole school.

Every club and class was asked to enter a booth. FBLA's Car Bash and Jail were returning booths, with the chapter adding the Goldfish Booth and the Candy Stand. Some of the other booths were a Balloon Shave, Wheel of Chance, Dunking Booth, Dart Throw at Teachers, and the Penny Toss.

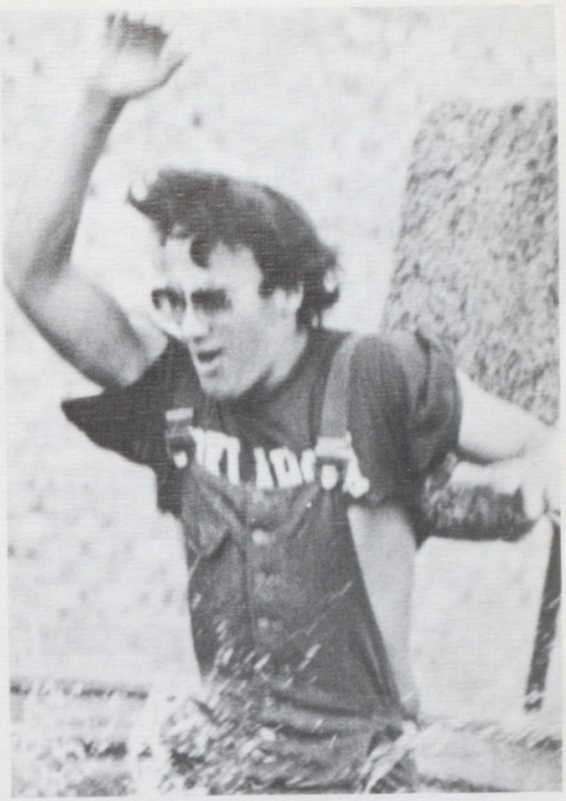

The carnival was a success with every club making a little profit, and all of the participants having a good time.

GIRLS TIE FOR LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

With a league record of 11-1 and an overall record of 18-5, the 1978 volleyball season could be considered very successful.

The team tied for first place in the league with arch-rival Wray and took second in the sub-district tournament. Advancing to the District playoffs they played Platte Valley in Kersey. After a competitive three game match, Platte Valley won and went on to take the State Championship for the third year in a row.

Awards given at the end of the season were Most Accurate Server with 165 and Most Valuable Player going to Linda Kuriger, and Most Improved Player awarded to Gretchen Dickerson.

Players selected to all-conference were senior Linda Kuriger and junior Camille Bzdek with Jenni Stinton, Tammy Toohey and Jeannie Strauch receiving honorable mention.

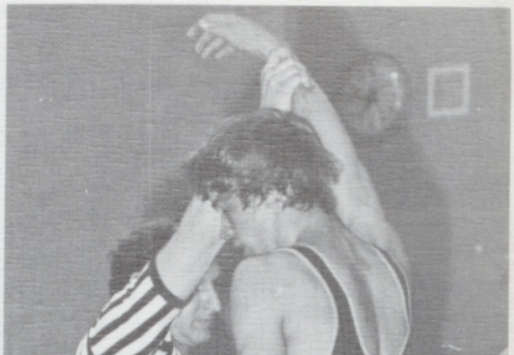

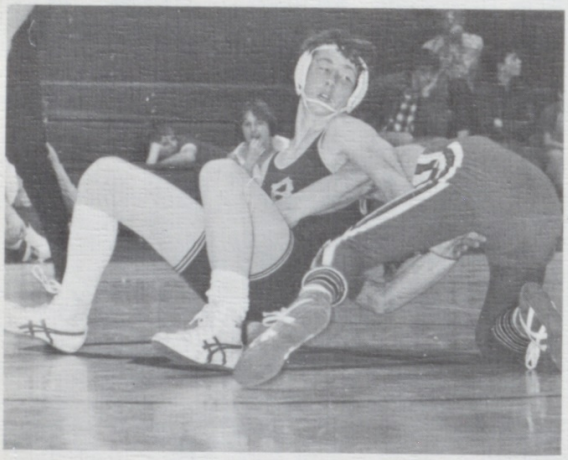

THREE GO TO STATE

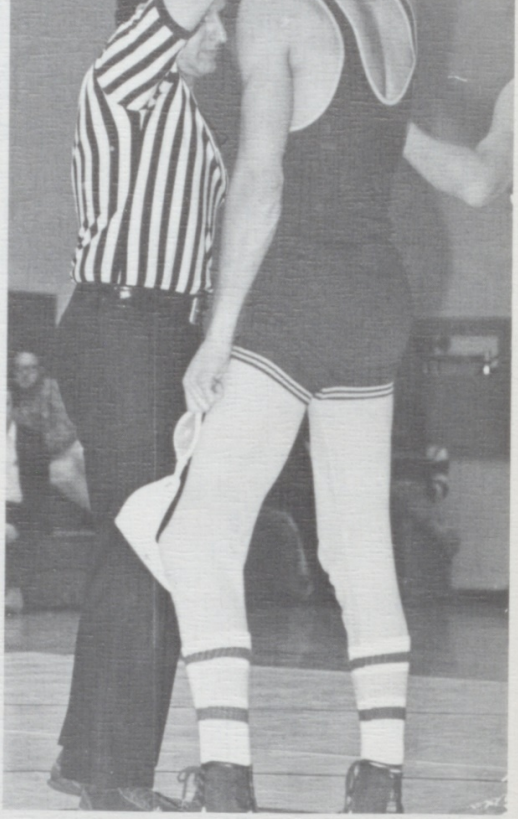

Qualifying for the state tournament in Denver this year were Francis Herrera, Mitch Bostrom and Bryan Parkhill. These wrestlers went to Denver on the 8th, 9th and 10th, to wrestle in the tournament.

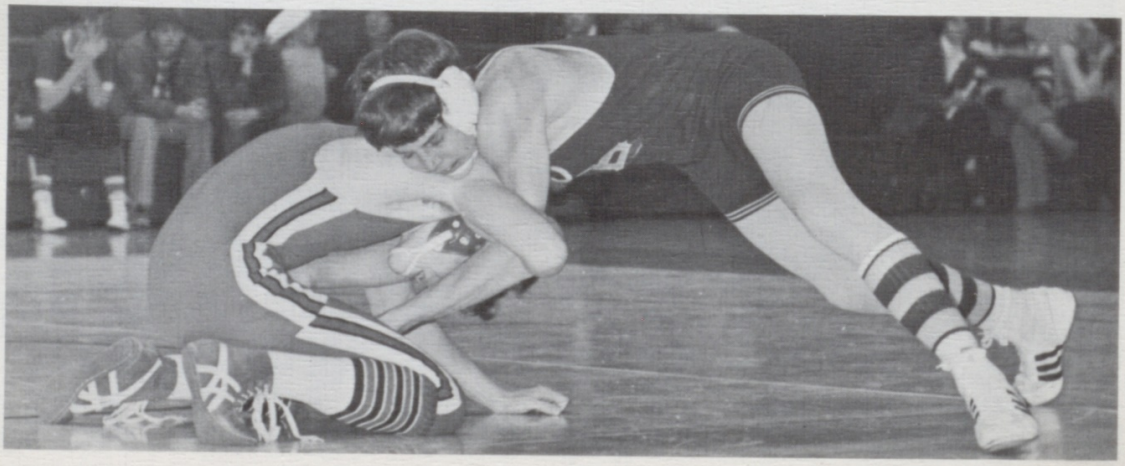

were Francis Herrera, Mitch Bostrom and Bryan Parkhill. These wrestlers went to Denver on the 8th, 9th and 10th, to wrestle in the tournament.

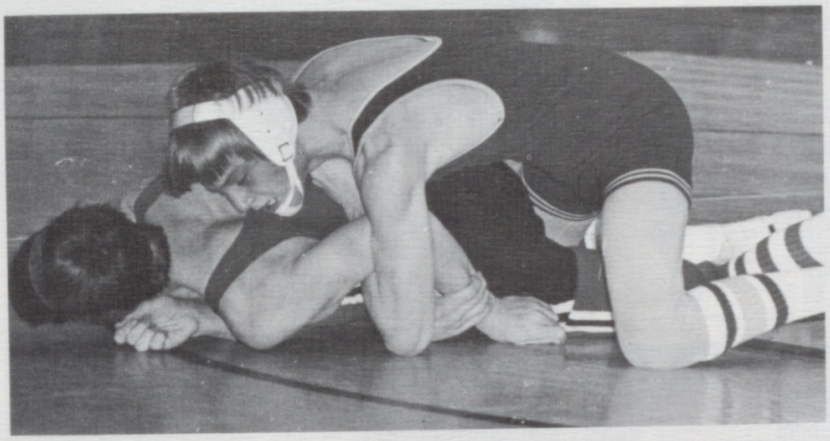

Of the three Parkhill placed second and Bostrom placed fifth. Francis Herrera was eliminated in the first round and failed to place. The team finished thirteenth over all and ended the 1978-79 season.

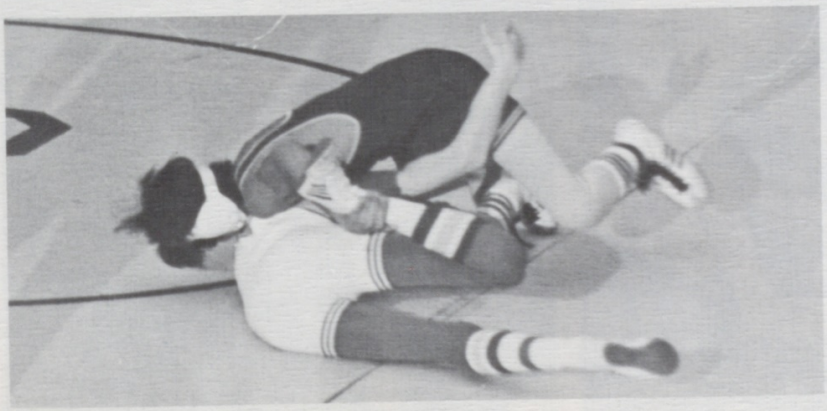

DIGGERS FINISH 7-10 SEASON

Serving as coaches for Brush this year, were Lee Roy Needens, Don Dillehay, and Larry Mills. Both Needens and Dillehay coached their ninth season at Brush, and for Coach Mills, this was his first year at leading the Freshmen. Needens' career record jumped to 197 wins, and 63 losses, while Dillehay's junior varsity slate leaped to a 114-25 record after an 11-4 season. Mills' career record started at 5 wins and 11 losses.

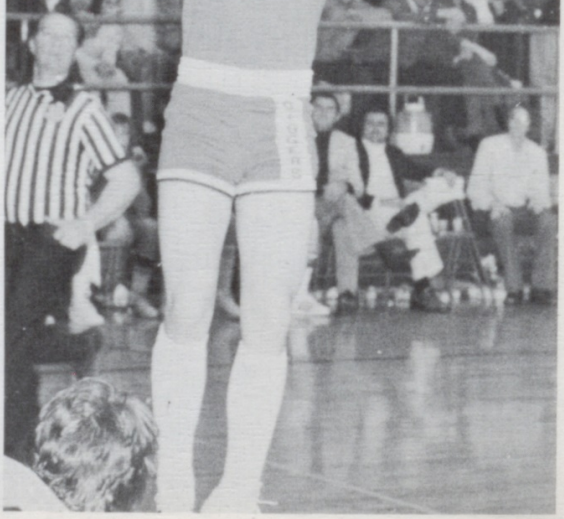

The Brush cagers were eliminated from post-season play by losing a close game to the Julesburg Lions in the first round of sub-district playoffs by the final score of 51-46.

ACTIVITIES, RECORDS, EVENTS

There are certain events which to each man's life are as comets to the earth, seemingly strange and erractic portents; distinct from the ordinary lights which guide our course and mark our seasons, yet true to their own laws, potent in their own influences.

FLOAT COMPETITION, HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES, KEEP STUDENTS BUSY

Brush High School students took an active part in the 1978 Homecoming activities. Float competition, a carnival, and Spirit Week comprised the student's time during the week. This kept up the enthusiasm leading up to the volleyball and football games in which the Diggers faced the Yuma Indians.

the week. This kept up the enthusiasm leading up to the volleyball and football games in which the Diggers faced the Yuma Indians.

First place in the float competition went to the Class of "79". The juniors finished second. The freshmen edged the sophomores for third place.

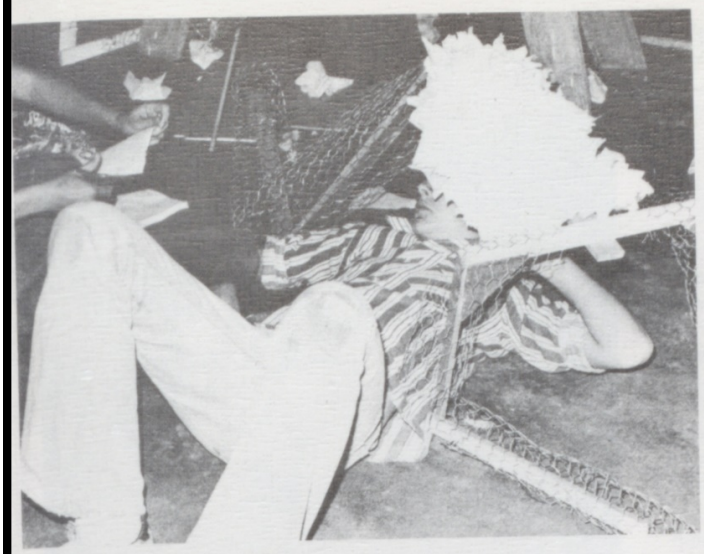

FBLA sponsored the 1978 Homecoming carnival in which many of Brush High's clubs sponsored a booth. This added to the excitement of Spirit Week when students took part in days corresponding to "Rip the Indians" and "Maroon and Gold" days. The 1978 theme was "Diggers are Superstars".

The Digger volleyball team defeated the Indians in two games to win the match. Yuma dealt the football team a loss, defeating Brush in the final seconds.

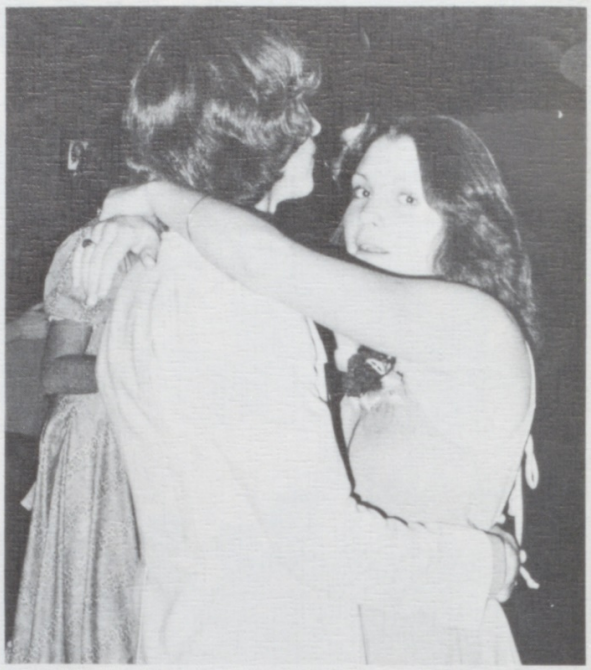

LINDELL, ODLE CHOSEN HOMECOMING ROYALTY

Brush High School students danced to "Ocean" at the 1978 Homecoming dance. The dance was held in the B.H.S. commons.

The theme was "Diggers are Superstars". Decorations of footballs and volleyballs hung from the ceiling, while stars covered the walls.

Kent Lindell and Deanna Odle were crowned king and queen at the October 14 dance. The candidates for king were Kent Lindell, Chuck Rieb, Darryl Albert, and Todd Elling.

Jan Mitchell, Deb Parkhill, and Barb Strauch attended Deanna Odle as queen candidates.

PROM FEATURES 'TOMORROW''

Honoring the seniors, "Tomorrow" was sponsored by the juniors on April 28, 1979. The prom featured the band Boulder.

For the first year, there were both male and female Jr. Attendants. The candidates were Camille Bzdek, Meredith Gill, Jami Miller, Jill Mullen, Darren Hansen, Terry Linker, Mark Teter and Bob Zadel.

Prom Queen candidates were Hilary Hansen, Jan Mitchell, Deb Parkhill, and Barb Strauch, with Darryl Albert, Mark Edson, Todd Elling, and Chuck Rieb as King candidates.

Royalty for the 1979 Prom were Terry Linker and Meredith Gill, Jr. Attendants; Hilary Hansen, Prom Queen, and Todd Elling, Prom King.

Broadway came to Brush's stage, November 16 and 17 in the Junior Class Play "The Matchmaker". Directing her first play was Mrs. Kathy Daniels. The play was the non-musical version of "Hello Dolly".

For the first time, the play was cast from the whole school and not just the junior class to help finance prom.

THESPIANS PRESENT MUSICAL

On the nights of February 12th and 13th the Thespians again presented a musical. Directed by Mrs. Kathy Daniels and Mr. Robert Pringle, "The Coolest Cat in Town" was performed in the high school auditorium.

The play dealt mainly with a Rock and Roll star. He accidentally got trapped in a Freon tube and was frozen for 20 years. The play goes on and shows the adjustments the defrosted star must make in his "new" world.

JUNIORS SPONSOR PLAY AND PROM

Juniors finished the 1978-79 year with a second place in the Homecoming flaot competition and also sponsored the Jr. Class Play and Junior-Senior Prom during the school year.

Class officers serving this year were Camille Bzdek, president; John Lindell, vice-president; and Chris Griffith, secretary-treasurer.

Concession stands during the football games helped earn money for the prom as did the Jr. Class Play entitled, "The Matchmaker," a comedy, which premiered November 16th and was presented two different nights.

LOOKING ON TO THE FUTURE

Officers for the class of '79 were Chuck Rieb, president; Rudy Perez, treasurer; and Lucille Morris, secretary.

In the homecoming float contest the seniors received their second consecutive first place vote. The theme was "Diggers are Superstars".

The Jr.-Sr. prom, honoring the seniors, with the theme "Tomorrow", was held on April 28.

Preparing for graduation the Senior Steering Committee chose the colors Princess Blue and Luster Blue for the caps and gowns. May 18 was set aside for Baccalaureate practice.

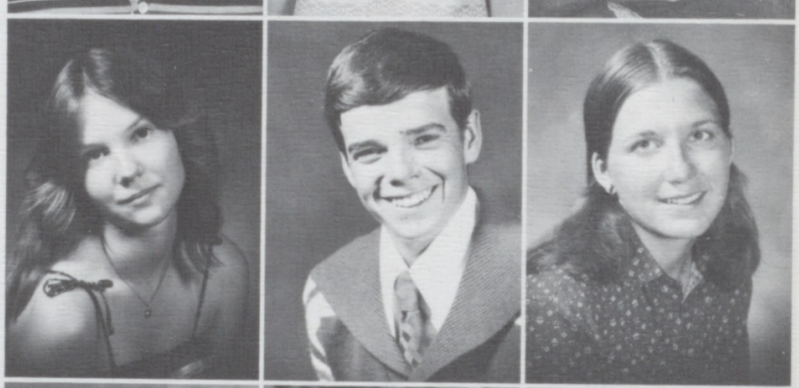

Entering the new world, the 105 seniors took their final walk down the gym on May 24.

Lead on, O King Eternal, The day of march has come;
Hence-forth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home.
Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,

Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper The sweet Amen of peace
For not with swords loud clashing, Nor roll of stirring drums;
With deeds of love and mercy The heav'nly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal, We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning Wher-e're Thy face appears
Thy cross is lifted o're us; We journey in its light:
The crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might.
