DEDICATION

In acknowledgment of his outstanding work in the fields of science and math at Brush High School, we, the Sagebrush Staff of '58, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Franklin Mercer.

Mr. Mercer has been a teacher in Brush fourteen years. His first teaching job was in Jose for two years. He then moved to Kirk where he taught one year. Fall, 1944, he came to Brush High School where he has taught science and math.

SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. A. Lebsock, Mr. R. Fries enjoy themselves while checking financial statements.

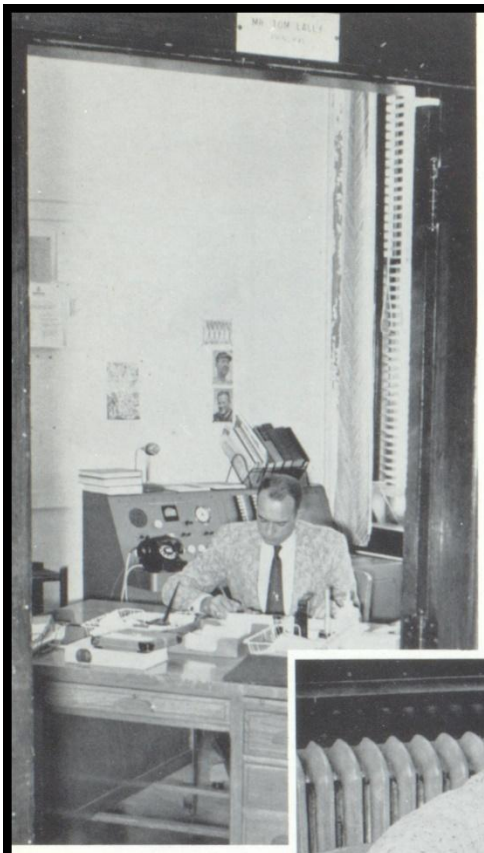

These men have donated many hours and much thought to give the students of the Brush Schools the highest possible scholastic learning. They have worked diligently to achieve and maintain the high standard of instruction which enables us to be among the schools accredited by the North Central Association.

Mr. E. W. Thomson anticipates an evening with the School Board.

Mr. D. Kjeldgaard, Mr. H. Bolinger, and Mr. J. Lindell discuss a weighty problem of the School Board.

MR. LALLY

This year has brought widespread scientific advances and many changes to our world. Even though our way of life is changing greatly and rapidly, we hope the 1957-1958 Sagebrush will serve to remind you that many things are of lasting and unchangeable value: good friends, good memories, faith in our country, faith in God, and faith in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Tom Lally Principal

Mr. Thomas Lally has been associated with Brush High School as teacher, coach, counselor, and administrator for seven years, four of which have been spent as principal.

Among the duties contributing to the principalship are making of school policy, administration, selection of new teachers, and many other functions which make school life more pleasant and effective for faculty, students, and community.

HOMECOMING

Cheerleaders lead Pep Club in rally at bonfire

With sounds of the rythmic drum, a clashing of musical tones, and the shuffle of marching feet, the 1957 Homecoming ceremonies began as the Homecoming parade wound its way down Clayton Street from the high school.

Leading the parade was the high school band with the twirlers in the lead. The football team immediately followed. Next in line were the queen candidates. Behind them was the Pep Club, marching in uniform. At the end, was the grade school band.

Upon reaching the business part of town, a large circle was formed and the streets echoed with cheers. A skit was then presented by the Dramatics Club.

During half-time ceremonies of the Homecoming game between College High and Brush, Carol Sandoz was crowned Homecoming queen by College High football Captain.

Miss Sandoz was crowned at the after-game Homecoming dance by Peter Wohlauer, Digger football captain. She was attended by Donna Danielsen, Evelyn Hall, Joy Lowry, Doris Stitt and Judy Watrous.

The Homecoming prize winning float entered by the senior class and followed by the junior float.

SWEETHEART DANCE

JOHN SMITH
Mr. Digger
'58

Evelyn Hall, head cheerleader, crowned John Smith "Mr. Beetdigger" at the annual Sweetheart Dance, traditionally sponsored by the Pep Club.

"Mr. Beetdigger" was elected by the Pep Club on the qualifications of athletic participation, good sportsmanship, and general character.

The crown for "Mr. Beetdigger" was made by Ellen Hoxworth, Judy Scheideman, Carol Bott, Kay Martens, and Annetta Jiter, chairman. Gold foil was used for the crown and hearts covered with red glitter were placed at intervals around it.

Donna Baird, chairman of the ticket committee made the tickets and her committee, Judy Scheideman, Janet Wilson, Barbara Skinner, Shirley Hunt sold them at $1.25 per couple.

A dance is not complete without decorations. Thus the decorating committee, Pat Parrish, Judy Staby, Alyce Kruger, Peggy Van Dyke, and their chairman Carollyn Woffard, with the help of the total Pep Club, put up the decorations.

Punch and cookies were served as refreshments. These were furnished by the refreshment committee, Ellen Hoxworth, Kay Martens, Mary Jane Ruggles, Barbara Chandler, Jean Fairbanks, Annetta Jiter, Bonnie Cox, Sharon Lee, Frances Fries, Roberta Trotter, and Barbara Skinner.

The mother's council were chaperones.

Junior class members received their class rings at the beginning of the school year in October.

Soon after electing their class officers, projects, whose purpose was to raise funds for the prom and banquet, began. Some of the undertakings were the class play, football concessions, levying of class dues and others.

The class play, under the direction of Mrs. Bloom, was presented.

In May the prom and banquet were presented, thus ending junior projects for the year.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL 1957

Brush dropped the opener to a strong Regis eleven 31-7, but came back hard to defeat Julesburg 14-13. Injuries and illness plagued the Beetdiggers as they suffered a 21-7 loss at the hands of Wray. Lafayette was victim of a hustling BHS squad in the first league game 38-20. Homecoming was somewhat dampened in spirit by a 13-7 triumph going to College Hi. Showing a great deal of determination, the Diggers upset a favored Ft. Lupton team 14-13. However, Conference Champion team, Windsor, eliminated their chances by means of a 25-18 defeat. The end came with Eaton taking advantage of a "mentally unprepared" Digger eleven by a score of 61-13. Brush finished with a two wins and three losses Conference record. Having tied Bear Creek in a mid-season game 19-19, the over-all picture was 3-5-1. In pre-season elections, Peter Wohlauer, Senior fullback, was chosen captain of the team.

"B" SQUAD

As ever there were some boys, mostly Freshmen and Sophomores, who were out all season and worked as hard as anyone. Some played but didn't earn enough quarters in most cases to letter. Other members out with football injuries and not shown here are Harry Parkhill, Larry Mercer, and Billy Giauque.

Hard tackling shows Dan Morman (74), and Bob Butz (20) teaming up against a Windsor back.

Coach, STAN PIVIC

D. MORMAN

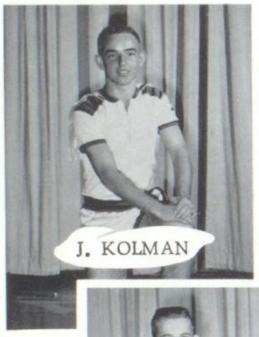

H. PARKHILL

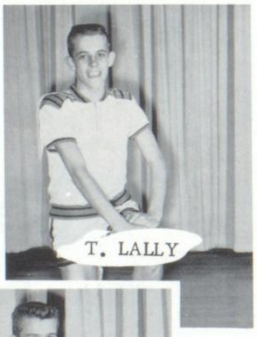

Coach Stan Pivic opened his first year at B.H.S. as basketball coach with an eleven man squad. Mr. Pivic is a graduate of Colorado State University at Ft. Collins and was captain of the basketball team during his senior year, in which they were conference champs in the Skyline, and journeyed to the AAU tournaments.

Lettermen returning to this year's squad to give it a good overall height and a fine shooting department were four seniors, including Dan Morman, forward, Larry Schultz, guard, John Smith, co-captain of the team, playing forward, and Butch Wilson, captain of the squad, at guard. Other members of this year's team were, Harry Parkhill, a junior guard, Don Schultz, a junior center, and Earl Teter, a junior center. Sophomores on the team were Jerry Kolman, Ron Morhlang, Tim Lally, and Bruce Wahlert. Gary Hoffmann, a junior, and Pete Wohlauer, a senior, were out of action most of the season with leg injuries. Pivic's starting five were Wilson, Smith, Morman, L. Schultz and Teter.

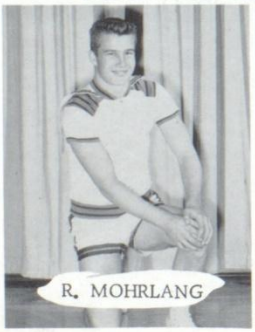

Conference champions were determined by the best record held after playing a round robin in the six member conference. The Tri-Valley then entered this team into the state tournament held in Denver in March.

Coach Stolte demonstrates a pin as C. Maupin models.

1957-58 SEASON

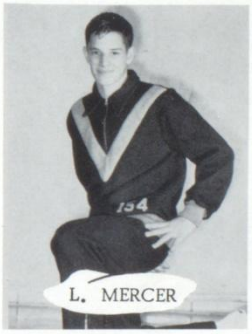

Coach Stolte's wrestlers, young and inexperienced, dropped many of their matches, but managed to have one state champion.

Pete Ybarra, defending state champion, decisioned Fix of Wray 5-0, for Brush's sole first place win in the District Wrestling Tournament.

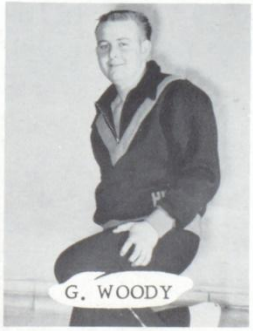

Brush won no second place matches, but Bill George pinned Limcrest of Yuma to capture third place. Trying for third place, but both losing by decisions were Rex Eaves, who lost to Garcia of Lafayette, and Lucky Ybarra, who lost to Trustin of Wray.

First and second place winners went to Denver February 21 and 22 to participate in the State Wrestling Tournament.

In this tournament, Pete Ybarra, BHS junior, for his second year earned the title of State champion in Division II. Ybarra, wrestling at the 112-lb. weight, started out in the tourney with a quick pin in 2:56. His next match was won 8-0, and the final championship match saw Ybarra decision Fix of Wray, 3-0. As a Freshman, Ybarra placed third in state, and last year he took first in the 103-lb. class.

The "class of '60" started their sophomore year headed by Jayme Keener, class president; Joey Keener, vice president; Bonnie Cox, secretary; and Jerry Kolman, class treasurer.

At their first meeting, dues were set at $2.00, and officers were elected. Another meeting was called again in three weeks, and the class decided to enter a float in the Homecoming Parade. The float was made by the President and his committee.

The annual "Sophomore Class Dance" was the subject of the third meeting. A committee was chosen for the dance, and was headed by Judy Scheideman. The dance was held Saturday night, December 21. A Christmas theme was used; and the party went off as scheduled.

In the spring of 1958, the Class chose their class rings, completing their year in successful fashion.

ORCHESTRA

Mr. Hurrell, head of the music department, directs orchestra.

During the '57-'58 year, the BHS music department included 58 choir members, 58 band members, 17 dance band members, and 47 orchestra members. The orchestra and band enrollment was the largest recorded thus far.

The schedule for the music department was: January 20, choir sang for Nativity, winter concert; March 10, midwinter concert, and May 19, spring concert. The orchestra played for the Fall Play and the Junior Class Play. During the football and basketball half-times, the band played several numbers.

Members of the BHS Band and the twirlers traveled to Boulder on September 30 for Band Day and were rated superior. Doris Stitt traveled to Boulder February 14, for All-State Orchestra and was the head twirler this year. Barbara Skinner was the drum majorette.

The dance band is a new addition to the group. It began noon hour practice in November and performed for the thirty-first anniversary of the American Legion. Occasionally they played for noon recreation entertainment.

Instruments that have been added to the department include four French Horns, one Bassoon, and a Cello.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Managing student affairs and projects are among the jobs of the student council. The council also works to promote understanding between students and the faculty.

Among the projects for 1957-58 are to be found the new parking lot for the students, the council evaluation, work on the noon hour recreation program, and many of the decorations in the school during the Christmas season.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Dean Van Dyke, the BHS Student Council has become known as one of the most effective in the State of Colorado.

Shirley Hunt leads a group discussion, while Jim Marietta, Judy Watrous, Carolyn Jolly, Judy Schiedeman and Bonnie Cox listen.

Leading the group are Peter Wohlauer, President; Carol Sandoz, Vice President; Carl Slater, Treasurer; and Barbara Chandler, Secretary.

Participating in the meeting are members Don Murrow, Jayme Keener, Bill Smith, Ray Christensen, Herb Mohrlang, and Treasurer Carl Slater.

"Jumping Jewels," a three-act play, was presented this fall by members of the speech and dramatics class with Mrs. Eleise Bloom directing. A mystery-comedy with twelve characters, it was chosen to be given instead of the usual three one-act plays because of the smaller size of the dramatics class this year. The climax in the play came when Miss Parsons, the jewel thief, surprised guests at the "House-in-the-Hollow."

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club was headed by Donna Baird, President; Joy Lowry, Vice President; Tommy Ashton, Secretary; and Lorraine Koehler, Secretary.

Activities for the year were guest speakers, talking on boys' state, and on various vacations; the annual Thanksgiving program, hosting guest speaker, Rev. Staby; baskets of food for the needy at Thanksgiving, and selling tickets for the senior play.

NATIVITY

"The Nativity" was presented by the class of '58 on December 17. This observance of Christmas has been going on for more than fifteen years. Miss Lyda, the originator of The Nativity, was followed by Mrs. Wood, and now Mrs. Bloom is carrying on the Yuletide custom.

Evelyn Hall played the part of Mary, John Smith was Joseph, and the reader was Janet Petersen. The innkeepers and their wives were Gary Woody, Gary Richard, Dwain Asheim, Carol Cox, and Carol Sandoz. Ray Christensen, Herb Mohrlang, and Danny Morman played the parts of the kings.

The parts of the children were played by Doris Stitt and Donna Danielsen. Richard Reinert, Gale Townsend, Bob Butz, Don Murrow, and Tommy Ashton played the parts of the Shepherds. Herod was portrayed by Peter Wohlauer.

The slave girls and the servant were played by Donna Baird, Laraine Koehler, and John Hagan. Bob Dunn was the poor Shepherd boy.

The angel choir, under the direction of Mr. Hurrell, consisted of Pauline Baughman, Wilella Brown, Pat Holt, Carolyn Jolly, Judy Martinez, Sybil Newman, Charlotte Schultz, Judy Watrous, and Joy Lowry played the part of Gabriel.

F.H.A.

Officers: C. Sandoz, J. Watrous, S. Hunt, C. Cox, D. Schilling, A. Krueger, C. Cooperrider, J. Hall, B. Cox, convene for meeting.

This year the F.H.A. members sold candy as a money-making project. Over four hundred cans were sold, netting them a profit of about one hundred-seventy dollars. Also, among other projects, the girls made favors for the hospital and Eben-Ezer Home. The mentally ill patients at the Pueblo State Hospital are being provided with needed articles sent by the girls. Each year these F.H.A. girls sell Easter Lilies for the crippled children.

Model Airplane Club was organized for the first time this year, and had a total of thirty-eight members in all. Officers, elected at the first of the year, included: Larry Mercer, president; Don Schultz, vice president; and Alvin Krueger, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Mercer was the sponsor of the club.

Activities included the study of Aero-dynamics and the building of various sized model airplanes. Gliders, small models, line-controlled fuel-powered models, and jets were built by members.

SAFETY CLUB

As the students of Brush High School change and their interests vary, the school has established clubs and organizations to encourage these interests and promote hobbies. One of these clubs is the Safety Club, which promotes safety in the school, conducts all fire and civil defense drills, and keeps all safety devices, such as fire extinguishers, in good and operable condition.

Officers of this year's club were Don Ott, president; Tim Lally, vice president; and Art Hoff, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Mercer, science instructor, was the club sponsor.

Donna Baird has an editor's pin for acting as copy editor of the Sagebrush Reporter and Annual.

International Quill & Scroll Society operates in close connection with the journalism department. Members of the Society must be in the upper third of the class and are selected by a recommendation from the publication's sponsor. Along with this recommendation the number of inches of copy printed in their paper is submitted and their best story is retyped and sent in to be judged.

This year, seven new members were selected for the coming school year to boost the membership to fourteen including the honorary members.

Bob Dunn has acted as business manager of the Sagebrush Reporter and Annual for the past two years. He holds a business manager's pin.

Mr. Thomas Woolley is the faculty member of the Society. He has acted as director since 1955-56.

Gary Hoffmann, Earl Teter, Carollyn Wofford, Julie Rocha, and Margaret Hoffmann are new junior members of the Society.

Miss Walters was director of the journalism department from 1948-1954 and is an honorary member of the Society. Tommy Ashton is a member of Quill and Scroll from the preceding year; last year, Mr. Lally became an honorary member. Peter Wohlauer and Carolyn Jolly were elected this year.

PEP CLUB

Officers for the 1957-58 school term were elected in the spring of the preceding year by the Pep Club members.

The aims of the club were to support the various athletic teams, promote good sportsmanship, and inspire school spirit.

Later in the year, the Sweetheart Dance, an annual event, was sponsored by the Pep Club. For this occurrence, a "Mr. Beetdigger" was also elected by the club.

In the spring, election for officers and cheerleaders was held and results were announced at a banquet which was attended by the entire Pep Club.

CHEERLEADERS

The buzzer sounded and the score showed the "Diggers" out in front, 50-49. Pandemonium reigned as second half tension broke to the great relief of Brush fans and especially the Pep Club of BHS.

As tension mounts, Carol Cox shows strain.

A bad situation brings signs of disapproval from D. Danielson and J. Martinez.

Julia Rocha and Carolyn Privette take out time to relax.

Cheerleader Shirley Hunt gives vocal assistance.

Coach and team celebrate a "combined effort" victory.

Carollyn Wofford does her part for the team.

In a game with Eaton, Brush, a heavily favored team, started action quickly, and the game began well under control.

However, through various mischances and general laxity, point difference in the last minutes of play was slight.

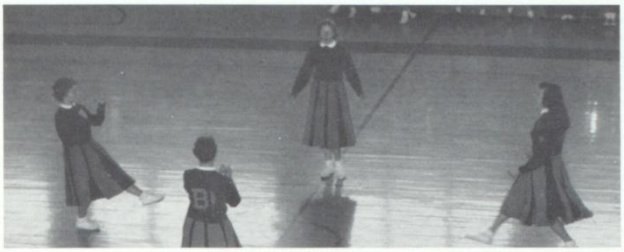

With less than a minute and a half remaining the score stood, Eaton 49 - Brush 48. Soon after, a reversal was shown on the scoreboard as the Brush five went ahead by the score of 50-49.

Time still remained for Eaton to score, but their attempts failed, and Brush had won their 18th consecutive league victory, and the 6th conference game of the season.

The night has a thousand eyes
And the day but one;
Yet the light of the bright world dies
With the dying sun.

Head table settles down to the main topic, eating.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Shirley Hunt and Rex Eaves read the prophecy, much to the delight of the guests, especially John Smith and Herb Mohrlang.

Juniors give the Junior-Senior Banquet May 3, 1958. The Hawaiian theme is carried out in the table decorations and dinner music. Various entertainment consists of different Hawaiian songs. The annual banquet is given in honor of the seniors graduation.

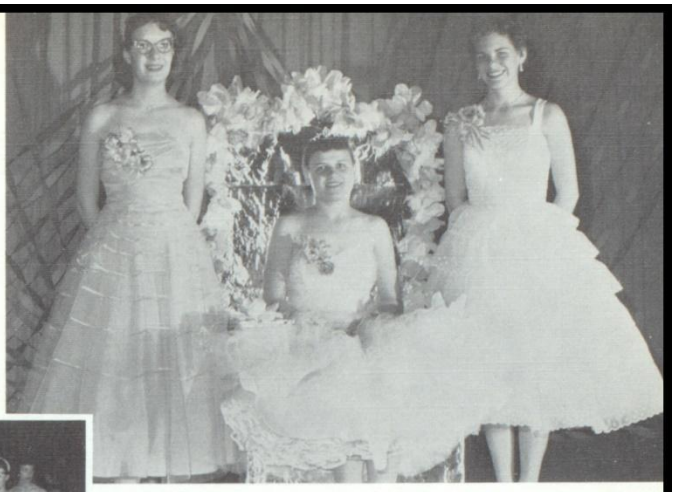

Gary Hoffman, Master of Ceremonies, welcomes the class of '58 and faculty to the banquet.

Guests at the banquet all seem to be enjoying their meals.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

1958

Carol Sandoz, queen of the 1958 Junior-Senior Prom, is surrounded by her court. Judy Watrous was the senior attendant, and Shirley Hunt was the junior attendant.

Carol, her escort, and complete court are ascending to the throne, where she was crowned queen.

Immediately following Carol's crowning she and Earl Teter, the Junior Class President, led in the Queen's Dance.

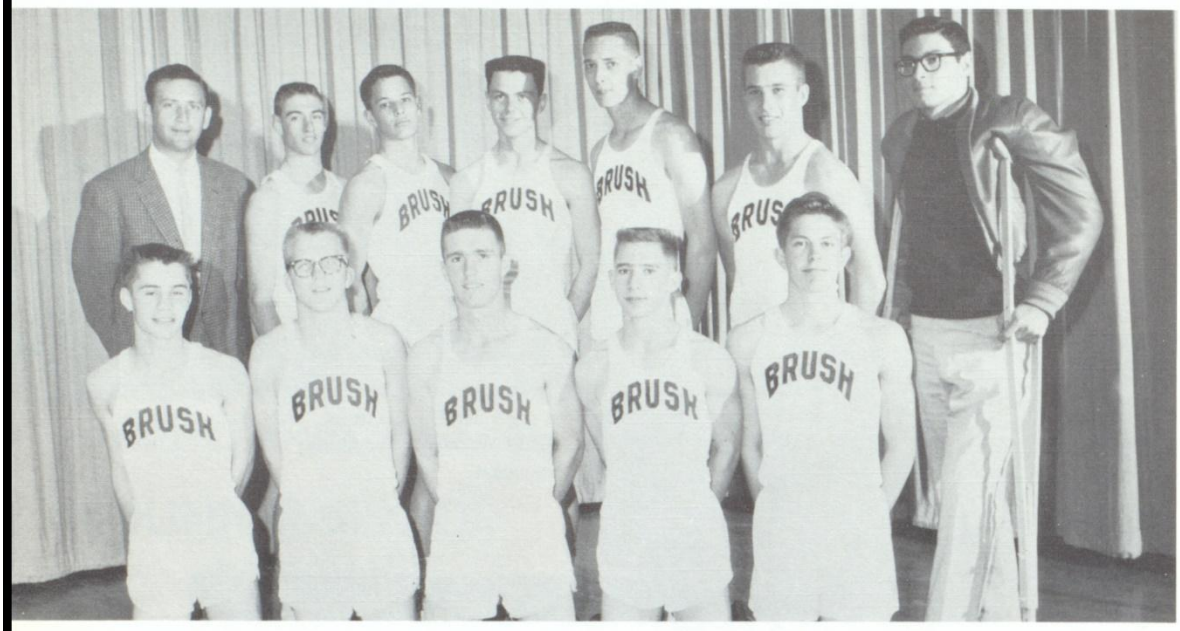

Was it tired feet or a show, which entertained this quartet of sophomores during the dance?

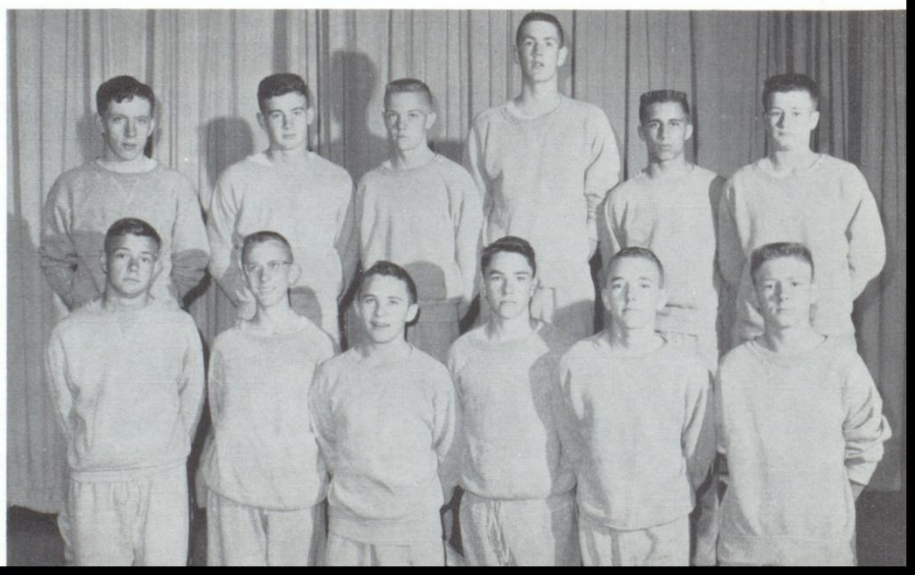

The punch table as usual is one of the busiest places at the dance.

TRACK — 1958

Top row: R. Schreiner, Coach; L. Schultz, L. Mercer, R. Reinert, J. Smith, R. Mohrlang, P. Wohlauer. Front row: Jayme Keener, R. Wilson, J. Marietta, R. Eaves, R. Butz.

Under the coaching of Bob Schreiner, the "digger" track squad placed third in the NEJC Invitational, third at the C.U. relays, and won the conference crown. With nine entries in the state meet, Brush managed to place a close third with Bob Butz repeating for the second straight year as State Champion in the mile run. Brush has been the conference champion team since the formation of the Tri-Valley League three years ago.

Standing: D. Ott, D. Anderson, B. Lindel, J. Hagan, B. Osborne, M. Bresnahan. Kneeling: J. Perry, B. Lindell, H. Bostrom, E. Morse, T. Taylor, C. Maupin.

Ellie Mae, Paige and Jill all added to the confusion that was written into this play. Frances Chvatal, Donna Murrow, and Alyce Krueger.

The Dolson family, Sally Mother, Hildegarde, Father Bob and Jimmy, share one of the rare peaceful scenes of the play.

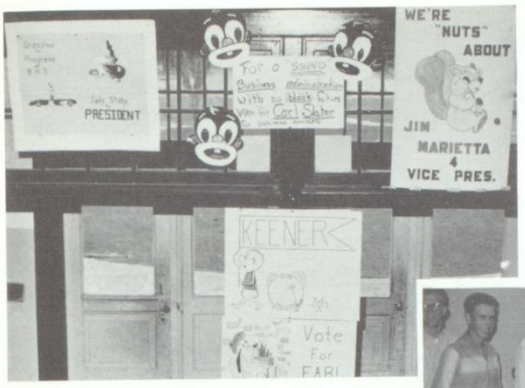

Portrayed in appropriate costumes are Mrs. Shermer, Connie Cooperrider; Mr. Shermer, Cecil Oldham and knickered son, Freddie, Don Schultz.

Stan Schippert, Gale Morse, Julie Rocha and Don Ott, stage crew, find a moment to relax.

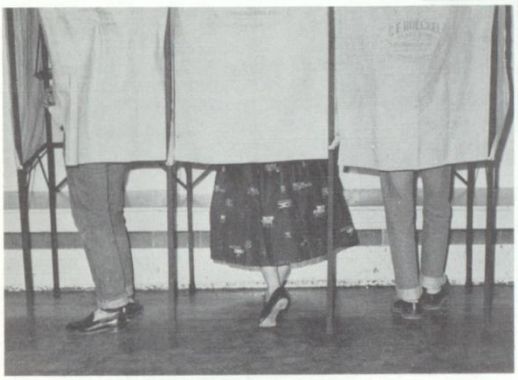

STUDENT BODY ELECTIONS

Posters decorated the halls of B. H. S. for two weeks before voters went to the polls.

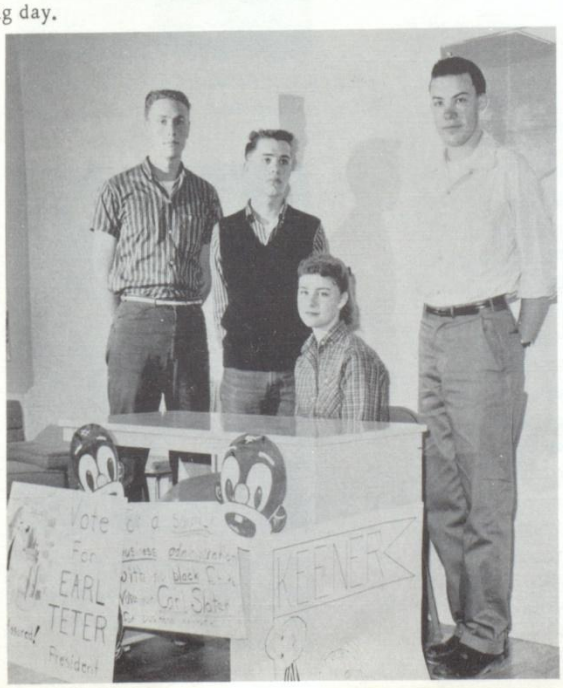

Evelyn Hall is all business as she registers before entering the booth.

Voters cast their ballots in complete privacy on the big day.

Maralyn Schwindt places her ballot in the ballot box with her selections for student body officers intact.

CLASS OF '58

The Class of '58 chose pink and silver for their colors, the rose for their flower, and ONE GOAL REACHED BUT MANY BEYOND as their motto.
