The High School Story

What's so important about a first line? It is the hook, the catch, and the key to a good story. High school is the first line to our story. What we make of each week, each chapter, shape the rest of our school ye and the rest of our live That's what first lines a all about: the start to great beginning.

It was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness

Before Homecoming Week, Student Council prepares a Pep Rally in which they announce next week's dress- up days and the Homecoming candidates. During the Pep Rally, some student council members dress up as examples. One day was Gender Bender, in which (1)Jacob Nichols '14 and (2)Zaira Flores '14 were the examples. Student Council also announced the Homecoming Candidates, for the boys it was (3) Skyler Seewald, Joe Rosenbrock, CJ Kukus, and Tanner Morrow. The girls candidates were Sarah Padilla, Hailey Craton, Erin Berg and Callie Chisum. To end the rally, the cheerleaders performed a few cheers, (4) Araceli Robles and Kenzi Ryan' 13 are doing the "Move it to the left, move it to the right," cheer. And as a tradition, to end all the rallies with a blast, all the classes chant the Battle Cry. (5) The sophomores are seen here putting all their might into it, while the (6) freshmen are reluctant and some stand up, but most don't, which tends to happen every year.

The week of September 27 through October 1st many events took place in Brush High School. Sport events occurred almost everyday, starting on Wednesday September 29, with a boy's scocer game in Fort Morgan. Thursday September, 30, the softball team played against Valley. On Saturday, a volleyball game took place in Brush supporting Breast Cancer Awareness month, in which the team and even the spectators wore pink shirts to support the cause. After the tournament, Gorilla Volleyball took place in opening of Homecoming week. To the left, Daniel Soto '12 weightlifts, seen here doing the "crossover."

Cody,
Be someone you would be proud to know! We are sure proud of you.
Love Mom and Dad

Bud,

I am so proud of you. From a wild and crazy kid you have grown to be a responsible and thoughtful man.

We are going to miss you like crazy, but we are excited to see what you do with this next phase of your life.

There have been great debates about what will happen with your room. But we really do love you.

Good luck.

Dear Samuel

We are so proud of the young man you have become! You always bring a smile to our lips in your daily humor! As you go on to become the man of integrity and honesty following the Way of the Lord, we are excited for you! God blessed us with a wonderful son in you! Take what you have learned now, and make it your own. God will be with you every step and we are your biggest cheering squad!!

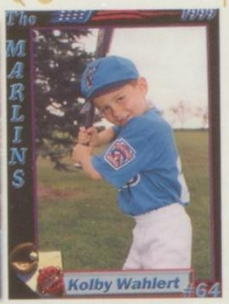

Love you bunches!
