SEPTEMBER

Beneath the round September moon
The songs of school days ring again,
New words, sometimes a different tune,
But still the same refrain.

4—The Universe was again in motion
after three months' rest.

13—The Full Moon entertained the other Moons at a picnic at Dodd's Bridge in honor of the Quarter Moon, Miss Johnson: What are the parts of the stamen?

Lone Foote: Anther and the firmament.

16—The movements of the Universe became more regular—class officers and sponsors were elected.

19—The Sun took on the earthly form of faculty members and entertained the Universe.

20—The wee Quarter Moons underwent a stiff examination before the Universe.
Results showed: General Description: Light green, legs bare, ears dirty, and petticoats missing. Accomplishments: ?? Eligibility: Not eligible—too young. Grand tryouts for yell leaders—Davis, Amen, and Gibbs were elected. Whoopee! Come on, gang, let's go! Mr. Volgamore:
The first date in history was 4000
B. C. Emmett: Who had it?

21—Brush vs. Eaton. Did Brush win? I'll say we did!

28—The year was yet young, but there were many budding romances around the campus. Peace reigned.

29—Oh, Oh! We spoke too soon. "The course of true love never runs smooth." See Page 32.

OCTOBER

When Mary went to school I know
She studious was, and sober;
But as for me—this page will show
What B. H. S. did in October.

- 4—The usual even motion of the Universe was impeded when they clashed with the Greeley Wildcats. The score was 25 to 9 in favor of the Wildcats. Dedicated to Nelda Baughman: No girl buries her nose so deeply in a book that she can't get at it to powder it.

- 10—Sterling rally.
Yellin' in the rain,
Just yellin' in the rain,
We're happy again,
What a glorious feelin'
We're on our way to win
Thru thick and thin,
We're yellin', just yellin' in the rain.
11—Thrills! We twisted the Sterling Tiger's tail to the tune of a 6 to 7 victory.

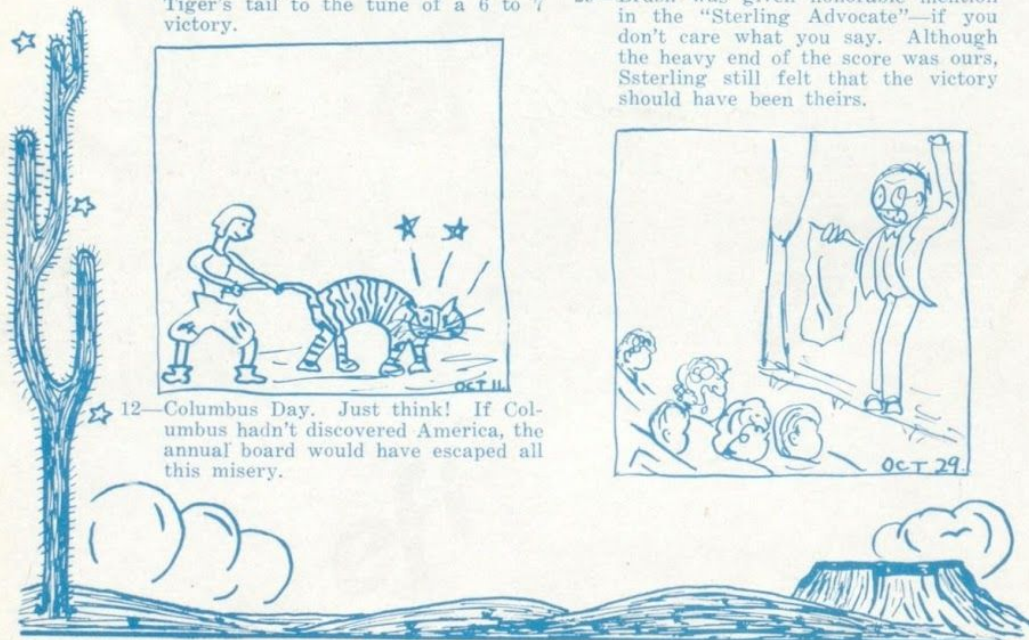

- 12—Columbus Day. Just think! If Columbus hadn't discovered America, the annual board would have escaped all this misery.

- 14—It must have been the dark of the moon. The greatest part of the Universe trembles and quaked while a few stars shone on undaunted at the news spread by the first report cards.

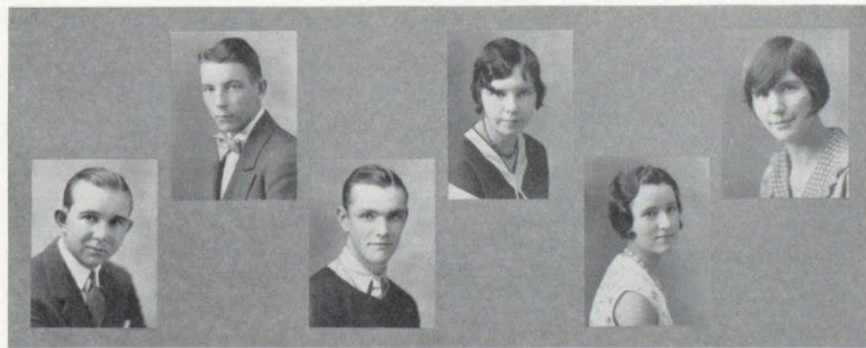

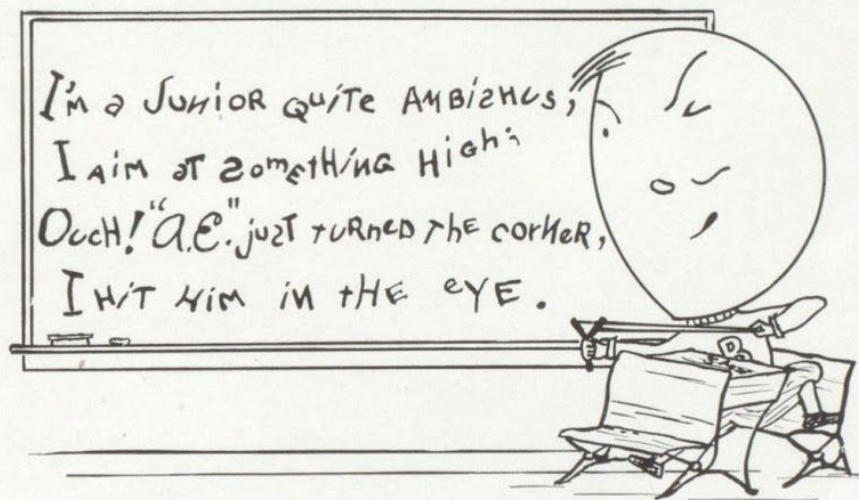

- 18—On this day the God of War, Mars, did not smile upon our Beetdiggers. Although the football stars outplayed the Morgan team, we lost to them by one touchdown.
24—Freshman Radio Program. Ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience, we are very glad to announce that the Freshmen have learned the first three letters of the alphabet, A. B. C.
25—It took the combined efforts of students, principal, coach, and team to win the second football game from Sterling. The score was finally decided.
29—Brush was given honorable mention in the "Sterling Advocate"—if you don't care what you say. Although the heavy end of the score was ours, Ssterling still felt that the victory should have been theirs.

NOVEMBER

Prim Mary never knew the joy
Of autumn sports that I remember.
The hard-fought games, the cheers,
the noise,

The thrills of football in November.

5—The Juniors put on our All-School Carnival.

6-12—Hooray—Vacation. We understand that the teachers got a lot of education along certain lines from the Denver shows while they were attending the teachers' convention.

11—Armistice day and a big football game with Fort Morgan. The boys played in snow, mud, and water; nevertheless we won.

14—First Dramatic club plays, "Lima Beans" and "Nevertheless," were presented.

16—When the Brighton Bulldogs defeated the Beetdiggers 7 to 0, we lost all hopes of winning state championship.

17—Louis Norman brushed up on a few points of etiquette before going to Kansas City, see page 40.

21—Freshman play, "Not by a Dam Site."

22—Future Farmers of America returned in all their glory. The team won second place in the National Meet Judging Contest.

27—Thanksgiving holidays.

Favorite Expressions of Teachers:

Mr. Corfman—The whole thing in a nutshell. Don't take advantage of the situation. So on and so forth.

Miss Eriksen—Now then. Is that clear? Say!!!!

Mr. Volgamore—More or less. So much for that. Now let's get busy.

Miss Johnson—Look it up for yourself. What do you think?

Mr. Reed—Espashially. Haul off and learn it. Let the talking decrease about 50%.

Maurine—You may not believe it, but I said "No" to seven different men this summer.

Anna Lee—Oh, I don't doubt it. What were they selling?

Mother—Clarke, your teacher called on me today to complain about you.

Clarke—Now ain't that just like a woman.

DECEMBER

The Christmas candles—a ray
That shines on many a yesterday,
And Christmas stars their radiance shed
To light the years that lie ahead.

- 1—The moons and stars performed their duties with unusual diligence. Why? Oh, Yes! Christmas was only twenty-four days away.

- 9—The Seniors sponsored a program in which some of the citizens of Brush entertained the high school with several musical numbers. The football stars were rewarded for their efforts by receiving letters. We are especially proud of our team this year, because they were the winners of the Northeastern Colorado Championship.

- 10—The Junior Play, "THE FAMILY UPSTAIRS," proved to be an interesting sketch of present day family life.

- 14—Our shooting stars performed in public for the first time in a game with Eaton. The score was 47 to 26 in our favor.

- 16—The Girls' Chorus joined with the grade school in giving a "Feast of Carols."

Miss Eriksen—Can you tell me anything about John Milton, Max?

Max Young—Well, he got married and wrote "Paradise Lost." Then his wife died and he wrote "Paradise Regained."

- 20—The Dramatic Club presented a Christmas play, "Dust of the Road." As the curtain fell, Santa Claus appeared in all his glory with suitable presents for all the classes and Mr. Corfman. Three Cheers! Another vacation!

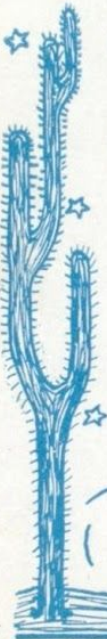

- 27—Joes outshown our shooting stars in a game ending with a score of 39 to 19.

- 28—Another game with Eaton. The stars traveled to Eaton and won.

- 30—Back at school again. The "Annual" drive started. "Don't forget to bring your dollar."

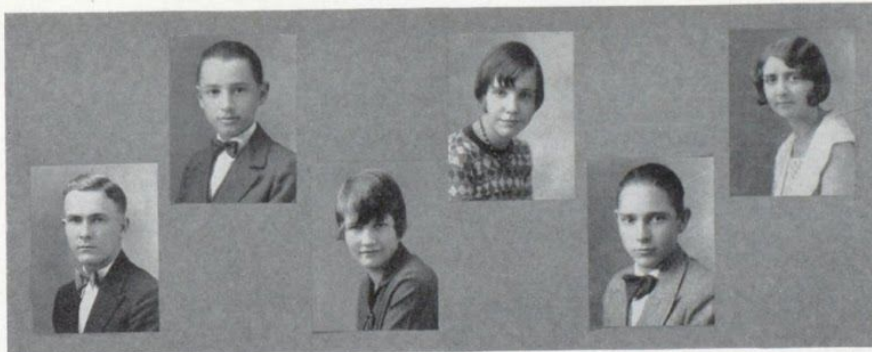

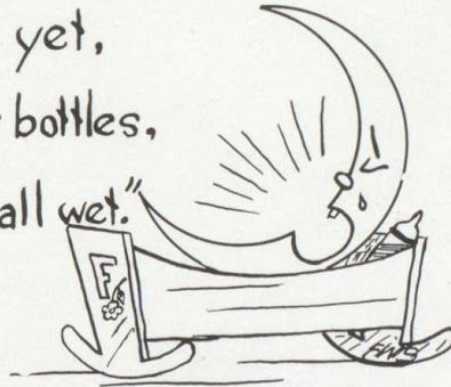

- 31—Billy Sunday's representative came to town to remind us of our shortcomings—particularly financial. Were you one of the Frivolous Freshmen, Sophisticated Sophomres, Juvenile Juniors, or Sagacious Seniors who did not bring his dollar?

JANUARY

Though school-times will be left behind
And years may come and go,
The story of those happy days
These pages are sure to show.

- 2—We wonder if Mr. Johnson made or broke a resolution on New Year's Day. See page 40 for picture of total eclipse.

Gwendolyn—I think a woman can get anything out of a man she wants if she handles him right.
Pauline—Yes, but who wants to handle a man as rough as that?

- 8—Kansas State Teachers' tests to find out how much we don't know.
9-16—Six weeks exams—Review for semester tests see page 40.
17—Aha! At last we were avenged. The students played while the teachers worked. We are glad they didn't get so crabby that they flunked everyone.

- 20—The second semester opens with an entirely new program outlined for us. School begins at 8:40. Have pity for Esther, and get here on time.

- 21—"The Bride and the Burglar" and "Lenna Looks Down," Dramatic Club plays, were presented.

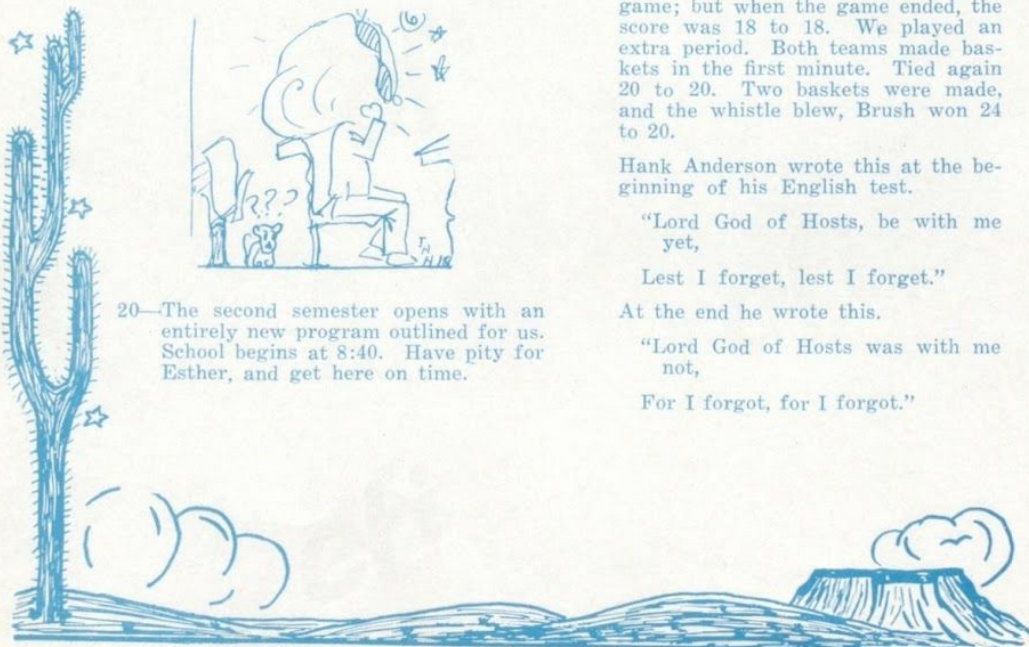

- 22—Teaser for the Epworth League Play. Is "Daniels" a French name? We were under the impression it was Irish.
24—Brush played Fort Morgan at Morgan. Thrilling! and how! Brush made the first basket and kept a little in the lead during most of the game; but when the game ended, the score was 18 to 18. We played an extra period. Both teams made baskets in the first minute. Tied again 20 to 20. Two baskets were made, and the whistle blew, Brush won 24 to 20.

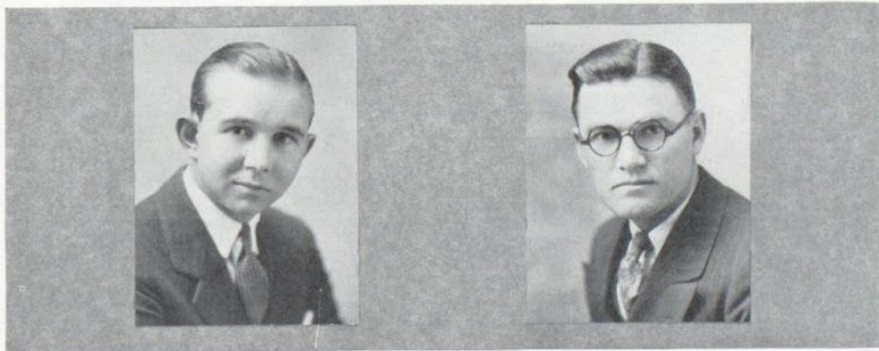

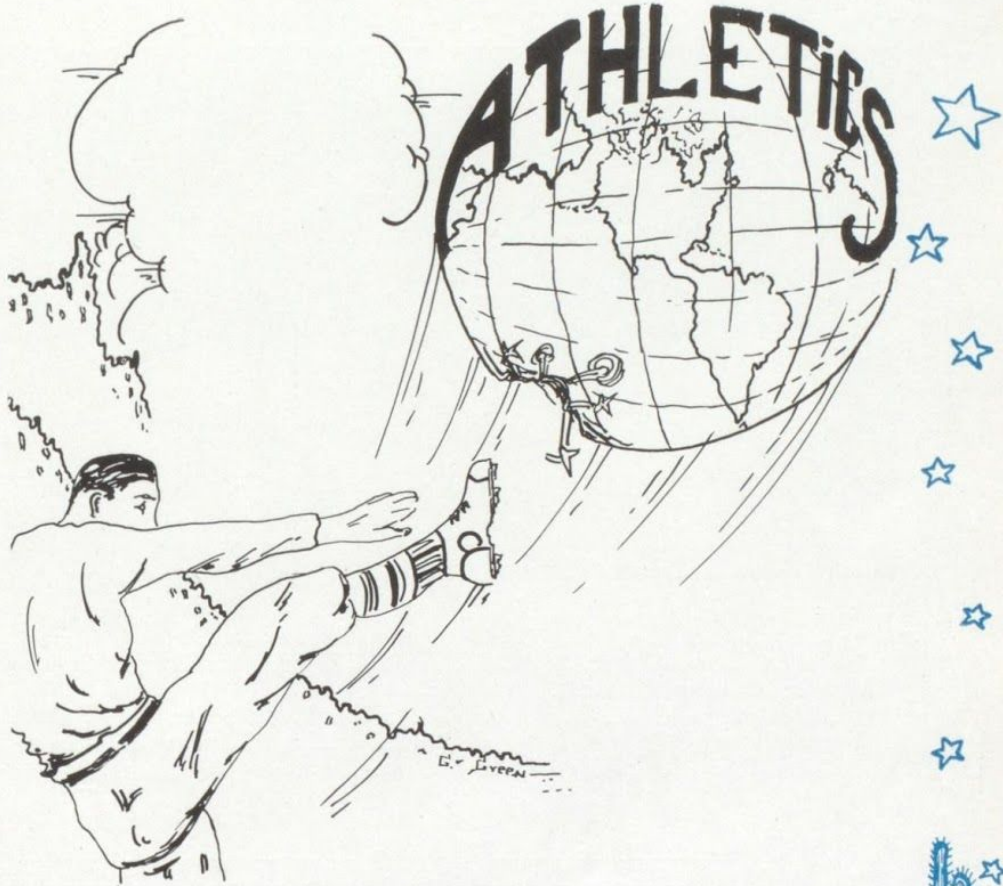

Hank Anderson wrote this at the beginning of his English test.

"Lord God of Hosts, be with me yet,
Lest I forget, lest I forget."

At the end he wrote this.

"Lord God of Hosts was with me not,
For I forgot, for I forgot."

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SEASON 1930

Although girls' basketball has been discontinued in many schools, with the consent of school authorities Brush girls started practicing and secured "wildcat" games. Miss Eriksen sponsored the team.

By playing Sedgwick at Sterling March 11, and winning by a score 28 to 11, Brush won Northeastern Colorado Championship. Then the girls played Berthoud on March 21, winning the game by a score of 65 to 29, thus making them Northern Champions.

On the evening of March 29, the first state championship game ever played in Brush took place against Flagler at the Central School Gymnasium. Although the girls made a desperate fight, they were defeated by a score of 33 to 24. This made Flagler State Champions. The Brush girls trained and practiced faithfully and well deserved the success they achieved.

FEBRUARY

I may not be dressed in Crinolines
Or pantalette—but this I know:
I'm just as fond of Valentines
As any girls of long ago.

- 6—Home Economics' Style Show. Mr. Corfman hoped that the boys appreciated the fact that skirts are going down.

- 7—Rally at noon for Sterling game. The whole student body snake danced through the halls of the Central School.

- 11—Freshmen Theater Party. Our little Quartermoons surprised us by the manner in which they entertained.

- 12—The Reverend Alfred Waller gave us a very interesting speech on Abraham Lincoln. Everyone was on his best behavior, because the state inspector visited us.

- 14—Was it true that Dizzy gave Lizzie a great big candy heart with "I love you" printed on it? "A Midnight Fantasy," a play for Valentine's Day was given by the Dramatic Club. Once again we beat Morgan by a margin of nine points.

- 22—In spite of the Brush rooters who went to the Sterling game, we lost. The score was 26 to 15.

- 24—The poor mouse and the poor girl. The combination was terrible. Tryout for the all school play, "The Poor Nut."

- 25—Triple Header basketball game. Flagler girls came up and trounced our girls.

- 28—Six weeks' tests. Hard and How! Grover game. Brush girls won, but the boys game evened things up by Grover's winning from us.

Mr. Keirns—What cha doin', Schooley?
Schooley (working problem on board)

"Jen"—Do you believe in a here-after?

Helen Amen—Why, of course.
"Jens"—Then how about a little knecking? That's what I'm here after.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

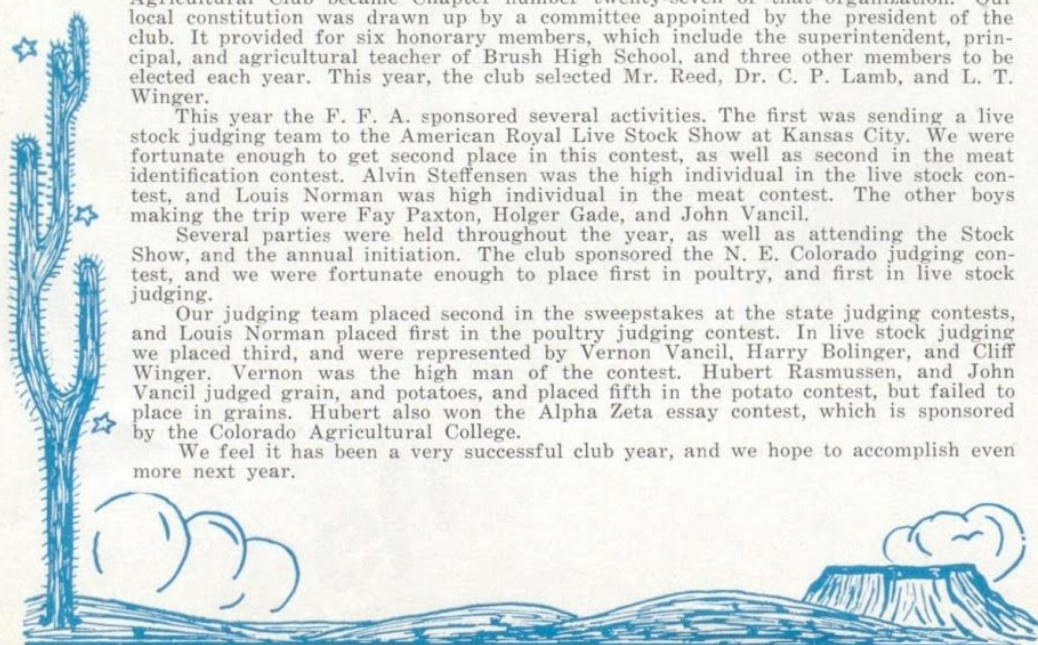

The Future Farmers' Charter was received early in the school year, and the local Agricultural Club became Chapter number twenty-seven of that organization. Our local constitution was drawn up by a committee appointed by the president of the club. It provided for six honorary members, which include the superintendent, principal, and agricultural teacher of Brush High School, and three other members to be elected each year. This year, the club selected Mr. Reed, Dr. C. P. Lamb, and L. T. Winger.

This year the F. F. A. sponsored several activities. The first was sending a live stock judging team to the American Royal Live Stock Show at Kansas City. We were fortunate enough to get second place in this contest, as well as second in the meat identification contest. Alvin Steffensen was the high individual in the live stock contest, and Louis Norman was high individual in the meat contest. The other boys making the trip were Fay Paxton, Holger Gade, and John Vancil.

Several parties were held throughout the year, as well as attending the Stock Show, and the annual initiation. The club sponsored the N. E. Colorado judging contest, and we were fortunate enough to place first in poultry, and first in live stock judging.

Our judging team placed second in the sweepstakes at the state judging contests, and Louis Norman placed first in the poultry judging contest. In live stock judging we placed third, and were represented by Vernon Vancil, Harry Bolinger, and Cliff Winger. Vernon was the high man of the contest. Hubert Rasmussen, and John Vancil judged grain, and potatoes, and placed fifth in the potato contest, but failed to place in grains. Hubert also won the Alpha Zeta essay contest, which is sponsored by the Colorado Agricultural College.

We feel it has been a very successful club year, and we hope to accomplish even more next year.

Our aim in compiling this little "Book of Memories" has been to gather together all the faces of our Brush High School Faculty, School Board, and Student Body into as attractive a volume as means and time would permit.

We shall be very happy if these pages should bring pleasant memories to those who peruse, and should they help to keep alive a feeling of love and loyalty in the hearts of the children of "Old Brush High" we shall have accomplished our aim.

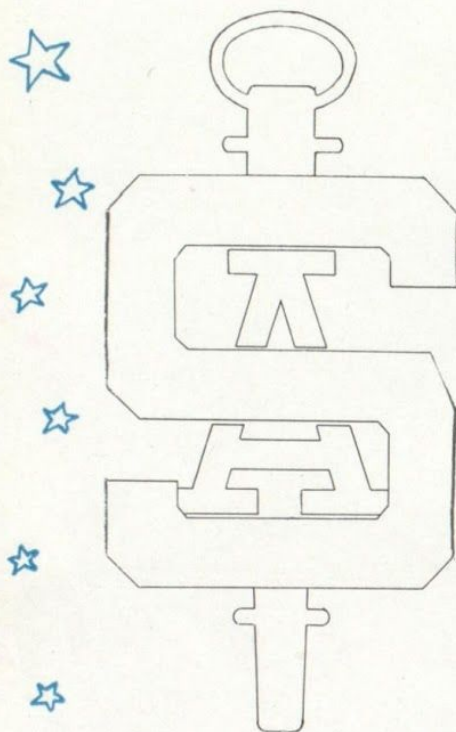

The Staff thanks all members of the Student Body and Faculty most sincerely for the spirit of helpfulness shown throughout the year.

The National Athletic Scholarship Society of Secondary Schools

School administrators throughout the country have worked faithfully and long to crystallize into one organization the efforts of many to at once reward and encourage the thousands of boys and young men who carry their school colors into athletic events of all kinds.

Such earnest endeavor was finally rewarded in the formation of a society, not at all prohibitive in its requirements and yet of such nature as to make membership in the society one to be highly desired.

NAME AND PURPOSE

Section I. The name of this society shall be the National Athletic Scholarship Society of Secondary Schools.

Section II. The purpose of this society shall be to foster high scholarship among boy athletics, to stimulate a desire for balance training and to develop more outstanding leaders in the Secondary Schools of the U. S.

MEMBERSHIP

Section I. Eligibility to membership in this society shall be limited to those boys whose average in their school work for three consecutive semesters is equal to or higher than the general average of the school.

Egon Hansen, '31 and Hubert Rasmussen, '30 were admitted into the society in 1929. So far in the 1929-'30 school year no one has been elected. Clarence Harness is now eligible. When the track season is over, several more are expected to qualify.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society of Secondary Schools was granted to the Brush High Schools on the twenty-seventh day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

The purpose of this organization shall be to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of American secondary schools.

The Constitution of this national organization recognizes four cardinal objectives as fundamental in all educational practice: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service. To exalt these objectives and hold them ever before the school as goals toward which all should strive, is the purpose of this society.

No selections have been made as yet this year, but no doubt several will be chosen before graduation.

MARCH

Breezy Miss March—a modern maid—
Comes bursting in with rush and shout;
But after, too, I've heard it said,
As mild as March's lamb, goes out.

- 3—March came in like a lion. English 1 class entertained the Latin 2 class the third period—no refreshments were served.

Excuse Us!
The gum-chewing girl and the cud-chewing cow
Are somewhat alike, yet different somehow.
What difference? Oh, yes, I see it now;
It's the thoughtful look on the face of the cow.

By V. H. Volgamore?

- 7—Mr. Leo brought the finest of the stars from the Central Grade School to entertain us.
7-8—Basketball Tournament at Morgan. This closed season for first string men.
10—Games with Weldona—both boys and girls.

- 11—The basketball girls played Sedwick at Sterling. We won 28 to 11.

- 12—The Girls' Chorus and the Girls' Glee Club, entertained in assembly.

- 16—The Devil brings the strong March winds,
To blow the ladies' skirts high.
But God is just and sends the dust
To fill the bad man's eye.

- 17—St. Patrick's Day. The day the Freshmen shone—and also Miss Harbaugh's ring.

- 19—Mr. Davies awarded certificate to the winners in the National Judging Contest. The Dramatic Club gave two plays; "Parlor Tricks" and "So's Your Old Antique."

- 21—The basketball girls won from Bert-houd.

- 28—Brush girls lost State Championship to Flagler.

- 29—Mr. Johnson's boys placed Brush third in the District Judging Meet.

- 31—The cross country 2.6 mile run was won by Otto Sauer. Egon Hansen came in second with Eldon Howard close at his heels.

APRIL

Sweet April! many a thought is wedded upon thee, as hearts are wed; Nor shall they fail, til, to its autumn brought, Life's golden fruit is shed.

1—Reatha (talking over the phone to Una Mae) "Mother thinks I have the measles, so I won't be at school today." One hour later, Una Mae sees Reatha in the hall and exclaims "I thought you had the measles." Reatha, "April Fool!"

4—"The Poor Nut." Which one of the characters was the "Poor Nut?" It was a very clever play and cleverly acted. A good time was enjoyed by all who attended. From this time on we are going to fake the calendar.

12—Ah! raining pitch forks and hammer handles today. (That is what the Almanac said.) Boys Only! Read Backwards—didn't you if girl a be wouldn't you, this read would knew we.

15—The members of the younger generation needn't think the clutch used in an automobile is something new. Dad can tell you it was often used in the old time buggy on quiet country roads.

17-21—Easter vacation.

25—Commercial meet at Greeley.

26—Play day in Morgan.

The Story of X

X is the Roman notation for ten;
X is the mark for illiterate men;
X is a ruler removed from his throne;
X is a quantity unknown;
X may mean Xenum, a furious gas;
X is a ray of similar class;
X-mas is Christmas, a season of bliss;
X in a letter is good for one kiss;
X is for Xerxes, that monarch renowned;
X marks the spot where the body was found.

27—Apple blossoms and love—What have we? Marvis and Virginia—Page 40.

MAY

When May comes hanging garlands
On every hill and hedge,
Perhaps I'll find a nosegay
Beneath my window ledge.

- 1—All the girls hung May Baskets.
- 3—Northern Colorado Track Meet at Ft. Collins.
- 6—Northeastern Colorado Scholastic meet at Akron.
- 7—All school exhibit. Senior Play.

- 8-9—Northeastern Colorado Track meet. The Girls' Glee Club went to Denver to take part in the state music contest.

Mr. Keirns—And so we find that heat expands things and cold contracts them. Can anyone give me an example of this?
Billie Amen—Yes, sir. The days are longer in the summer.

- 14—The Sneaking Seniors took their Sneak Day. They were just under way when they met President and Mrs. Hoover. "Herb" proved to be the kick of the party.

- 17—The Woman's Club gave their May Morning Breakfast to the Senior girls.

Mr. Corfman—My dear, I believe I have lost the road.

Mrs. Corfman—Are you sure that you had it when you left the house?

- 20—The last six-weeks-tests of the year. How we enjoyed them!
- 23—Junior-Senior Banquet.
- 25—Baccalaureate.

- 26-27—The following answers were received on the final examinations:
"There are two parts to a sentence, the subject and the predicament."
"To kill a butterfly, pinch his borax."
"Nicotine is such a deadly poison that a drop of it on the tail of a dog will kill a man."

One aspiring young teacher, after laboring six weeks to instruct a class on "Julius Caesar," asked the question, "What book have we been studying?" and received the prompt answer, "Julius Shakespeare."

So, she committed murder. X marked the spot.

- 28—Class Day Exercises.

- 29—Commencement.
The divorced man has nothing on the Annual Staff. We're free at last.
